Reading Between The Lines Claude Simon And The Visual Arts:

Reading Between the Lines Jean H. Duffy, 1998-01-01 This is the first extended analysis of Simon's novels examining the relationship between the work of the French Nobel prize winning novelist Claude Simon and that of a number of visual artists whose work he has used as stimuli in the production of his novels

Claude Simon Alina Cherry, 2016-08-16 Claude Simon Fashioning the Past by Writing the Present considers the aesthetic cultural and philosophical facets of a temporal paradox in the works of French novelist Claude Simon 1913-2005 and its broader implications for the study of narrative and for cultural and post modern theory This paradox emerges from the problematic representation of the past through an aesthetic rooted in an exclusive valorization of the present In his 1985 Nobel speech as well as on other numerous occasions Simon expressed a fascination with simultaneity through the provocative claim that he never wrote about the past but attempted to capture only what was happening during the writing process that is in the present of writing as he put it Simon's seemingly unambiguous claim raises significant issues and contradictions that become extensively apparent when the statement is considered in the light of his fictional works since these must be construed for the most part as explorations of the past In this study Alina Cherry proposes to look at the tensions that arise from this paradox and examine the present of writing holistically that is both as a stylistic device and within the thematic context of Simon's works in order to assess its capacity for becoming an instrument of ontological and epistemological inquiry that can also intervene powerfully in the decisive philosophical and socio-political debates that have animated the cultural landscape of post World War II France Simon's vivid portrayals of suffering and devastation open new ways of understanding the impact of some of the most traumatic historical events of the twentieth century the two World Wars and the Spanish Civil War This impact is necessarily connected with a need to tell these events and to tell them in highly innovative ways namely by creating a distinctive style that revolutionizes the outworn narrative traditions of a world whose very foundations have been shattered by the chaos of war and effectively undermines various institutions and dominant socio-cultural structures revealing implicitly and explicitly a strong ethical vein

Claude Simon Alastair Duncan, 2003-04-19 This book introduces novels by the Nobel Prize for Literature author Claude Simon giving emphasis to peaks in his literary achievement

Robert Rauschenberg and Surrealism Gavin Parkinson, 2023-03-23 The art of Robert Rauschenberg 1925-2008 is usually viewed as quite distinct from Surrealism a movement which the artist himself displayed some hostility towards However Rauschenberg had a very positive reception among Surrealists particularly across the period 1959-69 In the face of Rauschenberg's avowals of his own literalism and insistence on his art as facts this book gathers generous evidence of the poetic metaphorical allusive associative and connotative dimensions of the artist's oeuvre as identified by Surrealists and thus extrapolates new readings from Rauschenberg's key works on that basis By viewing Rauschenberg's art against the expansion of the cultural influence of the United States in Europe in the period after the Second World War and the increasingly politicized activities of the

Surrealists in the era of the Algerian War of Independence 1954 62 Robert Rauschenberg and Surrealism shows how poetic inference of the artist's work was turned towards political interpretation By analysing Rauschenberg's art in the context of Surrealism and drawing from it new interpretations and perspectives this volume simultaneously situates the Surrealist movement in 1960s American art criticism and history

The Pathos of the Real Robert Buch, 2010-12-15 This book is about the ambition in a set of paradigmatic writers of the twentieth century to simultaneously enlist and break the spell of the real their fascination with the spectacle of violence and suffering and the difficulties involved in capturing this kind of excess by aesthetic means The works at the center of this study by Franz Kafka Georges Bataille Claude Simon Peter Weiss and Heiner Müller zero in on scenes of agony destruction and death with an astonishing degree of precision and detail The strange and troubling nature of the appeal engendered by these sights is the subject of The Pathos of the Real Robert Buch shows that the spectacles of suffering conjured up in these texts are deeply ambivalent available neither to cathartic relief nor to the sentiment of compassion What prevails instead is a peculiar coincidence of opposites exaltation and resignation disfiguration and transfiguration agitation and paralysis Featuring the experiences of violent excess in strongly visual and often in expressly pictorial terms the works expose the nexus between violence and the image in twentieth century aesthetics Buch explores this tension between visual and verbal representation by drawing on the rhetorical notion of pathos as both insurmountable suffering and codified affect and the psychoanalytic notion of the real that is the disruption of the symbolic order In dialogue with a diverse group of thinkers from Erich Auerbach and Aby Warburg to Alain Badiou and Jacques Lacan The Pathos of the Real advances an innovative new framework for rethinking the aesthetics of violence in the twentieth century

Thresholds of Meaning Jean Duffy, 2011-06-16 Thresholds of Meaning examines contemporary French narrative and explores two related issues the centrality within recent French fiction and autofiction of the themes of passage ritual and liminality and the thematic continuity which links this work with its literary ancestors of the 1960s and 1970s Through the close analysis of novels and texts by Pierre Bergounioux François Bon Marie Darrieussecq Hélène Lenoir Laurent Mauvignier and Jean Rouaud Duffy demonstrates the ways in which contemporary narrative while capitalising on the formal lessons of the nouveau roman and drawing upon a shared repertoire of motifs and themes engages with the complex processes by which meaning is produced in the referential world and in particular with the rituals and codes that social man brings into play in order to negotiate the various stages of the human life cycle By the application of concepts and models derived from ritual theory and from visual analysis Thresholds of Meaning situates itself at the intersection of the developing field of literature and anthropology studies and research into word and image

Blatt, 2012-05-01 The explosive proliferation of pictures in advertising and pop culture mass media and cyberspace following World War II along with the profusion of critical thinking that tries to make sense of it has had wide ranging implications for cultural production as such Pictures into Words explores how this proliferation of graphic images has profoundly affected narrative writing in France especially as Ari J Blatt argues the structure content and symbolic logic of contemporary French fiction By examining a specific corpus of narratives by authors Claude Simon Georges Perec Pierre Michon and Tanguy Viel books that originate amid conjure up and indeed are essentially about pictures Blatt addresses the most salient questions pertaining to the relationship between literature and visual culture today Each of the novels considered here engages the work of several postwar artists from Robert Rauschenberg Andy Warhol Vincent van Gogh and Orson Welles to Jeff Koons Joseph L Mankiewicz Pierre Huyghe and Marcel Duchamp As Blatt s cross disciplinary readings show despite their gleeful raiding of the visual archive to generate and enrich their stories many contemporary narratives that tell tales about pictures simultaneously express a cautious skepticism toward vision and visual representation Pictures into Words examines how such novels while seemingly complicit with the visual simultaneously write back against the images they exploit reclaiming some of literature s lost ground in our visually inundated world Signs and Designs Jean H. Duffy, 2003-01-01 In the course of a writing career spanning half a century Michel Butor has produced a remarkable range and volume of publications including fiction travel works poetry critical essays and various types of mixed genre works which resist ready categorization Much of this very diverse oeuvre is marked by his life long passion for the visual arts This study is the first full length analysis of the role played by the references to the visual plastic and architectural arts in Butor s work It addresses a wide range of issues including the role of the artwork building or monument as narrative generator the reflexive functions of the visual and architectural references the interaction between visual architectural references and intertextual citation the role of collaboration in Butor's oeuvre the relationship between cultural baggage and the workings of the unconscious the tension between Butor's fascination for non-European artistic traditions and his continuing dialogue with the Western tradition

Egalitarian Strangeness Edward J. Hughes, 2021-04-15 Shortlisted for the 2022 R Gapper book prize The formulation egalitarian strangeness is a direct borrowing from Courtes voyages au pays du peuple Short Voyages to the Land of the People 1990 a collection of essays by the contemporary French thinker Jacques Rancière Perhaps best known for his theory of radical equality as set out in Le Maître ignorant The Ignorant Schoolmaster 1987 Rancière reflects on ways in which a hierarchical social order based on inequality can come to be unsettled In the democracy of literature for example he argues that words and sentences serve to capture any life and to make it available to any reader The present book explores embedded forms of social and cultural apportionment in a range of modern and contemporary French texts including prose fiction socially engaged commentary and autobiography while also identifying scenes of class disturbance and egalitarian encounter Part One considers the refrain of class audible in works by Claude Simon Charles Péguy Marie Ndiaye Thierry Beinstingel and Gabriel Gauny and examines how these authors' practices of language connect with that refrain In Part Two Hughes analyses forms of domination and dressage with reference to Simone Weil's mid-1930s factory journal Paul Nizan's novel of class alienation Antoine Bloy from the same decade and Pierre Michon's Vies minuscules Small Lives 1984 with its focus on obscure rural lives The reflection on how these narratives draw into contiguity antagonistic identities is extended in Part Three where individual chapters on Proust and the contemporary authors François Bon and Didier Eribon demonstrate ways in which enduring forms of cultural distribution are both consolidated and contested

The Material, the Real, and the Fractured Self Susan Harrow, 2004-01-01 In The Material the Real and the Fractured Self Susan Harrow explores the fascinating interrelation of subjectivity materiality and representation in the poetry and related texts of four modern French writers Arthur Rimbaud Guillaume Apollinaire Francis Ponge and Jacques Rancière She demonstrates the richness and the relevance of modern French poetry for today's readers putting contemporary thought to work on the fractured self emerging in the post-Baudelairean lyric Harrow addresses the widely perceived marginalization of poetry in the writing theory debate demonstrating that the emergence of a self at once shaped by and straining against material historical subjective and cultural impediments reveals fertile relations between theory and poetry Where purer forms of postmodernist thinking have stressed the dissolution and dispersal of the human subject new approaches informed by cultural studies autobiography theory and gender studies work to recover fictions of experience and retrieve submerged narratives of the self Probing the activity of textual self recovery among the debris of history and fantasy visuality and desire and culture and corporeality The Material the Real and the Fractured Self imparts something of the startling beauty and the raw urgency of poetry writing across the broad modern period Sex, Time and Place Simon Avery, Katherine M.
