Collage Quest Donna L. Thompson, 2015-11-12 Come voyage through lost roots of the multi dimensional artistry of collage This seemingly simple method leads you on an adventure of self discovery developing your innate abilities for shapes shifting using paper scissors and glue Author and artist Donna Thompson shares her wisdom and stories as she leads you on a journey through time From caves of old to collaging in your own home this colorful adventure is an in depth exploration of humanity's ancient connections to making art This triple layered approach is actually three books in one It begins by guiding you through the mystical Doorway of Color where you learn the Celtic ways of sensing gathering and envisioning with images Next comes the Doorway of Ceremonies where you unearth indigenous ways of communing with collage And finally the Doorway of Dreams leading to the most ancient ways of remembering who you truly are Learning to quest with collage is all about playing with colors signs and synchronicity It is also a metaphor for the ongoing journey of each human life You are invited to come along in search of multi hued elements to weave into an ever unfolding landscape of your own design Collage Quest is a guide for tracing these deep roots and translating them into modern day materials and language It is a unique and powerful 21st century tool of co creation

Close Reading New Media Jan van Looy, Jan Baetens, 2003 Close Reading New Media is the first publication to apply the method of close analysis to new media Since the early nineteen nineties electronic art and literature have continually gained importance in artistic and academic circles Significant critical and theoretical attention has been paid to how new media allow the text to break traditional power relations and boundaries The passive reader becomes an active participant choosing his own path and assembling not just his own interpretation of the text level of the signified but also his own text level of the signifier Texts no longer have a beginning or an ending being a web of interlinked nodes The decentered nature of electronic text empowers and invites the reader to take part in the literary process Poststructuralist theorists predicted a total liberation of textual restrictions imposed by the medium of print However while these are culturally significant claims little attention has been paid to their realization The goal of this volume is twofold Our aim is to shed light on how ideas and theories have been translated into concrete works and we want to comment on the process of close reading and how it can be applied to electronic literature While all contributions deal with particular works their aim is always to provide insight into how electronic fiction and new media can be read This book proposes close readings of work by Mark Amerika Darren Aronofsky M D Coverley Raymond Federman Shelley Jackson Rick Pryll Geoff Ryman and Stephanie Strickland

Rejoining the Common Reader Clara Claiborne Park, 1991 Rejoining the Common Reader is suffused with the impulse that motivates Clara Claiborne Park's distinguished writing and teaching the desire to relate literature to the experience of its readers This humane balanced and entertaining book will appeal to anyone who longs to recapture the pleasure of reading for personal enrichment and to teachers of literature who have grown to resent the intrusiveness of theory and theorizing and wish to reexamine what they are doing to for and with their students
