Travis McMaken, 2013-08-01 The theology of the sacraments is one of the most contested parts in Barth s theology none more so than the doctrine of baptism Barth's proposals on baptism have generated intense conversation and disagreement not only on its application to Protestant and ecumenical theology but even on its own consistency with Barth s larger dogmatic project McMaken takes up this controversial question sets it in its proper context within the history of doctrine and Barth's systematic work and argues for a constructive reclamation of infant baptism that accords with Barth's overarching theological concerns and insights notably from Barth's mature theological commitments Pivotally this volume claims that a reorientation of the doctrine of baptism opens up a new perspective on the practice of infant baptism on the basis of Barth's theology this new perspective as well holds the potential for wide ecumenical application as a form of the proclamation of the gospel and a vital dimension of the church's missional vocation A commanding volume for scholars and students in systematic theology ecumenical studies and sacramental theology Approaches to Monasticism in the Context of Christian Responses to Modern Culture Kevin Maddy, 2022-06-20 Approaches to Monasticism in the Context of Christian Responses to Modern Culture is a study of how the values and practices of monasticism are being shaped by the shift to a cultural understanding of Christianity in modern times The values and practices of traditional monasticism are contrasted with those of various expressions of new monasticism against the background of a multicultural and fluid social environment in an effort to find some reciprocal illumination The study aims to describe monasticism in terms of authenticity and lived religion Kevin Maddy was educated at Cambridge University and has recently completed a PhD at Radboud University Nijmegen He currently works in Canterbury as an Anglican parish priest and is a probationary member of the Society of the Resurrection Christian Responses to Spiritual Incursions into the 21st Century Church and Society Nikolaos Asproulis, Stuart Devenish, 2020-10-30 This volume provides an account of the surprising in breaking of spiritual life that persists in our culture despite the best efforts of atheist spokespersons and secular theorists Spirituality in its varying forms is irrepressible resisting our attempts to exclude it by continuing to seep through the cracks and leak through the gaps When it is allowed to manifest itself through the Christian faith tradition it has the power to surprise transform and renew everything it touches This volume contains a series of case studies each of which describes the inner functionings and out workings of the spiritual life as a transformative point of contact between God world society and self Each chapter contains

Studies in Hermeneutics, Christology and Discipleship Richard N. Longenecker, 2004 John Calvin's Doctrine of the Christian Life John H. Leith, 2010-03-01 In this thorough investigation of Calvinist doctrine John Leith defines the Reformer s teaching on Christian life in the context of his theology He begins with a discussion of what it means to say that the purpose of Christian life is the glory of God He then discusses Christian life in relation to four aspects of Calvinist thought justification by faith alone providence and predestination history and the transhistorical church and society Leith's concluding statement summarizes the importance of this book Calvin s doctrine of the Christian life represents a magnificent effort to give expression to what it means to have to do with the living God every moment of one s life No interpretation of the sola gloria Dei only God's glory has been more vivid and dynamic than Calvin's For this reason he speaks to the needs of this generation which at least until recently has been more frequently concerned about the glory of humankind than that of God and which has fallen victim to many false gods and vicious ideologies Yet if Calvinism is to render its full service to our day it must be interpreted in the context of the shared faith of the total Christian community On the basis of Calvin's own principles no human statement of Christian faith can ever be final and must be continually reformed by the Christian community s apprehension of the word of God as revealed in Jesus Christ God's Gifts for the Christian Life — Part 1 J. Alexander Rutherford, 2021-11-05 How are Christians to think about the intellectual tasks that make up everyday life in the modern world It is clear we are not to do so as the world does but what does it look like to engage Christianly in our thinking In the first part of the series God's Gifts for the Christian Life J Alexander Rutherford shows how the Bible equips us to confidently engage in the interpretation of and engagement with the Word of God and the world he has created In God's rich mercy he has enabled us to know him his word and his world In a world where it is preposterous and arrogant to claim to know anything certainly we are in desperate need of renewed foundations In God's Gifts for the Christian Life see some of the ways that God through his limitless power has made available to us everything necessary for life and godliness 2 Peter 1 3 The Spirit of God and the Christian Life JinHyok Kim, 2014 Revision of author's thesis Ph D University of Oxford 2012 under title The spirit of God and the Christian life a constructive study of Karl Barth's pneumatology with special reference to his incomplete doctrine of redemption The Christian Path in a Pluralistic World and the Study of Spirituality Diana L.
