Employing Community-Based Experiential Learning in Teacher Education Gary Harfitt, Jessie Mei Ling Chow, 2020-07-18 This book positions itself at the intersection of the interrelationship between three key areas of initial teacher education constructivist learning theories teaching practicum and the promotion of reflective practices It presents an innovative approach to teacher preparation at undergraduate and postgraduate levels by critically examining the implementation of a mandatory experiential learning block across subject disciplines on undergraduate and postgraduate teacher preparation courses This book presents multiple examples and case studies of these varied experiential learning projects that will inform academics teachers and policymakers Through these rich examples the authors set out to address the theory practice dilemma in teacher education where teachers to be are often positioned as consumers of educational research in classrooms read reference books and academic papers on teaching and observe university and school experts before applying the same acquired theories and practices in their own classes In the book the authors argue for a shift away from this conventional teacher learning curriculum that is characterised by the separation of theory and practice choosing instead to promote pedagogy and methods courses where practice underpins all learning These pedagogical perspectives include the promotion of a diverse range of learning contexts including on and off campus learning sites for student teachers to experience during their time on teacher education courses

Children from the Other America Michele López-Stafford Levy, 2016-07-15 Necessity is the mother of invention and this all began with a plea on a listserv We have a sixteen year old Mayan Quiche young man who won't stop crying in our school How desperate must a parent be to say goodbye to their child children to perhaps never see them again because of wars in Syria or gang violence in Central America making citizens so desperate Will the children make it alive to the next border with so many more to cross Will they really eventually meet up with family Or is this pure folly Will these children be able to go to school for an equitable education and have a much better life than their parents could ever imagine More important are the implications for U S schools how are they managing the sudden influx of children refugees who are road weary and expected to participate in school structures seamlessly Many are not aware that linguistically these children may not be Spanish speaking but only communicate in their own indigenous language may contribute positively to their own lives to their families and communities and to the designed and natural environments of which they will be stewards The Encyclopedia of Applied Developmental Science provides the most effective way to address these questions It includes entries written in an authoritative but not overly technical manner by the broad range of scholars and practitioners involved in applied developmental science In addition to an alphabetical table of contents there is a readers guide that organizes the entries into 30 content categories to help the reader locate similarly themed entries with ease The encyclopedia is ideal for libraries serving those with interests in psychology human development human ecology education sociology family and consumer sciences and nursing as well as social work and other human services disciplines The entries are written to be accessible to not only professionals but also to policy makers and other potential consumers of applied developmental science scholarship This includes young people and their parents teachers and counselors Topics Covered Adolescent Development ADS Training and Education Adult Development Biographies of Applied Developmental Scientists Child Development Civic Engagement Culture and Diversity Development Promoting Interventions Developmental Assessment Developmental Disorders Developmental Processes Developmental Risks Ecology of Human Development Emotional and Social Development Ethics Families Foundations Health Historical Influences Infant Development Organizations Parenting Personality Development Religiosity and Spirituality Research Methodology Schools Social Issues Theory Universities Youth Programs Advisory Board Peter Benson President Search Institute Joan Bergstrom Wheelock College Nancy A Busch Rossnagel Fordham University Roger A Dixon University of Alberta Felton Tony Earls Harvard University Robert C Granger William T Grant Foundation Daniel P Keating University of Toronto Kim Choo Khoo National University of Singapore Kaveh Khoshnood Yale University Bonnie Leadbeater University of Victoria Rick Little President CEO The ImagineNations Group Gary B Melton Clemson University Jari Erik Nurmi University of Jyväskylä Finland Ellen Pinderhughes Vanderbilt University Avi Sagi Schwartz University of Haifa Israel T S Saraswathi University of Baroda India Rainer K Silbereisen University of Jena Germany Merrill Singer Chief of Research Hispanic Health Council Inc Margaret Beale Spencer University of Pennsylvania Linda Thompson University of Maryland Richard A Weinberg University of Minnesota Hirokazu Yoshikawa New York University Luis H Zayas Washington University St Louis Edward Zigler Yale University

Resilience in Children, Families, and Communities Ray D. Peters, Bonnie Leadbeater, Robert J.

McMahon, 2006-11-22 Despite the numerous benefits derived from major technological and medical innovations of the past century we continue to live in a world rife with significant social problems and challenges Children continue to be born into lives of poverty others must confront daily their parent's mental illness or substance abuse still others live amid chronic family discord or child abuse For some of these children life's difficulties become overwhelming Their enduring trauma can lead to a downward spiral until their behavioral and emotional problems become lifelong barriers to success and wellbeing Almost no one today would deny that the world is sometimes an inhospitable even dangerous place for our youth Yet most children even those living in high risk environments appear to persevere Some even flourish And this begs the question why in the face of such great odds do these children become survivors rather than casualties of their environments For many decades scholars have pursued answers to the mysteries of resilience Now having culled several decades of research findings the editors of this volume offer an in depth leading edge description and analysis of Resilience in Children Families and Communities Linking Context to Practice and Policy The book is divided into three readily accessible sections that both define the scope and limits of resilience as well as provide hands on programs that families neighborhoods and communities can implement In addition several chapters provide real life intervention strategies and social policies that can be readily put into practice The goal to enable children to develop more effective problem solving skills to help each child to improve his or her self image and to define ways in which role models can affect positive outcomes throughout each child s lifetime For researchers clinicians and students Resilience in Children Families and Communities Linking Context to Practice and Policy is an essential addition to their library It provides practical information to inform greater success in the effort to encourage resilience in all children and to achieve positive youth development      At-Risk Children & Youth Niall McElwee, 2013-05-13
