northern Netherlands This publication examines the recently restored Winterthur panel formerly attributed to Geertgen in juxtaposition with his paintings depicting the biblical Adoration scene Already in the Baroque era Geertgen tot Sint Jans who lived amongst the Haarlem Hospitallers and died young in 1495 was regarded as the founding father of northern Netherlandish painting Among the few preserved pieces that can be linked to Geertgen with certainty are four depicting the Adoration of the Kings The Winterthur version the largest of the paintings and formerly attributed to Geertgen has now been systematically investigated to reveal stylistic and technical traits of an unknown follower To explore the work of the artist and his legacy the publication juxtaposes the Wintherthur panel with original Geertgen Adoration pictures from the National Gallery in Prague the Rijksmuseum in Amsterdam and the Cleveland Museum of Art in Ohio The similar iconography of the pieces reveals a variety of stylistic accents and emphasizes the artistic progress of his work In focusing on the Adoration subject matter the book also reveals Geertgen s preoccupation with his idol Hugo van der Goes Full page plates and detail reproductions of paintings complement this volume Extensive commentaries in a series of essays on thematic artistic and scientific aspects of the investigation are also included Anne'S Angel Came Twice Sylvia Bryan,2016-10-10 It is the little things that make a person come to life in a story the minutiae of daily life We know the bare bones of the life of these people but that makes them so one dimensional I have taken the story we know and using imagination and Google have brought them to life in a way that makes them live and breathe naturally It is a work of fiction but built on a solid skeleton of fact
