Resourceful Woman Gale Research:

Resourceful Woman Shawn Brennan, Julie Winklepleck, Gina Renée Misiroglu, Marie J. MacNee, 1994 A handbook for women in all stages of life this book consists of articles poems short stories and resource information covering organizations educational and cultural programmes publications and videos relevant to women Reader's Guide to Women's Studies Eleanor Amico, 1998-03-20 The Reader's Guide to Women's Studies is a searching and analytical description of the most prominent and influential works written in the now universal field of women's studies Some 200 scholars have contributed to the project which adopts a multi layered approach allowing for comprehensive treatment of its subject matter Entries range from very broad themes such as Health General Works to entries on specific individuals or more focused topics such as Doctors Women's Issues, 1997 The WomanSource Catalog & Review Ilene Rosoff, 1995 Northern Europe Trudy Ring, Noelle Watson, Paul Schellinger, 2013-10-28 First published in 1996 Volume 2 of the International Dictionary of Historical Places covers Northern Europe British Isles to Russia out of a set of five The dictionary spans from Aachen to Ypres and includes an index by country This five volume set presents some 1 000 comprehensive and fully illustrated histories of the most famous sites in the world Entries include location description and site details and a 3 000 to 4 000 word essay that provides a full history of the site and its condition today An annotated further reading list of books and articles about the site completes each entry The Americas Trudy Ring, Noelle Watson, Paul Schellinger, 2013-11-05 This five volume set presents some 1 000 comprehensive and fully illustrated histories of the most famous sites in the world Entries include location description and site details and a 3 000 to 4 000 word essay that provides a full history of the site and its condition today An annotated further reading list of books and articles about the site completes each entry The geographically organized volumes include Volume 1 The Americas 1 884964 00 1 Volume 2 Northern Europe 1 884964 01 X Volume 3 Southern Europe 1 884964 02 8 Volume 4 Middle East Africa 1 884964 03 6 Volume 5 Asia Oceania 1 884964 04 4

Big Book of Opportunities for Women Elizabeth A. Olson, 1997 Provides information on over 4 000 programs that offer educational and career assistance to women with entries on scholarships grants loans and other sources of financial aid internships counseling services employment assistance and programs for women with disabilities Informing Young Women Lesley S. J. Farmer, 1996 As students become more aware of gender related issues one educational skill stands out in the quest for betterment information literacy or the fluent ability to get and use the facts one needs Such a skill allows female and male students to examine social messages and assumptions rather than feel manipulated by them This work is designed to foster a better understanding of the impact of gender bias on learning and how information literacy can be used to promote equitable educational opportunities for both girls and boys The focus is on gender issues because the contributions of women are often minimized in educational materials Activities that boost students self esteem are provided as well as an organizational structure for teachers and librarians that supports a bias free learning environment How students use information to solve problems is fully covered and details are given for designing gender equitable learning experiences Sample lesson plans reinforce the use of information skills to overcome gender related issues

Women, Families, and Feminist Politics J Dianne Garner, Suzanne Cherrin, 2014-07-16 Women and their roles within families must be understood within the context of ethnic traditions religion and culture Women Families and Feminist Politics A Global Exploration combines all of these aspects to evaluate the similarities and differences of women around the world Readers will learn about diverse theories relating to women and their familial roles the different categories of feminism and how cultures and ethnic traditions shape and sometimes restrict a woman s identity Using feminist and sociocultural theories to critically examine the role of adult women within their families Women Families and Feminist Politics offers ideas and suggestions on what has to be done in order for all of women s experiences and concerns to be valued and looked upon as important In addition to providing you with an understanding of how customs and cultures contribute to societal standards set for women Women Families and Feminist Politics discusses several factors that contribute to the formation of women s roles and identity including the economic situation of the family and the country in which the woman lives a developed or developing country cultural diversity in monogamous heterosexual marriage relations and specific marriage traditions such as dowries family structures such as nonnuclear extended polygamous mixed religion relationships mixed race relationships or same sex relationships reproduction and sexual standards in relation to religion government policies and world population gender equity in the workplace and programs for women in global development the health care needs of women and how they vary depending on culture political philosophies and resources women and violence in societal and family contexts from war rapes female circumcision and footbinding to battery and sexual harassment Women Families and Feminist Politics looks at the daily challenges and concerns of adult women within the context of family to help you understand the different needs of women in relation to their culture and ethnic background Focusing on the importance of views concerning the meaning of women s social status power and success Women Families and Feminist Politics contains case studies and statistical data that identify critical issues pertaining to you personally and to all women throughout the world By understanding how women s families help shape their identities you will be able to learn about the vast experiences of women and the inequalities we have yet to overcome
