

VII. Diversity and Convergences in Motivation to Learn

- Motivation grows from individual's needs, goals, interests, emotions, beliefs, etc.
- Students differ in terms of language, culture, economic privilege, knowledge, experience, etc.

In what ways would motivation differ in these high schools students:

- A) a minority student from a family whose resources are limited but who place high value on education, and
- B) a student from the majority culture from a family who has adequate resources, but has yet to entertain post-graduation options?
