Reading the World's Stories Annette Y. Goldsmith, Theo Heras, Susan Corapi, 2016-08-11 Reading the World's Stories is volume 5 in the Bridges to Understanding series of annotated international youth literature bibliographies sponsored by the United States Board on Books for Young People USBBY is the United States chapter of the International Board on Books for Young People IBBY a Switzerland based nonprofit whose mission is bring books and children together The series promotes sharing international children's books as a way to facilitate intercultural understanding and meet new literary voices This volume follows Children's Books from Other Countries 1998 The World through Children's Books 2002 Crossing Boundaries with Children's Books 2006 and Bridges to Understanding Envisioning the World through Children's Books 2011 and acts as a companion book to the earlier titles Centered around the theme of the importance of stories the guide is a resource for discovering more recent global books that fit many reading tastes and educational needs for readers aged 0-18 years Essays by storyteller Anne Pellowski author Beverley Naidoo and academic Marianne Martens offer a variety of perspectives on international youth literature This latest installment in the series covers books published from 2010-2014 and includes English language imports as well as translations of children's and young adult literature first published outside of the United States These books are supplemented by a smaller number of culturally appropriate books from the US to help fill in gaps from underrepresented countries The organization of the guide is geographic by region and country All of the more than 800 entries are recommended and many of the books have won awards or achieved other recognition in their home countries Forty children's book experts wrote the annotations The entries are indexed by author translator illustrator title and subject Back matter also includes international book awards important organizations and research collections and a selected directory of publishers known for publishing books from other countries The Reading Room/4 Barbara Probst Solomon, 2002-06 THE READING ROOM 4 a literary journal in book form features fiction essays poetry art In this special International issue there is fiction from Europe Cuba Kenya and new American voices Scientist Gerald Holton on terrorism Joseph Roth Barbara Probst Solomon on Marcel Duchamp's secret obsessions new art by Larry Rivers a section of Juan Goytisolo's new novel on Bosnia Reading the World Mary Franklin-Brown, 2012-09-01 The thirteenth century saw such a proliferation of new encyclopedic texts that more than one scholar has called it the century of the encyclopedias Various referred to as a speculum thesaurus or imago mundi the term encyclopedia was not commonly applied to such books until the eighteenth century these texts were organized in such a way that a reader could easily locate a collection of authoritative statements on any given topic Because they reproduced rather than simply summarized parts of prior texts these compilations became libraries in miniature In this groundbreaking study Mary Franklin Brown examines writings in Latin Catalan and French that are connected to the encyclopedic movement Vincent of Beauvais's Speculum maius Ramon Llull's Libre de meravelles Arbor scientiae and Arbre de filosofia d'amor and Jean de Meun's continuation of the Roman de la Rose

Franklin Brown analyzes the order of knowledge in these challenging texts describing the wide ranging interests the textual practices including commentary compilation and organization and the diverse discourses that they absorb from preexisting classical patristic and medieval writing She also demonstrates how these encyclopedias like libraries became heterotopias of knowledge spaces where many possible ways of knowing are juxtaposed But Franklin Brown s study will not appeal only to historians she argues that a revised understanding of late medievalism makes it possible to discern a close connection between scholasticism and contemporary imaginative literature She shows how encyclopedists employed the same practices of figuration narrative and citation as poets and romanciers while much of the difficulty of the imaginative writing of this period derives from a juxtaposition of heterogeneous discourses inspired by encyclopedias With rich and innovative readings of texts both familiar and neglected Reading the World reveals how the study of encyclopedism can illuminate both the intellectual work and the imaginative writing of the scholastic age

Learning, Keeping, and Using Language M.A.K. Halliday, John Gibbons, Howard Nicholas, 1990-01-01 This volume contains selected papers from the Eight World Congress of Applied Linguistics held in Sydney in 1987 Volume I starts off with an overview of the field by G Richard Tucker in which he identifies two areas innovative language education and language education policy The overall focus of the papers to follow focus on the individual language learner how that individual in given contexts or in interaction with specific others develops a command of a first language of two or more first languages or of a second language in home and in classroom settings At the same time cutting across these variables there is a gradual shifting of attention from investigations of the language learning process to proposals for language teaching curricula and syllabuses
