Responsibility and Christian Ethics William Schweiker, 1995 The purpose of this book is to formulate a way of thinking about issues of power moral identity and ethical norms by developing a theory of responsibility from a specifically theological viewpoint the author makes clear thereby the significance for Christian commitment of current reflection on moral responsibility The concept of responsibility is relatively new in ethics but the drastic extension of human power through various technological developments has lately thrown into question the way human beings conceive of themselves as morally accountable agents It is this radical extension of power in our time which poses the need for a new paradigm of responsibility in ethics Schweiker engages in an informed way with what is therefore a highly topical discussion By developing a coherent theory of responsibility and inquiring as to its source the author demonstrates the unique contribution which might be made by Christian thought to moral questions in the next century action to be with and for others and the world Postmodernity has left us with the risky uncertainty of knowing and doing the good It also leaves us with the global risks of political violence and terrorism economic globalization and financial crisis and environmental destruction and global climate change How should Christians respond to these problems This book creatively explores how Christian ethics is best understood as a witness to God's action thereby providing the ethical framework for addressing the various problematic social issues that put our world at risk Haddorff develops the notion of witness through a detailed study of Karl Barth's theological ethics Barth he argues provides a language enabling us to know what a Christian ethics of witness actually looks like in both theory and in practice In correspondence to God's gracious action Christians remain free to think and act in faith hope and love in response to their unique circumstances even in a world at risk In their witness Christians remain confident that God has not abandoned the world but loves and cares for its future
