Teaching Lives:

Contemporary Pedagogies of Life Narratives Laurie McNeill, Kate Douglas, 2018-12-07 The contemporary boom in the publication and consumption of auto biographical representation has made life narratives a popular and compelling subject for twenty first century classrooms The proliferation of forms media terminologies and disciplinary approaches in a range of educational contexts invites discussion of how and why we teach these materials Drawing on their experiences in disciplines including creative writing language studies education literary studies linguistics and psychology contributors to this volume explore some of the central issues that inspire enable and complicate the teaching of life writing subjects and texts examining the ideologies issues methods and practices that underpin contemporary pedagogies of auto biography The collection acknowledges the potential perils that life writing texts and subjects represent for instructors with a series of short essays by leading auto biography scholars who reflect on their failed experiences teaching life narratives and share strategies for negotiating the particular challenges these texts can present Exploring issues including teaching across genres analyzing writing about trauma decolonizing pedagogies and challenging assumptions our own our students and our colleagues Teaching Lives illuminates what makes the teaching of life narratives different from teaching other kinds of subjects or texts and why auto biography has such a critical role to play in contemporary education This book was originally published as a special issue of a b Auto Biography Studies The New Slave Narrative Laura T. Murphy, 2019-09-17 A century and a half after the abolition of slavery in the United States survivors of contemporary forms of enslavement from around the world have revived a powerful tool of the abolitionist movement first person narratives of slavery and freedom Just as Frederick Douglass Harriet Jacobs and others used autobiographical testimonies in the fight to eradicate slavery today s new slave narrators play a crucial role in shaping an antislavery agenda Their writings unveil the systemic underpinnings of global slavery while critiquing the precarity of their hard fought freedom At the same time the demands of antislavery organizations religious groups and book publishers circumscribe the voices of the enslaved coopting their narratives in support of alternative agendas In this pathbreaking interdisciplinary study Laura T Murphy argues that the slave narrative has reemerged as a twenty first century genre that has gained new currency in the context of the memoir boom post 9 11 anti Islamic sentiment and conservative family values politics She analyzes a diverse range of dozens of book length accounts of modern slavery from Africa Asia the United States the United Kingdom and Europe examining the narrative strategies that survivors of slavery employ to make their experiences legible and to promote a reinvigorated antislavery agenda By putting these stories into conversation with one another The New Slave Narrative reveals an emergent survivor centered counterdiscourse of collaboration and systemic change that offers an urgent critique of the systems that maintain contemporary slavery as well as of the human rights industry and the antislavery movement Ideology in Postcolonial Texts and Contexts , 2020-11-23 Ideology in Postcolonial Texts and Contexts reflects that critiques of ideological formations occur within intersecting social political and cultural configurations where each position is in itself ideological and subject to asymmetrical power relations Postcolonialism has become an object of critique as ideology but postcolonial studies highly diversified engagement with ideology remains a strong focus that exceeds Ideologiekritik Fourteen contributors from North America Africa and Europe focus I on the complex relation between postcolonialism postcolonial theory and conceptualizations of ideology II on ideological formations that manifest themselves in very specific postcolonial contexts highlighting the potential continuities between colonial and postcolonial ideology and III on further expanding and complicating the nexus of postcolonial ideology from veiling as both ideological practice and individual resistance to home as ideological construct from palimpsestic readings of colonial photography to aesthetics as ideology Handbook of Autobiography / Autofiction Martina Wagner-Egelhaaf, 2019-01-29 Autobiographical writings have been a major cultural genre from antiquity to the present time General questions of the literary as e g the relation between literature and reality truth and fiction the dependency of author narrator and figure or issues of individual and cultural styles etc can be studied preeminently in the autobiographical genre Yet the tradition of life writing has in the course of literary history developed manifold types and forms Especially in the globalized age where the media and other technological cultural factors contribute to a rapid transformation of lifestyles autobiographical writing has maintained even enhanced its popularity and importance By conceiving autobiography in a wide sense that includes memoirs diaries self portraits and autofiction as well as media transformations of the genre this three volume handbook offers a comprehensive survey of theoretical approaches systematic aspects and historical developments in an international and interdisciplinary perspective While autobiography is usually considered to be a European tradition special emphasis is placed on the modes of self representation in non Western cultures and on inter and transcultural perspectives of the genre The individual contributions are closely interconnected by a system of cross references The handbook addresses scholars of cultural and literary studies students as well as non academic readers

Transforming Empire: The Ottomans from the Mediterranean to the Indian Ocean, 2024-09-23 This book places the Ottoman Empire within the global context and provides insight into the multifaceted transimperial and transnational connections that characterized it in different periods It focuses on the connections interactions exchanges networks and flows in and around the Ottoman Empire Contributions in the book reflect the evolving and dynamic nature of the Ottoman Empire from different angles Contributors are Ali Atabey Serpil Atamaz Lee Beaudoen Emine Evered Kyle Evered Richard Eaton Ziad Fahmy G ls m G rb z K ksar Onur nal Christine Isom Verhaaren Myrsini Manney Kalogera Claudia R mer Alexander Schweig G l en Baki Tezcan Fariba Zarinebaf

Traces of Aging Marta Cerezo Moreno, Nieves Pascual Soler, 2016-05-15 This collection consists of eight essays that examine the way narratives determine our understanding of old age and condition how the experience is lived Contributors to this volume have based their analysis on the concept of narrative identity developed by Paul Ricoeur built upon the idea that fiction makes life and on his definition of trace as the mark of time By investigating the traces of aging imprinted in a series of literary and filmic works they dismantle the narrative of old age as decline and foreclosure to assemble one of transformation and growth

Digital Storytelling in Health and Social Policy Nicole Matthews, Naomi Sunderland, 2017-04-21 As digital life stories continue to assume more and more significance across a range of institutions so too does their potential to bring into focus once marginalised and neglected voices Breaking new ground by reframing multimedia life stories as a resource for education public health and policy this book challenges policymakers professionals and researchers to reimagine how they find out about and respond to people s daily lives and experiences of health disability and well being The book develops theoretical methodological and practical resources for listening to digital stories through a series of carefully selected international case studies from dementia care education to campaigns in the UN to ban cluster munitions The case studies explore and illuminate different ways that digital stories have and have not been listened to in the past The authors expose the great potential as well as the complexity of using powerful personal stories in practice Together the case studies highlight that processes of listening to learning from and making use of digital stories involve unavoidable processes of reinterpretation recontextualisation and translation which have significant ethical and political implications for storytellers listeners and society In mapping and theorising the movement of stories into new contexts of policy and practice the book offers a critical lens on the widely celebrated democratising potential of digital storytelling and its capacity to amplify marginalised voices Digital Storytelling in Health and Social Policy develops an authoritative and original re conceptualisation of digital life stories and their use for social justice ends and will be important reading for researchers and practitioners from a range of backgrounds including social policy digital media communication education disability and public health Getting Personal Laura

Gray-Rosendale,2018-01-29 Silver Medalist 2019 Independent Publisher Book Awards in the Education Commentary Theory Category At a time when Twitter Facebook blogs Instagram and other social media dominate our interactions with one another and with our world the teaching of writing also necessarily involves the employment of multimodal approaches visual literacies and online learning Given this new digital landscape how do we most effectively teach and create various forms of personal writing within our rhetoric and composition classes our creative writing classes and our community groups

Contributors to Getting Personal offer their thoughts about some of the positives and negatives of teaching and using personal writing within digital contexts They also reveal intriguing teaching activities that they have designed to engage their students and other writers In addition they share some of the innovative responses they have received to these assignments Getting Personal is about finding ways to teach and use personal writing in the digital age that can truly empower writing teachers writing students as well as other community members Anatomy of Authoritarianism in the Arab Republics Joseph Sassoon,2016-02-24 Examines the system of authoritarianism in eight Arab republics including life under these regimes and the mechanisms underpinning their resilience

Controlling Time and Shaping the Self,2011-06-22 This book explores new questions and approaches to the rise of autobiographical writing since the early modern period What motivated more and more men and women to write records of their private life How could private writing grow into a bestselling genre How was this rapidly expanding genre influenced by new ideas about history that emerged around 1800 How do we explain the paradox of the apparent privacy of publicity in many autobiographies Such questions are addressed with reference to well known autobiographies and an abundance of newfound works by persons hitherto unknown not only from Europe but also the Near East and Japan This volume features new views of the complex field of historical autobiography studies and is the first to put the genre in a global perspective Elusive Lives Siobhan

Lambert-Hurley,2018-07-31 Muslim South Asia is widely characterized as a culture that idealizes female anonymity women s bodies are veiled and their voices silenced Challenging these perceptions Siobhan Lambert Hurley highlights an elusive strand of autobiographical writing dating back several centuries that offers a new lens through which to study notions of selfhood In Elusive Lives she locates the voices of Muslim women who rejected taboos against women speaking out by telling their life stories in written autobiography To chart patterns across time and space materials dated from the sixteenth century to the present are drawn from across South Asia including present day India Pakistan and Bangladesh Lambert Hurley uses many rare autobiographical texts in a wide array of languages including Urdu English Hindi Bengali Gujarati Marathi Punjabi and Malayalam to elaborate a theoretical model for gender autobiography and the self beyond the usual Euro American frame In doing so she works toward a new globalized history of the field Ultimately Elusive Lives points to the sheer diversity of Muslim women's lives and life stories offering a unique window into a history of the everyday against a backdrop of imperialism reformism nationalism and feminism

The Cambridge Companion to Canadian Literature Eva-Marie Kröller, 2017-05-27 This fully revised second edition of The Cambridge Companion to Canadian Literature offers a comprehensive introduction to major writers genres and topics For this edition several chapters have been completely rewritten to reflect major developments in Canadian literature since 2004 Surveys of fiction drama and poetry are complemented by chapters on Aboriginal writing autobiography literary criticism writing by women and the emergence of urban writing Areas of research that have expanded since the first edition include environmental concerns and questions of sexuality which are freshly explored across several different chapters A substantial chapter on francophone writing is included Authors such as Margaret Atwood noted for her experiments in multiple literary genres are given full consideration as is the work of authors who have achieved major recognition such as Alice Munro recipient of the Nobel Prize for literature

Disability and/in Prose Brenda Jo Brueggemann, Marian E. Lupo, 2013-09-13 Through a series of critical essays this book concerns the relationships and possibilities in and between prose and disability It covers a diverse range from the role of the disability memoir the effect of disablement on soldiers phantom limb syndrome and the suspicion of faking it that sometimes surrounds

Relational Responses to Trauma in Twenty-First-Century French and Spanish Women's Writing Hannie Lawlor, 2024-09-05 Relational Responses to Trauma in Twenty First Century French and Spanish Women's Writing offers new insight into what it means to write relational lives It broadens the parameters of existing discussions in terms of geography as well as genre drawing together two literatures whose prominence in life writing theory to date could hardly be more different while French women's writing has long been at the centre of international discussions of autobiography the relative invisibility of Spanish women's writing remains striking The dialogue that thus underpins this study between diverse twenty first century case studies and broader approaches to life writing shines a light on what is gained from inviting different voices into the discussion These narrative projects challenge longstanding critical assumptions in autobiography studies and trauma theory about how writers can and should represent the multiple perspectives that are at the heart of intergenerational stories In exploring the narrative solutions that these texts propose in response to the ethical questions they navigate this book shows that writing relational lives rests on far more than the mere recounting of a shared history Relating in these texts it proposes is an act embedded in the telling of the story It is a mode of testifying together to traumatic experience one that reveals a powerful preoccupation in contemporary women's life writing practice with making more audible the many voices and versions that go unheard The Travelling Concepts of Narrative Mari Hatavara, Lars-Christer Hydén, Matti Hyvärinen, 2013-06-15 Narrative is a pioneer concept in our trans disciplinary age For decades it has been one of the most successful catchwords in literature history cultural studies philosophy and health studies While the expansion of narrative studies has led to significant advances across a number of fields the travels for the concept itself have been a somewhat more complex Has the concept of narrative passed intact from literature to sociology from structuralism to therapeutic practice or to the study of everyday storytelling In this volume philosophers psychologists literary theorists sociolinguists and sociologists use methodologically challenging test cases to scrutinize the types transformations and trajectories of the concept and theory of narrative The book powerfully argues that narrative concepts are profoundly relevant in the understanding of life experience and literary texts Nonetheless it emphasizes the vast contextual differences and contradictions in the use of the concept Confessional Video Art and Subjectivity Jaye Early, 2025-01-23 This is the first book of its kind to examine the development of the confessional subject in video art and demonstrate how it can provide a vital platform for navigating the politics of self subjectivity and resistance in society In doing so it reframes video art the most ubiquitous and yet most understudied art form of recent decades as an urgent socio political tool that is increasingly popular among contemporary artists as a means of exploring a broad range of social issues from politics and identity to the body and technologies of self representation Analysing a diverse selection of case studies from the 1960s up to the present day covering the work of Yoko Ono Gillian Wearing Ryan Trecartin Tracey Emin Anatasia Klose and Heath Franco among others the book brings together theory and practice to look afresh at contemporary video art through a Foucauldian lens It also brings the analysis of video art up to date by showing how social media and digital self representation has informed and further politicized time based art practices Confessional Video Art and Subjectivity shows how forms of confessional discourse not only play an important function in the construction of subjectivity but also open spaces for personal resistance and agency within contemporary video art As a result it offers researchers of contemporary art practice and media and cultural studies an updated framework through which to view this constantly evolving genre and a deeper understanding of wider contemporary video practices
