International Handbook of Inter-religious Education Kath Engebretson, Marian de Souza, Gloria Durka, Liam Gearon, 2010-08-17 This Handbook is based on the conviction of its editors and contributing authors that understanding and acceptance of as well as collaboration between religions has essential educational value The development of this Handbook rests on the further assumption that interreligious education has an important role in elucidating the global demand for human rights justice and peace Interreligious education reveals that the creeds and holy books of the world's religions teach about spiritual systems that reject violence and the individualistic pursuit of economic and political gain and call their followers to compassion for every human being It also seeks to lead students to an awareness that the followers of religions across the world need to be and to grow in dialogical relationships of respect and understanding An essential aim of interreligious education is the promotion of understanding and engagement between people of different religions and therefore it has great potential to contribute to the common good of the global community Interreligious education has grown from the interfaith movement whose beginning is usually identified with the World Parliament of Religions held in Chicago in 1893 This was the first time in history that leaders of the eastern and western religions had come together for dialogue and to consider working together for global unity Proceedings of the 3rd International Conference on Christian and Inter-Religious Studies

(ICC-IRS 2024) Desi Natalia, Maria Veronica, Deri Susanto, 2025-07-16 This is an open access book Third International Conference on Christian and Inter Religious Studies ICC IRS 2024 will be held in Palangka Raya from June 20-22 2024 This prestigious event is organized by the Institut Agama Kristen Negeri IAKN Palangka Raya as part of an ongoing effort to facilitate academic discussions on critical issues in the digital era With the theme Religion Education and Culture in the Digital Age this conference will serve as a forum for scholars researchers and practitioners from various backgrounds to discuss and share insights in the fields of religion and education The topics to be covered include a wide range of disciplines including Education Theology Psychology and Counseling Sociology and Philosophy of Religion Religious Moderation as well as Music and Arts To enrich the discussions the conference will feature distinguished academics from both domestic and international institutions as keynote speakers With great enthusiasm the committee has received over 200 participants from various institutions and of these approximately 125 manuscripts have been approved for presentation From these presentations around 75 full papers will be selected for publication It is hoped that this conference will not only contribute significantly to the advancement of knowledge in the field of religion but also strengthen academic networks among the participants fostering further collaboration in the future Protestant Clergy Sexual Misconduct and Intercultural

Pastoral Care AHyun Lee, 2025-08-04 This volume examines the often overlooked crisis of sexual misconduct within Korean Protestant churches exploring how militarized culture hierarchical power and institutional silence contribute to the abuse of congregants especially those in vulnerable situations Through a blend of sociocultural theological and psychological analysis the book goes beyond individual acts of transgression to reveal the systemic forces that perpetuate clergy sexual misconduct By investigating the historical cultural and spiritual dimensions of abuse the book offers a framework for reframing survivor centered care and rethinking pastoral theology It concludes with a call for transformative change in religious practice urging greater transparency and more compassionate faith communities Essential reading for scholars students and practitioners this book provides critical insights into addressing sexual abuse within church settings and fostering ethical ministry

Interreligious Dialogue and Cultural Change Catherine Cornille, Stephanie Corigliano, 2012-08-17 The challenges and changes that take place when religions move from one cultural context to another present unique opportunities for interreligious dialogue In new cultural environments religions are not only propelled to enter into dialogue with the traditional or dominant religion of a particular culture religions are also invited to enter into dialogue with one another about cultural changes In this volume scholars from different religious traditions discuss the various types of dialogue that have emerged from the process of acculturation While the phenomenon of religious acculturation has generally focused on Western religions in non Western contexts this volume deals predominantly with the acculturation in the United States It thus offers a fresh look at the phenomenon of acculturation while also lifting up an often implicit or ignored dimension of interreligious dialogue

"Without Ceasing to be a Christian" Mark Granquist, 2017-12-01 Since his death in 2010 there has been continuing and growing interest in the life vision and thought of the late Spanish Indian mystical theologian Raimon Panikkar As well as offering both a personal affirmation and critique of Panikkar's thought from a Catholic and Protestant perspective the work compares and contrasts him with a range of Western and Indian theologians both Catholic and Protestant and outlines the possibilities of learning from Panikkar in an ecumenical context

Christianity in Western and Northern Europe Todd M. Johnson, Annemarie C Mayer, Kenneth R. Ross, 2024-04-30 Although the origins of Christianity lie in the Near East Europe and Christianity have an exceptional relationship since most Europeans perceive Christianity as a Western more precisely as a European religion The region has seen rapid social change in the 21st century set off by factors including energy crisis and environmental awareness poverty and exclusion falling birthrates and increased migration changing attitudes to sexuality gender and family life and challenges to Europe's idea of itself and place in the global order Amidst all this flux this volume focuses on one particular issue the rapidly changing profile of the Christian faith that has shaped the life of the European continent for a millennium and more At a time when patterns of Christian life and worship appear to be dying out yet traces of new life are also appearing this volume maps out the current reality of Christianity in Western and Northern Europe with all its questions and uncertainties

The Fervent Embrace Caitlin Carenen, 2012-03-26 Eleven minutes after Israel declared its independence on 14 May 1948 the United States granted it de facto recognition President Harry Truman's memo was short and to the point This Government has been informed that a Jewish state has been proclaimed in Palestine and recognition has been requested by the provisional government thereof The United States recognizes the provisional government as the de facto authority of the new State of Israel Truman's concise memo belied the drama behind its creation Despite enormous pressure from Truman's State Department and members of his cabinet to withhold recognition the president quickly offered it Some scholars have argued that pressure from Jewish lobby groups explains Truman's speedy actions but this alone does not fully explain the president's immediate support for the new Jewish state What accounts for it then A significant part of the answer lies in the actions and lobbying efforts of an elite group of mainline or liberal Protestant leaders who persuasively argued that the destruction of the European Jews during the Second World War necessitated support for Zionism Historic Christian antisemitism helped to create the twentieth century's worst genocide they insisted and therefore its solution constituted a Christian responsibility This powerful well connected mainline Protestant minority set about radically changing the nature of Protestant Jewish relations and U S foreign policy over the course of the century

The Calling of Global Responsibility Ananta Kumar Giri, 2023-03-03 This book rethinks and transforms the current discourse on globalization and global justice It expands the idea of globalization from an economic or corporate context to mean humanization and planetary realizations moving beyond the boundaries of nation states and other human made demarcations The author challenges the notion of human primacy and makes a fervent call to reconfigure the paradigm of anthropocentrism Through a careful study of movements for justice and inter faith dialogue from across the world the book makes a unique contribution to the emerging study of global responsibility It also helps us overcome our current civilizational crises and cultivate a new civilization of planetary care and co responsibility As part of the Ethics Human Rights and Global Political Thought series the volume will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of law and society especially social movements political theory and philosophy

Nationalism and Internationalism in the Young Ecumenical Movement, 1895-1920s Judith Becker, Dana L Robert, 2025-03-18 This book explores how and why global Protestant movements have been foundational for studies of internationalism During the early twentieth century hopes for the peaceful coexistence of nations animated emerging international Protestant cooperation Despite national hostilities including world war commitment to global Christian fellowship became an urgent public agenda In this volume essays by European Asian and North American scholars locate the essence of the young ecumenical movement in the dynamic tension between nationalism and internationalism during the early twentieth century Political crises crushing disappointments and imperialist ambitions notwithstanding transnational Protestant leaders networks and movements envisioned Christianity as a contemporary multi cultural worldwide community

Christian-Muslim Dialogue in the Twentieth Century A. Siddiqui, 1997-02-19 The book describes the challenge of modernity faced by Muslims and Christians and the issue of religious pluralism It describes Muslims encounters with Christianity in the first half of this century and their participation in organised dialogues initiated by the Churches in the second half It highlights their apprehensions and expectations in dialogue and issues of co existence in the world today The book focuses on six prominent Muslim personalities who represent a wide spectrum of Muslim opinion and three international organizations and their attitude towards dialogue

Hope and Otherness: Christian Eschatology and Interreligious Hospitality Jakob W. Wirén, 2017-11-01 In Hope and Otherness Jakob Wirén analyses the place and role of the religious Other in contemporary eschatology In connection with this theme he examines and compares different levels of inclusion and exclusion in Christian Muslim and Jewish eschatologies He argues that a distinction should be made in approaches to this issue between soteriological openness and eschatological openness By going beyond Christian theology and also looking to Muslim and Jewish sources and by combining the question of the religious Other with eschatology Wirén explores ways of articulating Christian eschatology in light of religious otherness and provides a new and vital slant to the threefold paradigm of exclusivism inclusivism and pluralism that has been prevalent in the theology of religions Jakob Wirén's study pushes forward the frontiers of three disciplines all at the same time theology of religions comparative religions and eschatology This is a challenging and important book Gavin D Costa University of Bristol Professor of Catholic Theology 2017 This book explores of the status of religious others in Christian eschatology and of eschatology itself as a privileged place for reflecting on religious otherness Wirén mines not only Christian but also Jewish and Muslim sources to develop an inclusive eschatology Hope and Otherness thus represents an important contribution to both theology of religions and comparative theology Catherine Cornille Boston College Professor of Comparative Theology 2017
