

Example of Annotated Bibliography in MLA Format (with Evaluations of the Source)

The diagram illustrates the MLA format for an annotated bibliography. It shows two entries, each with a citation and an annotation. The citation is centered, and the annotation is indented 1/2 inch. The entire entry is centered on the page. The citation is followed by the annotation, which is divided into two parts: a summary and an evaluation. The summary is the first part of the annotation, and the evaluation is the second part. The diagram uses red arrows and text to indicate the placement and formatting of each element.

Annotation (Indented 1/2 inch):

Summary (First part of annotation): This book is written by Doerr, who is the chair of a venture capitalist group. The book describes how business organizations can use OKRs to drive the focus of a company through agility, which leads to explosive growth. There are first-person, behind the scenes case studies narrated by leaders like Bill Gates and Bono. This book helps guide understanding of business and management strategies that drive the success of large companies.

Evaluation (Second part of annotation): This book contains 282 original letters, song lyrics, casualty lists, transcripts of witness testimony, original newspaper accounts. It's a supplement to the anthology published in 128 volumes "The War of the Rebellion: A compilation of the Official Records of the Union and Confederate Armies". The author is a historian-archaeologist. This book is an excellent source for primary documents and offers a fresh narrative of the civil war in the New Mexico territory. Many people think of the Civil War as a battle between the Union and the Confederacy. This book gives the Civil War history researcher a glimpse at the battles happening in the Southwest, as well.

Tips:

- Clear font like Times New Roman, 12 pt., double spaced
- 1 inch margins throughout
- Last name and page number 1/2 inch down, right aligned
- List authors in alphabetical order
- First line of annotation indented 1/2 inch
