Educating the Able Diane Montgomery, 1996 The purpose of this book is to enable teachers to develop explicit criteria for identifying and helping able pupils After discussing the nature of ability and talent and identifying the able child Diane Montgomery examines curriculum provision paying particular attention to the National Curriculum and surveying different types of provision acceleration enrichment and differentiation She then describes methods of teaching for critical thinking The book ends with a chapter on helping the underfunctioning able child Throughout there are numerous examples and practical suggestions Teachers in primary and secondary schools as well as in higher education will find this book invaluable both as an introduction to the area and as a source of ideas

Adolescents in Crisis Wade Rowatt, 2001-01-01 In a world where violence among young people is becoming increasingly prevalent G Wade Rowatt offers solid direction for solutions to many of the issues adolescents face including sexual promiscuity substance abuse depression and suicide as well as their sometimes violent tendencies Integrating not only clinical research and experience but biblical insights as well Adolescents in Crisis provides ready help for parents teachers and all those who care for youth

Reflective Teaching in Secondary Education Andrew Pollard, Pat Triggs, 1997 This book is intended to provide flexible and comprehensive support for school based and school focused teacher education in a wide range of circumstances It is an excellent resource for students teachers mentors and tutors and can be used in almost any form of professional development activity The book is full of Practical Activities and Notes for Further Reading It is a comprehensive and innovative handbook which deals with every significant aspect of secondary school teaching

Mobility for Special Needs Juliet Stone, 1995 Children with special educational needs besides those with visual impairments have a need for and a right to mobility and orientation education The skills of mobility and orientation are critical the inability to move in and around the environment affects the individual psychologically socially emotionally economically and physically This Book outlines the theory of mobility education and offers a programme of intervention for children with special educational needs particularly those with visual and or learning difficulties The author gives practical advice for intervention using thorough case studies and helpful illustrations of mobility techniques

The Bloomsbury Guide to Pastoral Care Bernadette Flanagan, 2014-01-30 The Bloomsbury Guide to Pastoral Care provides a framework for reflection on pastoral care practice and identifies frontier learning from the new and challenging practical contexts which are important in pastoral care research today In this collection of essays from leading practitioner scholars Bernadette Flanagan and Sharon Thornton set out core principles underpinning professional identity and the practice of pastoral care in rapidly changing social settings Such pastoral challenges as developing compassionate and effective companionship to those who have suffered trauma torture catastrophic events social disintegration the moral wounds of war and cultural dislocation are treated with insight and deep care The new frontiers of pastoral care in more familiar circumstances such as family health settings where patients facing life challenging medical events and multi cultural communities are also explored With contributions from Kevin Egan Michael O Sullivan SJ Rita Nakashima Brock and Julia Prinz VDMF The Bloomsbury Guide to Pastoral Care is an essential reference for the theory and practice of pastoral care Children with Learning Difficulties Diane Montgomery,1990 Counselling Skills for Health Professionals Philip Burnard,Jo Campling,2013-11-11 This is the second edition of a book that I hope continues to be of practical value For counselling must always be that practical No amount of talking on its own can really make a difference if people do not end up doing something as a result of counselling The practical thread remains an important one throughout this edition Counselling Skills for Health Professionals is not just a how to do it book people are probably too complicated for that approach to be of much use Counselling is never simply a matter of learning a range of skills which you then apply in a range of settings In the end counselling is about facing the person in front of you listening to them carefully and then supporting them as they work through their problems For many problems there are no easy answers and counselling doesn't offer any quick fixes It is essentially a supportive process There are many things it cannot do It cannot change certain social and political situations It cannot cure diseases On the other hand what it can do is offer people more hope Often just the fact that there is someone who is prepared to hear your story and to listen to you is all that is needed I remain convinced that the key issue in all types of counselling is the ability to listen

Expressive Arts in the Primary School Judith Piotrowski,1996 Many children in primary schools who are defined as having special needs have difficulties in the acquisition and development of literacy skills Teachers face the dilemma of how to achieve a balance between developing basic skills on the one hand and ensuring breadth of curriculum on the other In this book the authors show how the education of children with learning difficulties can be enriched and improved through creative self expression The areas of art creative writing drama music oracy and physical education including dance are covered in detail Examples are given from classroom practice as well as consideration of the implications of changes to the National Curriculum The book will be of particular interest and practical value to teachers in mainstream classrooms and special needs settings as well as to teachers in training school governors and parents Adaptaciones curriculares en educación secundaria obligatoria ,1999 Gu a para ayudar al profesor de educaci n secundaria a cumplimentar el Documento de Adaptaciones Curriculares destinado al alumnado con necesidades educativas especiales Developing Mathematical and Scientific Thinking in Young Children David Womack,1988 Secondary Schools for All? John Sayer,1994 Provides a positive reaffirmation of a strong value base to secondary education based on principles of access and entitlement and achieved through sound participative management and relevant staff support and development Further Opportunities David Johnstone,1995 The book examines how further education for students with learning difficulties and disabilities has emerged from an essentially elitist education system It explores some of the issues shaping the entitlement to further education for these students in the 1990s For many people the change that further education and training has undergone in recent years has been interpreted in terms of developing opportunities for student choice and rights and entitlements Others more sceptical perceive a reduction of educational opportunity in favour of market led notions of efficiency The book explores aspects of these concerns including staff development and teaching and learning in this comparatively new area of work tensions between further education and employment opportunities for students with learning difficulties and disabilities and a cross cultural perspective on attitudes and provisions     The Pastoral Care of Children Daniel H. Grosseohme,1999

Explore a new way of pastoral care that enables caregivers to develop relationships and provide meaningful pastoral care to the children and youth they encounter The Pastoral Care of Children focuses on the need for pastoral caregivers clergy and chaplains to develop relationships with youths and gives you suggestions to overcome the anxiety associated with caring for an acutely ill child through unique playful and child centered approaches Many pastoral caregivers have high anxiety when children are ill or hurt are unsure how to have a substantive conversation with a nine year old or their fears of what could be said keep them from hearing what children have to say The effective approaches in The Pastoral Care of Children are illustrated to assist you with serving the spiritual needs of children You will explore actual pastoral care experiences that will help you gain confidence in handling situations such as a teenager s desire to be baptized out of fear of death when neither he nor his parents believe in Christ Intelligent and heartfelt this valuable book gives you a complete theological exploration of ministering to children who may ask you Why me Why do people have to die and What happens to children if they die before they are baptized The Pastoral Care of Children helps you answer these questions with meaningful responses that are genuine and grounded with yourself and reflect the parents beliefs Some of the help you will discover in The Pastoral Care of Children includes understanding the similarities and differences of caring for children in comparison to adults such as different vocabularies but similar emotions and realizing that children are very perceptive using play as a tool for example referring to a puppet s experience in reference to the child to eliminate the child s self consciousness and help him or her open up confronting pastoral issues in acute care settings such as fear guilty feelings and anger from parents family and the child helping children recover from mental health issues such as depression eating disorders and identity and self esteem issues by using cognitive therapy conducting prayer and rituals with children such as baptism naming ceremonies anointings and funerals to assist the child and family through this spiritual rite of passage Complete with child and family focused approaches for dealing with the questions surrounding death The Pastoral Care of Children also provides you with several cited scriptures and a list of questions you may be asked by a child who is facing death You will learn from actual circumstances pastoral caregivers have encountered and discover how to approach topics and answer questions on God and death The Pastoral Care of Children an extremely resourceful book that will assist you in overcoming anxiety and help you deliver thoughtful and uplifting pastoral care to children and youth     Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1997
