Character Marjorie Garber,2020-07-14 In her wide ranging cultural history of the term character Garber has unearthed fascinating material and is a convivial stimulating critic Michael Saler The Times Literary Supplement Since at least Aristotle's time philosophers theologians artists and scientists have pondered the enigma of human character Whether defined as a moral idea a literary persona or a scientifically observable type character has become omnipresent in discussions of politics ethics gender morality and the psyche In this magisterial book Marjorie Garber examines the evolution and influence of this pervasive concept Is there a connection between character in the moral sense and the character of a novel or a play Can character be formed or taught in schools in scouting in the home From Plutarch to John Stuart Mill from Shakespeare to Darwin from Theophrastus to Freud from nineteenth century phrenology to twenty first century brain scans the search for the sources and components of human character still preoccupies us With her distinctive verve humor and erudition Marjorie Garber explores the stakes of these confluences confusions and heritages from ancient Greece to the present day Fourth

Way Teachings Rebecca Nottingham,2010-05-11 Detailed practical application of the Fourth Way system of psychological self awareness and the process of living from higher levels of consciousness The Teaching is a specific methodology for the perennial wisdom from Christianity and other religions on the purification of the heart Based in part on actual teaching transcripts this book offers a rare opportunity for readers to apply The Essence of Christianity Ludwig

Feuerbach,2021-02-18 The Essence of Christianity is a book by Ludwig Feuerbach in which he explains his philosophy and critique of religion Feuerbach's theme was a derivation of Hegel's speculative theology in which the Creation remains a part of the Creator while the Creator remains greater than the Creation In Part One Feuerbach developed what he calls the true or anthropological essence of religion treating of God in his various aspects Thus God is nothing else than man he is so to speak the outward projection of man's inward nature In Part Two he discusses the false or theological essence of religion i.e. the view which regards God as having a separate existence over against man Psychology of Individual Differences

Political Thought in England from Herbert Spencer to the Present Day Sir Ernest Barker,1915

The Therapeutic Alliance William W. Meissner,1996-01-01 One point on which the various helping professions agree is that the crucial factor in the success of therapy is the therapeutic alliance the collaborative relationship a therapist forms with a patient This work examines the prevailing ideas about the therapeutic alliance Oakeshott on History Luke O'Sullivan,2003 This book challenges the common view that Michael Oakeshott was mainly important as a political philosopher by offering the first comprehensive study of his ideas on history It argues that Oakeshott's writings on the philosophy of history mark him out as the most successful of the philosophers who attempted to establish historical study as an autonomous form of thought during the twentieth century It also contends that his work on the history of political thought is best seen in the context of debates over the origins of the liberal state For the first time extensive use has been made of unpublished material in the collection of Oakeshott's papers at the LSE resulting in an intellectual biography that should be of interest both to first time students and those already familiar with his published works Living Truth Jean Klein,2007-02-23 In the late 1980s Jean Klein was invited to give seminars in the Santa Cruz Mountains of California In this isolated peaceful mountain setting a small group of students gathered with their life questions The conversations of the 1988 seminar were transcribed and printed as a pamphlet entitled Mount Madonna Dialogues but it was felt that the contents of all of the seminars were rich and rewarding enough to be gathered into a more substantial publication This book is the result Time and timelessness meet in these dialogues that focus on the very root of human experience that pointless point in which all apparent dualities are reconciled and all that lives has forever lived Here in these still waters says Jean Klein is the essence and the All that which neither knows nor needs the other in order to define itself These dialogues are rich with meaning yet they speak in a language that is as simple direct and inspiring as the pointless point itself Empathy, Embodiment, and the Person James Jardine,2022-02-11 This text explores how self consciousness and self understanding differ phenomenologically from the experience and comprehension of others and the extent to which such relations are constitutively interdependent Jardine argues that Husserl's analyses of selfhood and intersubjectivity are animated by the question of what's at stake in recognising an agent's engagement as the situated response of a person rather than simply as the comportment of an animal or living body Drawing centrally from the freshly excavated Ideas II drafts and manuscripts the author develops Husserl's often fragmentary investigations of attention habit emotion freedom the common world and action and considers their implications for subjectivity and the experience of others Empathy Embodiment and the Person also brings Husserlian phenomenology into dialogue with twenty first century philosophical concerns from accounts of selfhood and agency from analytic philosophy to the treatment of social experience in critical theory The book shows the reader that transcendental phenomenology can be rejuvenated by engaging with a broader philosophical landscape and will appeal to researchers students and instructors in the field The Syllogistic Philosophy Or Prolegomena to Science Francis Ellingwood Abbot,1906 GEORGE ELIOT Ultimate Collection: 60+ Novels, Short Stories, Poems & Essays George
