Subcommittee on Education, Arts and Humanities,1991 Handbook of Research on Children's and Young Adult Literature Shelby Wolf,Karen Coats,Patricia Enciso,Christine Jenkins,2011-04-27 This multidisciplinary handbook pulls together in one volume the research on children s and young adult literature which is currently scattered across three intersecting disciplines education English and library and information science Resources in Education ,1998-07 Information Services for People with Developmental Disabilities Marilyn M. Irwin,Linda L. Walling,1995-04-30 Developmental disabilities are the most numerous of disabilities and they are exceptionally complex This professional reference overviews developmental disabilities discusses the information needs of people with developmental disabilities and provides practical guidance to librarians and information professionals who serve them Particular attention is given to the ramifications of the Americans with Disabilities Act for librarians The first part of the book defines and describes developmental disabilities from perspectives relevant to librarians and information professionals The second part examines key life issues that have a major impact on people with developmental disabilities This section emphasizes the current trend toward the inclusion of people with developmental disabilities in mainstream society References to related information sources are included throughout The third part looks at disabilities from the perspective of the library or other information agency An appendix lists organizations agencies businesses and libraries that provide additional materials Building an ESL Collection for Young Adults Laura McCaffery,1998-10-28 This annotated bibliography of more than 500 recommended books meets the needs of teachers and librarians for reading materials for young adults for whom English is a second language Laura McCaffery who has many years of experience with collection development of ESL materials for young adults has selected the best books on a variety of topics to meet curriculum and personal interest needs of young adults Most of the books selected were published between 1992 and 1998 The bibliography is organized by topic adventure mystery and suspense biographies career workplace life skills and parenting folktales myths poetry and classics ethnic diversity history and geography nature and science and sports Indexes by author subject title and ethnic group make searching easy

Mainstreamed ESL students can use these books to better understand and make use of regular textbooks. Special ESL classes can use the recommended books as part of regular instruction. Most of the books recommended are for the intermediate or advanced beginner reading level in English but some very easy books are also included. Most of the books are suitable for all learners from grades five through adult. Each entry contains a complete bibliographical citation, Fry Reading Level, Interest Level, Library of Congress subjects for cataloging and a 50 to 200 word annotation describing the book and how it can be used by the librarian or teacher who is working with patrons or students. A list of distributors of print and nonprint ESL materials completes the work.

The Reference Librarian and Implications of Mediation Melvin Keith Ewing, Robert Hauptman, 1992. This informative volume is filled with valuable insights on the reference librarian's role as a connecting link between information seekers and the resources that provide answers to their questions. The Reference Librarian and Implications of Mediation helps librarians become successful mediators by teaching them the best approaches to providing resolutions or guidance to the appropriate resources. Chapters focusing on reference skills, communication abilities, accuracy in responding to specific inquiries, and sensitivity to various groups such as paraprofessionals and nontraditional patrons teach librarians how to become more effective mediators. This provocative book encourages librarians to go beyond merely providing answers or resources to helping clients better understand the physical surroundings, the social or educational context, and the ethical, political, and economic climate in which the process takes place. A broad selection of chapters interpret mediation and explore diverse topics including traditional mediation, the impact of information technologies, the need for a human context, and an increasingly diverse group of library patrons requiring mediation services. The Reference Librarian and Implications of Mediation shows librarians how to develop a full understanding of an inquiry, ferret out what a client really needs, and ultimately pursue an appropriate response. Specific chapters cover a wealth of mediation topics including a call for a return to client-oriented mediation, electronic reference services, information paraprofessionals, the academic librarian's role in the educational process, relationship between composition teachers and reference librarians, predicting mediation accuracy from user impressions, the influence of a shrinking information economy, academic librarians and mediation in controversial scholarly communication.

Even Anchors Need Lifelines Gail Spangenberg, 1996. Examines the current and future role of public libraries in adult literacy service provision by analyzing survey data collected from state library agencies, designated literacy contacts in those agencies, heads of state literacy resource centers, and local library literacy programs. Discusses the use and limits of technology, program planning, finance, and funding, and programs at the state and local levels. The final section presents the main findings of the study along with conclusions and recommendations. Includes tables detailing the study questions and responses and a listing of the respondents.
