Richard Wright Keneth Kinnamon, 2014-11-04 African American writer Richard Wright 1908 1960 was celebrated during the early 1940s for his searing autobiography Black Boy and fiction Native Son By 1947 he felt so unwelcome in his homeland that he exiled himself and his family in Paris But his writings changed American culture forever and today they are mainstays of literature and composition classes He and his works are also the subjects of numerous critical essays and commentaries by contemporary writers This volume presents a comprehensive annotated bibliography of those essays books and articles from 1983 through 2003 Arranged alphabetically by author within years are some 8 320 entries ranging from unpublished dissertations to book length studies of African American literature and literary criticism Also included as an appendix are addenda to the author's earlier bibliography covering the years from 1934 through 1982 This is the exhaustive reference for serious students of Richard Wright and his critics

A Reader's Companion to the Short Story in English Erin Fallon, R.C. Feddersen, James Kurtzleben, Maurice A. Lee, Susan Rochette-Crawley, 2013-10-31 Although the short story has existed in various forms for centuries it has particularly flourished during the last hundred years Reader's Companion to the Short Story in English includes alphabetically arranged entries for 50 English language short story writers from around the world Most of these writers have been active since 1960 and they reflect a wide range of experiences and perspectives in their works Each entry is written by an expert contributor and includes biography a review of existing criticism a lengthier analysis of specific works and a selected bibliography of primary and secondary sources The volume begins with a detailed introduction to the short story genre and concludes with an annotated bibliography of major works on short story theory

The Modern Movement Chris Baldick, 2004 A major new survey of literature in England during the first half of the twentieth century Chris Baldick places modernist with non modernist writings high art with low entertainment The Modern Movement ranges broadly covering psychological novels war poems detective stories satires children's books and other literary forms evolving in response to the new anxieties and exhilarations of twentieth century life

Orwell to the Present John Brannigan, 2002-11-25 This essential introductory guide provides a comprehensive critical survey of the diverse and rich body of literary writing produced in England in the postwar period John Brannigan explores the relationship between literature and history and analyses how poets playwrights and novelists have revisited notions of Englishness represented Englands of the past and sought to make new maps of English culture and society Orwell to the Present Literature in England 1945 2000 combines original readings of familiar texts with wide ranging explorations of the principal themes and historical and cultural contexts of literature since the end of the Second World War Writers considered in detail include Martin Amis

Simon Armitage Pat Barker John Betjeman Edward Bond Angela Carter Margaret Drabble Sarah Kane Mark Ravenhill Jean Rhys Salman Rushdie Sam Selvon Graham Swift and Evelyn Waugh Domestic Modernism, the Interwar Novel, and E.H. Young Chiara Briganti, Kathy Mezei, 2016-12-05 Domestic Modernism the Interwar Novel and E H Young provides a valuable analytical model for reading a large body of modernist works by women who have suffered not only from a lack of critical attention but from the assumption that experimental modernist techniques are the only expression of the modern In the process of documenting the publication and reception history of E H Young s novels the authors suggest a paradigm for analyzing the situation of women writers during the interwar years Their discussion of Young in the context of both canonical and noncanonical writers challenges the generic label and literary status of the domestic novel as well as facile assumptions about popular and middlebrow fiction canon formation aesthetic value and modernity The authors also make a significant contribution to discussions of the everyday and to the burgeoning field of homeculture as they show that the fictional embodiment and inscription of home by writers such as Young Virginia Woolf Elizabeth Bowen Ivy Compton Burnett Lettice Cooper E M Delafield Stella Gibbons Storm Jameson and E Arnot Robertson epitomize the long standing symbiosis between architecture and literature or more specifically between the house and the novel The Cambridge Companion to the Twentieth-Century English Novel Robert L. Caserio, 2009-04-30 A survey of the development of the novel since 1900 with detailed information about individual novels themes and subgenres The Reader's Companion to World Literature Lillian Herlands Hornstein, Calvin S. The Oxford History of the Novel in English Cyrus R. K. Patell,Deborah Lindsay Williams,2024-03-05 The Oxford History of the Novel in English is a twelve volume series presenting a comprehensive global and up to date history of English language prose fiction written by a large international team of scholars The series is concerned with novels as a whole not just the literary novel and each volume includes chapters on the processes of production distribution and reception and on popular fiction and the fictional sub genres as well as outlining the work of major novelists movements and tendencies This book offers an account of US fiction during a period demarcated by two traumatic moments the eve of the entry of the United States into the Second World War and the onset of the Covid 19 pandemic The aftermath of the Second World War was arguably the high point of US nationalism but in the years that followed US writers would increasingly explore the possibility that US democracy was a failure both at home and abroad For so many of the writers whose work this volume explores the idea of nation became suspect as did the idea of national literature as the foundation for US writing Looking at post 1940s writing the literary historian might well chart a movement within literary cultures away from nationalism and toward what we would call cosmopolitanism a perspective that fosters conversations between the occupants of different cultural spaces and that regards difference as an opportunity to be embraced rather than a problem to be solved During this period the novel has had significant competition for the US public s attention from other forms of narrative and media film television comic books videogames and the internet and the various forms of social media that it spawned If however the novel becomes a residual form during this period it is by no means archaic The novel has been reinvigorated over the past eighty years by its encounters with both emergent forms such as film television comic books and digital media and the emergent voices typically associated with multiculturalism in the United States
