Archbishops' Review Group, 2002 The second report of the Review Group appointed by the Archbishops in 1999 to consider future needs and resourcing of bishops The first report addressed questions of how bishops should be resourced This report considers how these principles might apply to the ministries of the two Archbishops Bishops, Wives and Children Douglas J. Davies, Mathew Guest, 2016-04-15 Christianity as a cultural force whether rising or falling has seldom been analysed through the actual processes by which tradition is transmitted modified embraced or rejected This book achieves that end through a study of bishops of the Church of England their wives and their children to show how values fostered in the vicarage and palace shape family work and civic life in a supposedly secular age Davies and Guest integrate for the first time sociological concepts of spiritual capital with anthropological ideas of gift theory and alongside theological themes use these to illuminate how the religious professional functions in mediating tradition and fostering change Motifs of distant prelates managerially minded fathers in God and rebellious clergy children are reconsidered in a critical light as new empirical evidence offers unique insights into how the clergy family functions as an axis of social power in an age incredulous to ecclesiastical hierarchy Bishops Wives and Children marks an important advance in the analysis of the spirituality of Catholic Evangelical and Liberal leaders and their social significance within a distinctive Christian tradition and all it represents in wider British society Women Bishops in the Church of England? Church of England. House of Bishops, 2004 In July 2000 the General Synod of the Church of England passed a motion asking the House of Bishops to initiate further theological study on the episcopate focusing on the issues that need to be addressed in preparation for the debate on women in the episcopate in the Church of England This report is the result of that reflection The report sets out as clearly and objectively as possible the options open to the Church of England in this matter and outlines the surrounding theological and practical issues The report discusses the background to the debate the historical development of episcopacy the parameters for a theologically responsible debate on women and the episcopate the development of women's ministry the timing whether now is the right time to ordain women bishops the theological and practical consequences of possible future options The Council of Bishops in Historical Perspective William B. Oden, 2014-11-14 Behind the scenes with the Council of Bishops Two authors who have served as a United Methodist bishop William B Oden and as General Secretary of the General Commission on Archives and History Robert J Williams collaborate on a history of the Council They set the context for the development of what became the Council of Bishops in 1939 and recount the evolution of that body in recognition of its 75th anniversary Includes photographs a complete listing of all bishops of The United Methodist Church and predecessor bodies
