The World Court Reference Guide Bimal N. Patel, 2021-10-01 A single volume comprehensive overview of procedural aspects of the jurisprudence of the World Court this work offers Statements of initial claims counter claims of the contentious cases and questions submitted for the advisory opinions Summarised details of all orders the duration of the oral and written proceedings and coverage of requests for extension of time limits Summaries and headnotes texts of the operative and final paragraphs of all judicial decisions composition of the Court and declarations and opinions of its Members Systematic reference on legal instruments such as the Covenant of the League of Nations the UN Charter the PCIJ and ICJ Statutes the Rules of Court the Arbitral Awards PCIJ and ICJ case law Treaties and inter national legal sources Coverage of information on litigation teams agents counsels advocates experts advisers etc Indexes containing all versions of the PCIJ and the ICJ Rules of Court League Covenant UN Charter Arbitral Awards PCIJ and ICJ case law and Treaties The Guide will be an indispensable reference tool for international and national judicial and quasi judicial bodies lawyers and law firms and academicians alike It will prove to be a very useful source for research on and analysis of the jurisprudence of the World Court I often find it important to be able to see at a glance what a case was about what the Court decided and who were the personalities involved in every phase of a case as judges and as agents and counsel This book aims to meet that requirement There is also a practical side to this in light of the Court s wish in Practice Directions VII and VIII to introduce different cooling off periods for different personalities connected with the Court s judicial work For the practitioner and for the student the most important parts of this book are the indexes to the Statute and the Rules of Court and the lists of treaties and other legal instruments cited From the Introduction by Shabtai Rosenne Public Investment Management Reference Guide Jay-Hyung Kim, Jonas Arp Fallov, Simon Groom, 2020-03-03 The Public Investment Management PIM Reference Guide aims to convey country experiences and good international practices as a basis for decisions on how to address a country specific PIM reform agenda The country references are drawn largely from previous diagnostics and technical assistance reports of the World Bank The application of country diagnostics and assessments has revealed a need to address the following issues when undertaking a country reform in PIM Clarification of the definition and scope of public investment and public investment management Establishment of a sound legal regulatory and institutional setting for PIM making sure it is linked to the budget process Allocation of roles and responsibilities for key players in PIM across government Strengthening of guidance on project preappraisal appraisal and selection prioritization procedures and deepening of project appraisal methodologies Integration of strategic planning project appraisal selection and capital budgeting Management of multiyear capital budget allocations and commitments Efforts to address effective implementation procurement and monitoring of projects Strengthening of asset management and ex post evaluation Integration of PIM and public private partnership PPP in a unified framework Rationalization and prioritization of the existing PIM project portfolio Development of a PIM database and information technology in the form of a PIM information system The PIM Reference Guide does not seek to provide definitive answers or standard guidance for the common PIM issues facing countries Nor does it seek to provide a detailed template for replication across countries this would be impossible given the diversity of country situations Instead each chapter begins with an overview of the specific reform issue lists approaches and experiences from different countries and summarizes the references and good practices to be considered in designing country specific reform actions A Reference Guide for English Studies Michael J. Marcuse, 1990-01-01 This ambitious undertaking is designed to acquaint students teachers and researchers with reference sources in any branch of English studies which Marcuse defines as all those subjects and lines of critical and scholarly inquiry presently pursued by members of university departments of English language and literature Within each of 24 major sections Marcuse lists and annotates bibliographies guides reviews of research encyclopedias dictionaries journals and reference histories The annotations and various indexes are models of clarity and usefulness and cross references are liberally supplied where appropriate Although cost conscious librarians will probably consider the several other excellent literary bibliographies in print such as James L Harner s Literary Research Guide Modern Language Assn of America 1989 larger academic libraries will want Marcuse s volume Jack Bales Mary Washington Coll Lib Fredericksburg Va Library Journal
