Olson, Elizabeth Hirsh, 1995-09-28 This collection of six interviews with internationally known scholars explores feminism rhetoric writing and multiculturalism Heidegger, Politics and Climate Change Ruth Irwin, 2008-10-23 The scale of some environmental problems such as climate change and human overpopulation exceed any one nation state and require either co ordinated governance or a shift in the culture of modernity Heidegger Politics and Climate Change examines this crisis alongside Heidegger's ideas about technology and modernity Heidegger suggests that refocusing on the primary questions that make it meaningful to be human the question of Being could create the means for alternative discourses that both challenge and sidestep the attempt for total surveillance and total control He advocates recognising the problematic relationship humanity has with the environment and reinventing new trajectories of understanding ourselves and our planet This book aims to properly integrate environment into philosophy and political theory offering a constructive critique of modernity with some helpful suggestions for establishing a readiness for blue sky scenarios for the future The book lays out the practical implications of Heidegger's ideas and engages with philosophy of technology considering the constraints and the potentials of technology on culture and environment The Agrarian Vision Paul Thompson, 2010-07-30 As industry and technology proliferate in modern society sustainability has jumped to the forefront of contemporary political and environmental discussions The balance between progress and the earth's ability to provide for its inhabitants grows increasingly precarious as we attempt to achieve sustainable development In The Agrarian Vision Sustainability and Environmental Ethics Paul B Thompson articulates a new agrarian philosophy emphasizing the vital role of agrarianism in modern agricultural practices Thompson a highly regarded voice in environmental philosophy unites concepts of agrarian philosophy political theory and environmental ethics to illustrate the importance of creating and maintaining environmentally conscious communities Thompson describes the evolution of agrarian values in America following the path blazed by Thomas Jefferson John Steinbeck and Wendell Berry Providing a pragmatic approach to ecological responsibility and commitment The Agrarian Vision is a significant compelling argument for the practice of a reconfigured and expanded agrarianism in our efforts to support modern industrialized culture while also preserving the natural world The British Columbia Gazette British Columbia, 1929 Black Fascisms Mark Christian Thompson, 2007 In this provocative new book Mark Christian Thompson addresses the startling fact that many African American intellectuals in the 1930s sympathized with fascism seeing in its ideology a means of envisioning new modes of African American political resistance Thompson surveys the work and thought of several authors and asserts that their sometimes positive reaction to generic European fascism and its transformation into black fascism is crucial to any understanding of Depression era African American literary culture The book considers the high regard that Back to Africa advocate Marcus Garvey expressed for fascist dictators and explores the common ground he shared with George Schuyler and Claude McKay writers with whom Garvey is generally thought to be at odds Thompson reveals how fascism informed a rejection of Marxism by McKay as well as by Arna Bontemps whose Drums at Dusk depicts communism as antithetical to any black revolution A similarly authoritarian stance is examined in the work of Zora Neale Hurston where the striving for a fascist sovereignty presents itself as highly critical of Nazism while nonetheless sharing many of its tenets The book concludes with an investigation of Richard Wright's The Outsider and its murderous protagonist Cross Damon who articulates fascist drives already present if latent in Native Son's Bigger Thomas Unencumbered by the historical or biblical references of the earlier work Damon personifies the essence of black fascism Taking on a subject generally ignored or denied in African American cultural and literary studies Black Fascisms seeks not only to question the prominence of the Left in the political thought of a generation of writers but to change how we view African American literature in general Encompassing political theory cultural studies critical theory and historicism the book will challenge readers in numerous fields providing a new model for thinking about the political and transnational in African American culture and shedding new light on our understanding of fascism between the wars

Drawing Blood Keith Wailoo, 2002-10-15 How physicians in this century wielded medical technology to define disease carve out medical specialties and shape political agendas Winner of the American Public Health Association Arthur Visel tear Prize In Drawing Blood medical historian Keith Wailoo uses the story of blood diseases to explain how physicians in this century wielded medical technology to define disease carve out medical specialties and shape political agendas As Wailoo's account makes clear the seemingly straightforward process of identifying disease is invariably influenced by personal professional and social factors and as a result produces not only clarity and precision but also bias and outright error Drawing Blood reveals the ways in which physicians and patients as well as the diseases themselves are simultaneously shaping and being shaped by technology medical professionalization and society at large This thought provoking cultural history of disease medicine and technology offers an important perspective for current discussions of HIV and AIDS genetic blood testing prostate specific antigen and other important issues in an age of technological medicine Makes clear that the high stakes involved in medical technology are not just financial but moral and far reaching They have been harnessed to describe clinical phenomena and to reflect social and cultural realities that influence not only medical treatment but self identity power and authority Susan E Lederer H Net Humanities Social Sciences On Line Wailoo's masterful study of hematology and its disease discourse is a model of interdisciplinarity combining cultural analysis social history and the history of medical ideas and technology to produce a complex narrative of disease definition diagnosis and treatment He reminds us that medical technology is a neutral artifact of history It can be and has been used to clarify and to cloud the understanding of disease and it has the potential both to constrain and to emancipate its subjects Regina Morantz Sanchez Journal of Interdisciplinary History Sixteen Teachers Teaching Patrick Sullivan, 2020-12-01 Sixteen Teachers Teaching is a warmly personal full access tour into the classrooms and teaching practices of sixteen distinguished two year college English professors Approximately half of all basic writing and first year composition classes are now taught at two year colleges so the perspectives of English faculty who teach at these institutions are particularly valuable for our profession This book shows us how a group of acclaimed teachers put together their classes design reading and writing assignments and theorize their work as writing instructors All of these teachers have spent their careers teaching multiple sections of writing classes each semester or term so this book presents readers with an impressive and perhaps unprecedented abundance of pedagogical expertise teaching knowledge and classroom experience Sixteen Teachers Teaching is a book filled with joyfulness wisdom and pragmatic advice It has been designed to be a source of inspiration for high school and college English teachers as they go about their daily work in the classroom Contributors Peter Adams Jeff Andelora Helane Adams Androne Taiyon J Coleman Renee DeLong Kathleen Sheerin DeVore Jamey Gallagher Shannon Gibney Joanne Baird Giordano Brett Griffiths Holly Hassel Darin Jensen Jeff Klausman Michael C Kuhne Hope Parisi and Howard Tinberg
