Re Reading Saussure The Dynamics Of Signs In Social Life:

Re-reading Saussure Paul J. Thibault, 1997 Saussure's theory of language is generally considered to be a formal theory of abstract sign types and systems separate from our individual and social practices of making meaning In this challenging book Thibault presents a different view of Saussure Paying close attention to the original texts including Cours de linguistique generale he demonstrates that Saussure was centrally concerned with trying to formulate a theory of how meanings are made The Routledge Language and Cultural Theory Reader Lucy Burke, Tony Crowley, Alan Girvin, 2000

My Mother Was a Computer N. Katherine Hayles, 2005-10-15 N. Katherine Hayles explores how the impact of code on life has become comparable to that of speech and writing as language and code have grown entangled: the lines that once separated humans from machines, analog from digital and old technologies from new ones have become blurred.

Semiotics: The Basics Daniel Chandler, 2007-05-07 This updated second edition provides a clear and concise introduction to the key concepts of semiotics in accessible and jargon-free language. With a revised introduction and glossary, extended index and suggestions for further reading, this new edition provides an increased number of examples including computer and mobile phone technology, television commercials and the web. Demystifying what is a complex, highly interdisciplinary field, key questions covered include: What is a sign? Which codes do we take for granted? How can semiotics be used in textual analysis? What is a text? A highly useful must-have resource.

Semiotics: The Basics is the ideal introductory text for those studying this growing area.

Parallels, Interactions, and Illuminations Ersu Ding, 2010-11-15 The first major work in Sino-Western comparative semiotics, Parallels, Interactions and Illuminations is a transdisciplinary and intercultural effort that makes intellectual connections not only across such diverse academic fields as epistemology, anthropology, linguistics, sociology and cultural studies but also between Chinese and Western theories of the sign in the conviction that they can shed light on one another. In this groundbreaking work, Ersu Ding studies two traditions of semiotic realism represented by Plato and Husserl in the West and by Mo Zi and Ouyang Jian in China. They share two fundamental assumptions with regard to meaning: that there exist ultimate qualities of things and states of affairs in the extrasemiotic world and that the meanings of words or other types of sign are derivatives of these essentials. A pioneering work that remains extraordinarily accessible, Parallels, Interactions and Illuminations explores a wide range of issues including intersubjective negotiation of meaning, the relationship between metaphor and culture and the production and dissemination of myths.
