Morrow Each chapter in Teaching Black Speculative Fiction introduces a Black speculative text and its author describes how the text engages with issues of equity justice and or antiracism explains and describes how one theory or approach helps elucidate the key text s concern with equity justice and or antiracism and offers engaging teaching activities that encourage students to read the focal text that facilitate exploration of the text and a theoretical lens or critical approach and that guide students to consider ways to extend the focus on equity justice and or antiracism to action in their own lives and communities

In-between Things: Teju Adisa-Farrar,2012-08-08 In between Things A book of poetry stories of identity and interpreting society is an anthology of poems creative non fiction pieces essays and social commentary written by the young writer and aspiring scholar activist Teju Adisa Farrar This book maps the progress of her ideas throughout her last year of high school and first few years of college Starting with pieces of her life and memories from childhood the book starts off as a creative biography As the book continues on it develops into an array of writings on the author s feelings about love social issues and histories The author shares her intimate thoughts along side old new and developing beliefs and theories about the society she lives in and the world we are all apart of While the author does not hold all these ideas as true anymore she wanted to map out and explore how growth is a creative process that does not mean we are becoming someone different rather that we are learning more about the essence we were always meant to grow into In this book she uses various types of written form to understand her own identity as it relates to her own stories and her expanding understanding of the world This anthology combines identity and interpretation in a way that helps us discover the stories in Adisa Farrar s mind The free flowing nature of the book allows each piece to be new and of it s own but add to a larger story of the world as seen through the eyes of a young adult who s passion is endless and boundless Freedom dreaming futures for Black youth:

Exploring meanings of liberation in education and psychology research Seanna Leath,Lauren Mims,Misha Inniss-Thompson,2023-07-21 Research elucidating the developmental processes in Black children and youths schooling and educative experiences is increasing e g Carter Andrews et al 2019 Daneshzadeh Jackson Neal Jackson 2018 Yet the notion of freedom dreaming in relation to Black children and youth has received less attention within the fields of education and psychology We draw from U S historian Professor Robin D G Kelley s concept of freedom dreaming to illuminate not only what we are fighting against in the education of Black youth e g racial bias and discrimination unfair disciplinary practices and criminalization and Black youths overrepresentation in special education and underrepresentation in gifted and talented programs but also what we are fighting for liberatory educational praxis that build on Black youths individual and cultural strengths In the current call freedom dreaming refers to 1 actively uplifting the complex lives and stories of Black children and youth in educational settings 2 elevating Black children and youths intersectional experiences related to ability gender identity sexuality age and socio economic class and 3 highlighting the innovative work of scholars who understand and value community power in efforts to advance educational change We draw on Dr Bettina Love s 2019 call for educational freedom wherein she states The practice of abolitionist teaching is rooted in the internal desire we all have for freedom joy restorative justice restoring humanity not just rules and to matter to ourselves our community our family and our country with the profound understanding that we must demand the impossible by refusing injustice and the disposability of dark children p 7
