Researching Social Gerontology Sheila M Peace,1990-09-28 This accessible introduction to key concepts methods and issues in social gerontological research presents a unique view of the research process by focusing on the relationships between conceptual definition and research methodology and between research policy and practice At a theoretical level the text draws on the core gerontological concepts of age dependency social support and quality of life to illustrate their complexity and the difficulties of measurement On a practical level the contributors present a number of methodological approaches which have been particularly useful in social gerontological research Finally they consider three critical issues whether old people require special ethical consideration the prospects for funding and the importance of disseminating research effectively Researching Social Gerontology has been specially commissioned by the British Society for Gerontology to outline current thinking in conceptual and methodological development and the context in which gerontological research is being carried out As such it will prove stimulating and useful for researchers at all levels practitioners policy makers and those with a more general interest in the ageing process

Researching Social Gerontology Sheila M Peace,1990-12-01 This accessible introduction to key concepts methods and issues in social gerontological research presents a unique view of the research process by focusing on the relationships between conceptual definition and research methodology and between research policy and practice At a theoretical level the text draws on the core gerontological concepts of age dependency social support and quality of life to illustrate their complexity and the difficulties of measurement On a practical level the contributors present a number of methodological approaches which have been particularly useful in social gerontological research Finally they consider three critical issues whether old people require special ethical consideration Research Design in Aging and Social Gerontology Joyce Weil,2017-02-24 This text provides a review of methodological approaches and data collection methods commonly used with older adults in real life settings

Mapping the Rural Problem in the Baltic Countryside Ilkka Alanen,2017-11-30 The agricultural privatization strategy adopted in Estonia Latvia and Lithuania was based on the premise that family farms are the most effective alternative to socialist large scale agriculture In addition international organizations particularly the World Bank made recommendations concerning reform speed synchronization and ownership rights that would facilitate transferring resources from large scale producers to family farmers This book provides a critical and comparative analysis of the implementation of this policy and in particular the strategy promoted by the World Bank The preservation of large scale production is the key to Estonia s success while its eradication from Latvia and Lithuania did not produce a family farm system Work productivity and the extent of plot farming are the indicators of success or failure Research findings on deindustrialization the hardships faced by new enterprises rural tourism increasing poverty and problems in the civil society as presented in this book shed new light on these and other key issues in transition strategy Supporting People with Dementia at Home David Challis,Caroline Sutcliffe,Jane Hughes,Richard von

Abendorff, Pamela Brown, John Chesterman, 2016-04-01 Supporting People with Dementia at Home details a groundbreaking study of an intensive care management scheme designed for older people with dementia that are at risk of entry into residential care The authors use a quasi experimental approach to compare how the individuals on the mental health team in one community were matched to a similar community without the service They analyze the evidence focusing on the eventual placement of the individual suffering the quality of care they receive and also the needs of their carers This book offers valuable evidence about the factors which can maximize the independence and well being of older people with dementia from the perspective of older people and their carers For those who commission services it is highly relevant to service models for the National Dementia Strategy in England     Developing Good Practice in Community Care Vicky White, John Harris, 2001 This book presents guidelines for good practice in community care work It describes the planning and implementation of pioneering initiatives in the community analyses their effectiveness and outlines their practical implications     Ageing in Society John Bond, Sheila M Peace, Freya Dittmann-Kohli, Gerben Westerhof, 2007-02-22 Ageing in Society brings forth exciting new questions fresh perspectives and a necessary critical approach to key issues this is indeed an authoritative introduction The authors not only have made significant contributions to gerontology but offer the reader considerations for what could be not just what is the design of old age in society The book will inform students in ways that so many texts in the area satisfied with comfortable bromides do not Jaber Gubrium Editor of Journal of Aging Studies University of Missouri Columbia This completely revised Third Edition of Ageing in Society presents one of the most comprehensive pictures of ageing today Emphasising the dual processes of ageing societies and the experience of ageing the book offers the reader student or researcher alike cogent discussions of the most up to date perspectives and evidence available The contributors are all leading experts in their fields comprising a range of important disciplines as they apply to ageing Ageing in Society is a cutting edge text on one of the most important subjects facing the modern world a must for all students of ageing Mike Bury Emeritus Professor of Sociology University of London The Third Edition of the comprehensive textbook Ageing in Society extends its scope to include continental Europe allowing broader as well as deeper insights into recent trends in gerontology Gerontologists and practitioners are urged not to stop reading before they have reached the insightful last chapter Ageing into the future Professor Dorly Deeg Editor in Chief European Journal of Ageing The Third Edition of this popular and widely used text provides a comprehensive introduction to the study of ageing exploring the key theories concepts and methods which the behavioural and social sciences contribute to the subject Thoroughly revised and updated Ageing in Society reflects new trends in gerontology incorporating recent developments in theory and research as well as major international and interdisciplinary perspectives A new chapter on cognitive ageing has been added and key themes such as social protection retirement health and illness and cultural images of old age are also critically examined Ageing in Society was developed by the British Society of Gerontology to fulfil the need for an authoritative introduction to social gerontology As such it is an ideal resource for students and lecturers in the social and behavioural sciences as well as for students and practitioners in health and social care

Unmasking age Bill Bytheway, 2011-06-29 What is age A simple question but not that easy to answer Unmasking Age addresses it using data from a series of research projects relating to later life This is supplemented by material from a range of other sources including diaries and fiction Drawing on a long career in social research Bill Bytheway critically examines various methods and discusses ways of uncovering the realities of age

Carers' Stories Gill Constable, 2014-07-08 It is estimated that 750 000 people are living with dementia in the UK and 500 000 partners family members and friends are involved in caring for someone with dementia at a value of 6 billion a year if care was provided by health and social care services Department of Health 2009 This book is about hearing the stories of six carers half the carers identified as lesbian or gay The findings were illuminating as the carers did not experience the person with dementia as a burden but rather found contact with health and social care services to be burdensome due to the fragmentation of services an absence of knowledge about carers entitlements and care services seeing the dementia first rather than the person Positive aspects in the relationships between the carers and the cared for endured This book is relevant to anyone who supports a person with dementia in a paid or unpaid capacity or has a role in the provision or commissioning of services and wants to understand better the policy context and most importantly the strategies that support people with dementia to maintain a sense of identity and wellbeing

Ageism Bill Bytheway, 1994-12-16 Ageism has appeared in the media increasingly over the last twenty years What is it How are we affected How does it relate to services for older people This book builds bridges between the wider age conscious culture within which people live their lives and the world of the caring professions In the first part the literature on age prejudice and ageism is reviewed and set in a historical context A wide range of settings in which ageism is clearly apparent are considered and then in the third part the author identifies a series of issues that are basic in determining a theory of ageism The book is written in a style intended to engage the reader s active involvement how does ageism relate to the beliefs the reader might have about older generations the ageing process and personal fears of the future To what extent is chronological age used in social control The book discusses these issues not just in relation to discrimination against the elderly but right across the life course The book is referenced to readily available material such as newspapers and biographies includes case studies to ensure that it relates to familiar everyday aspects of age includes illustrations examples of ageism in advertizing etc

Realising Participation Kathryn Roberts, Tom Chapman, 2017-10-05 This title was first published in 2001 During the last twenty years government rhetoric in the UK has increasingly advocated that statutory health and social care services should regard and treat recipients as consumers in the same way as companies and organizations in the private sector This involves a considerable cultural change on the part of both service providers and their clients and this timely study explores the extent to which such a cultural change is actually taking place in British society The utilization of welfare services by a sample of people aged 70 and above on discharge from inpatient care and in a short period afterwards is examined as a critical testbed for key components of consumerism including participation representation access choice information and redress The book explores not only the extent to which opportunities are being provided for users to play an active role in their care but also their degree of willingness to assume such a role By investigating the experiences of clients from a generation which might be considered relatively resistant to a more active participation in health and social care the study offers an important insight into the extent to which a real social transformation is indeed taking place in the British welfare services

The Meaning of Housing David Clapham, 2005-07-20 This book offers a fresh new approach to the study of housing exploring the meaning that housing has for individuals and households by examining housing pathways Although drawing on British experiences the methodology and theoretical framework used are applicable to the study of housing in any national context

The Social Context of Health and Health Work Linda J. Jones, 1994-07-19 The Social Context of Health and Health Work breaks new ground by linking together sociology of health and social policy perspectives Linda Jones argues that health and health work cannot be understood in isolation Patterns of disease illness treatment and provision are crucially influenced by class race gender age and disability Conflicts over health policies reflect fundamental debates about the purpose of welfare The writer draws on her specialist knowledge of developing and teaching nursing and health studies courses and on her recent experience of writing distance learning materials to create a book which encourages critical thinking and supports study

The Third Job Gurjeet K. Gill, 2018-11-06 Published in 1998 This text focuses on three job two paid and one unpaid housework job families It investigates the way in which partners experience and handle the contradictions in the daily running of the household contradictions which result from the conflicting features within and between society and the family An equal division of household labour remains at the heart of these contradictions as women take on the responsibility of running the family home in addition to paid employment

Disciplining Old Age Stephen Katz, 1996 The conference was organized cooperatively with the Surface Engineering Division of the ASM and as part of Materials Week and so was attended by a wider range of scientists from academia and engineers from industry than usual Funding cuts affecting travel budgets in many institutions however reduced the overall number those who were not able to attend can begin saving for the proceedings The 43 papers cover ultrahard coatings surface treatment and alternative processes corrosion resistant coatings characterizing coatings the surface engineering of powders laser processing vapor deposition and plasma methods and thermal spray coating and coatings for composites Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

Teaching and Learning in Later Life Frank Glendenning, 2018-01-17 This title was first published in 2000 This collection of papers examines the development of education for older adults against the background of an ageing population and the challenge of lengthening life expectancy It brings together contributions from the UK and Canada The book analyzes the current situation reviews trends and perspectives and discusses educational gerontology and its relationship to older adults in the approach to the 21st century There is a call for recognition of the status of older people in education on the basis of social justice using the notions of equal opportunity access to democratic participation respect for persons and the status of equal citizenship There is also recognition of the need to empower older adults by facilitating a sense of autonomy and self determination Educational gerontology is examined in the context of critical theory and social gerontology raising a number of questions necessary to the understanding of critical educational gerontology The book seeks to promote a positive attitude to ageing and concludes by drawing out implications for the future The Oral History Reader Robert Perks,Alistair Thomson,1998 Arranged in five thematic parts The Oral History Reader covers key debates in the post war development of oral history

Health is everywhere: Unravelling the mystery of health The Open University, This 6 hour free course explored two ideas about health that it is an ever present factor in our lives and that it is difficult to define Aging and Biography Gary M. Kenyon,James E. Birren,Jan-Erik Ruth,Johannes J.F. Schroots,Torbjorn Svensson,2004-01-01 Personal life narratives can serve as a rich source of new insights into the experience of human aging In this comprehensive volume an international team of editors and contributors provide effective approaches to using biography to enhance our understanding of adult development In addition to providing new theoretical aspects on aging and biography the book also details new developments concerning the practical use of different biographical approaches in both research and clinical work This is a landmark volume advancing the use of narrative approaches in gerontology Lives in Time and Place R. A. Settersten,2018-10-04 Time and place are of the greatest significance for scientific inquiry about human lives As we seek to better understand the nature and rhythm of the life course in modern societies its effective analysis and explanation simultaneously becomes more pressing and more complicated This information is crucial for developing and reforming social policies services and interventions aimed at improving human development and welfare Yet as our scientific treatments have become more elaborate they have also become more fragmented within and between academic disciplines across the study of specific life periods and by method
