Our World Gretar Tryggvason,Diran Apelian,2011-10-14 A look at engineering education today with an eye to tomorrow Engineering education is in flux While it is increasingly important that engineers be innovative entrepreneurial collaborative and able to work globally there are virtually no programs that prepare students to meet these new challenges Shaping Our World Engineering Education for the 21st Century seeks to fill this void exploring revolutionary approaches to the current engineering curriculum that will bring it fully up to date and prepare the next generation of would be engineers for real and lasting professional success Comprised of fourteen chapters written by respected experts on engineering education the book is divided into three parts that address the need for change in the way engineering is taught specific innovations that have been tested why they matter and how they can be more broadly instituted and the implications for further changes Designed to aid engineering departments in their transition towards new modes of learning and leadership in engineering education the book describes how to put into practice educational programs that are aligned with upcoming changes such as those proposed in the NAE's Engineer of 2020 reports Addressing the need to change engineering education to meet the demands of the 21st century head on Shaping Our World condenses current discussions research and trials regarding new methods into specific actionable calls for change Vision Assessment: Shaping Technology in 21st Century Society John

Grin,Armin Grunwald,2012-12-06 One way to shape technology and its embedding in society in the 21st century is through the visions that guide their development especially concerning the long term societal perspective A critical discussion and assessment of these visions is a prerequisite for influencing the course of development Technology assessment therefore has to provide a methodological repertoire for assessing and constructing visions taking into account the requirements for long term orientation as well as the need for public legitimation This volume draws upon insights from technology assessment political sciences epistemology sociology and ethics It is to contribute to the recent literature in on shaping technology taking into account the co evolution of technology and society It connects to that technology assessment literature that emphasises TA's pro active role and its contribution to political judgement The Challenge of Diversity Walter Johnson,2006 From the tribal village to the global village understanding ourselves and Others Shaping the Society Christianity and Culture Pastor Stephen Kyeyune,2012-05-03 African theology involves theology that reflects the original thinking of African people

Many African have expressed a need for the theology that reflects the original thinking of African peoples Some theologians have recklessly labeled every aspect of African culture to be evil whereas others have expressed contempt regarding Christianity wrapped in Europeans culture Having stayed away from my culture for more than twenty years I have encountered several cultural shocks My personal experience has induced me to invest time into intensive researching on the issue of culture and Christianity in anticipation to help somebody puzzled and drowned in confusion I mean somebody who will not draw a diving line between the two aspects of lives Within every cultural background setting there is a godly culture that is not in conflict with Christianity The culture of man apart from God equals to corruption God created culture and He sent His Son to restore and to preserve the moral values of the cultures The godly culture of man should therefore not be in conflict with the culture of the Bible This topic has been produced in a series of teachings in different volumes of books for deeper clarification I advise you to read all of the series available for your spiritual growth Pastor Stephen Kyeyune

How Educational Ideologies Are Shaping Global Society Joel Spring, 2014-04-08 In this book Joel Spring explores three major international educational ideologies that are shaping global society neo liberal educational ideology human rights education and environmentalism Neo liberal ideology reflects a rethinking of nationalist forms of education as the nation state slowly erodes under the power of a growing global civil society Traditional nationalist education attempts to mold loyal and patriotic citizens who are emotionally attached to symbols of the state whereas the goal of neo liberal educational ideology is to change nationalist education to serve the needs of the global economy These changes are fueling a clash between the ideas of free market and consumer based neo liberals and those of human rights and environmental educators Human rights education is concerned with creating activist global citizens It is rooted in the idea that inherent in human rights doctrines is a collective responsibility to ensure the rights of all people Environmentalism is the most radical of the ideologies because it rejects the industrial and consumerist paradigm that has dominated most economic thought including capitalism and communism Spring synthesizes and analyzes the effect of these educational ideologies on shaping the future of the global society In the concluding section he compares the effect of these ideologies on global society with the possibility of a world divided between conflicting civilizations

Catholicism and the Shaping of Nineteenth-Century America

Jon Gjerde,2012 Offers a series of fresh perspectives on America s encounter with Catholicism in the nineteenth century While religious and immigration historians have construed this history in univocal terms Jon Gjerde bridges sectarian divides by presenting Protestants and Catholics in conversation with each other In so doing Gjerde reveals the ways in which America s encounter with Catholicism was much more than a story about American nativism Nineteenth century religious debates raised questions about the fundamental underpinnings of the American state and society the shape of the antebellum market economy gender roles in the American family and the place of slavery were only a few of the issues engaged by Protestants and Catholics in a lively and enduring dialectic While the question of the place of Catholics in America was left unresolved the very debates surrounding this question generated multiple conceptions of American pluralism and American national identity
