Spatial Politics in Contemporary London Literature Laura Colombino,2013-06-19 This book analyses the spatial politics of a range of British novelists writing on London since the 1950s emphasizing spatial representation as an embodied practice at the point where the architectural landscape and the body enter into relation with each other Colombino visits the city in connection with its boundaries abstract spaces and natural microcosms as they stand in for all the conflicting realms of identity its interstices and ruins are seen as inhabited by bodies that reproduce internally the external conditions of political and social struggle The study brings into focus the fiction in which London provides not a residual interest but a strong psychic phenomenological grounding and where the awareness of the physical reality of buildings and landscape conditions shape the concept of the subject traversing this space Authors such as J G Ballard Geoff Dyer Michael Moorcock Peter Ackroyd Iain Sinclair Geoff Ryman Tom McCarthy Michael Bracewell and Zadie Smith are considered in order to map the relationship of body architecture and spatial politics in contemporary creative prose on the city Through readings that are consistently informed by recent developments in urban studies and reflections formulated by architects sociologists anthropologists and art critics this book offers a substantial contribution to the burgeoning field of literary urban studies

J.G. Ballard's Politics Florian Cord,2017-01-23 This book is the first sustained investigation of the political dimension in the work of J G Ballard A product of and reaction to the cultural socio economic moment commonly designated as the postmodern condition Ballard's oeuvre is read as a continuous and developing meditation on the postmodern examining it specifically as an expression of late capitalism The book shows that at the heart of this meditation lies the question of resistance Drawing on a wide range of concepts and ideas taken from the field of critical theory it argues that in the face of a world marked by an unprecedented expansion of capital in which modernity's grand narratives have been invalidated and in which received forms of political struggle have lost their effectiveness Ballard's fiction commits itself to a deliberately irrational and extreme pataphysical thought in order to develop a new discourse of resistance Against past readings that have construed Ballard's writing as non political decadent or quietist the study thus reveals Ballard as a thoroughly political author committed to a subversive politics In this way the book also constitutes a timely intervention in the ongoing discussion concerning the nature and state of the political
