Dickinson, Judi Repman, 2015-01-26 This book compiles selected articles from Library Media Connection to help school librarians and pre service librarians learn about how to implement best practices for school library management At a time when budget cuts threaten the role of the school librarian dynamic learning experiences can resurrect the usefulness of the library and the role of its staff The seventh edition of this popular book helps librarians develop engaging school library programs for greater student involvement Comprised of important articles from Library Media Connection LMC School Library Management Seventh Edition is a compilation of best practices in the field of school library management An excellent textbook for professors teaching LIS courses the book contains updates to standards and technologies and features the latest initiatives guiding practices including Standards for the 21st Century Learner and Empowering Learners Guidelines for School Library Programs Each of the book's five sections features helpful tips from LMC and lists relevant resources for school library management Selected articles address standards inquiry ethics and information literacy The book also includes a focus on the role of the school librarian in designing authentic assessments What If All the Kids Are White? Louise Derman-Sparks, Patricia G. Ramsey, 2015-04-18 In this updated edition two distinguished early childhood educators tackle the crucial topic of what White children need and gain from anti bias and multicultural education The authors propose seven learning themes to help young White children resist messages of racism and build identity and skills for thriving in a country and world filled with diverse ways of being. This compelling text includes teaching strategies for early childhood settings, activities for families and staff reflection questions, a record of 20th and 21st century White anti racism activists and organizational and website resources. Bringing this bestselling guide completely up to date, the authors address the current state of racism and anti racism in the United States, including the election of the first African American president and the rise of hate groups. Review child development research with a particular emphasis on recent observational studies that show how White children enact racial power codes. Discuss implementation of the core learning themes in racially diverse early childhood education settings, state standards for preschools and pre K classrooms, and NCLB pressures on early childhood teaching. Update all resources and appendices, including reading lists and websites for finding resources and organizations engaged in anti racism work. Louise Derman Sparkis a past faculty member at Pacific Oaks College in Pasadena, California, and the co author of Teaching Learning Anti Racism. Louise presents conference keynotes, conducts workshops, and consults throughout the United States and internationally. Patricia G. Ramsey is Professor of Psychology and Education at Mount Holyoke College in South Hadley, Massachusetts, and author of Teaching and Learning in a Diverse World. Praise for the First Edition: Derman Sparks and Ramsey offer an alternative vision for white identity that breaks the mold. The current status of our anti bias work demands we read this book and use it well. From the Foreword by Carol Brunson Day. A dynamic blend of child development theory, social history, and the best pedagogical practice from two distinguished social justice educators, every teacher of young children should read it. Beverly Daniel Tatum, President, Spelman College. An accessible, practical, and essential tool for every teacher of young white children. I especially appreciated the concrete suggestions and abundance of resources from two of early childhood education's most experienced teachers. Paul Kivel, educator and author of Uprooting Racism and I Can Make My World a Safer Place. By starting with a strong sense of identity that is not race based, children can move forward to cultivate an anti racist culture. This book offers caregivers excellent frameworks and tools to make this happen. TC Record.

Making Comprehension Connections Sharon Hull, 2008-03-03. Here's a fun and easy way to help learners understand and remember comprehension strategies. Making Comprehension Connections: Look, Listen, and Link effectively combines the senses for greater academic success by providing everything the brain needs for comprehension and memory retention: visual, verbal, auditory, and kinesthetic input. This easy-to-follow program provides colorful and simple icons in the form of posters that help learners remember concepts without the help of words. It also provides learners with multiple ways to remember and understand the comprehension skills and strategies using songs and other active learning experiences. Audio of all songs are included in the ZIP file and provided in print form in the Teacher's Guide and on transparencies. The included ZIP file also contains all the reproducibles and a professional development video that shows how to implement the lessons. This resource is correlated to the Common Core State Standards. Primary Source Readers: The 20th Century (Kit), Shakespeare Set
