Longerich comes the definitive one volume biography of Adolf Hitler's malevolent minister of propaganda. In life and in the grisly manner of his death Joseph Goebbels was one of Adolf Hitler's most loyal acolytes. By the end no one in the Berlin bunker was closer to the Führer than his devoted Reich minister for public enlightenment and propaganda. But how did this clubfooted son of a factory worker rise from obscurity to become Hitler's most trusted lieutenant and personally anointed successor? In this ground breaking biography Peter Longerich sifts through the historical record and thirty thousand pages of Goebbels's own diary entries to provide the answer to that question. Longerich the first historian to make use of the Goebbels diaries in a biographical work engages and challenges the self serving portrait the propaganda chief left behind. Spanning thirty years the diaries paint a chilling picture of a man driven by a narcissistic desire for recognition who found the personal affirmation he craved within the virulently racist National Socialist movement. Delving into the mind of his subject Longerich reveals how Goebbels's lifelong search for a charismatic father figure inexorably led him to Hitler to whom he ascribed almost godlike powers. This comprehensive biography documents Goebbels's ascent through the ranks of the Nazi Party where he became a member of the Führer's inner circle and launched a brutal campaign of anti Semitic propaganda. Though endowed with near dictatorial control of the media film radio press and the fine arts Longerich's Goebbels is a man dogged by insecurities and beset by bureaucratic infighting. He feuds with his bitter rivals Hermann Göring and Alfred Rosenberg unsuccessfully advocates for a more radical line of total war and is thwarted in his attempt to pursue a separate peace with the Allies during the waning days of World War II. This book also reveals as never before Goebbels's twisted personal life his mawkish sentimentality manipulative nature and voracious sexual appetite. A harrowing look at the life of one of history's greatest monsters Goebbels delivers fresh insight into how the Nazi message of hate was conceived nurtured and disseminated. This complete portrait of the man behind that message is sure to become a standard for historians and students of the Holocaust for decades to come. Praise for Goebbels: Peter Longerich has delved into rarely accessed material from his subject's diaries which span thirty years to paint a remarkable portrait of the man who became one of Hitler's most trusted lieutenants. The Daily Telegraph Praise for Heinrich Himmler: There have been several studies of this enigmatic man but Peter Longerich's massive biography grounded in exhaustive study of the primary sources is now the standard work and must stand alongside Ian Kershaw's Hitler. Ulrich Herbert's Best and Robert Gerwarth's Hitler's Hangman. The Life of Heydrich as one of the landmark Nazi biographies. As the author of a celebrated study of the Holocaust Longerich is better able than his predecessors to situate Himmler within the vast machinery of genocide. And he brings to his task a gift for capturing those mannerisms that are the intimate markers of personality. London Review of Books. An excellent and comprehensive biography. The New York Review of Books.

Film, Negation and Freedom Will Kitchen, 2023-10-19 Film Negation and Freedom Capitalism and Romantic Critique explores cinema in relation to the critical tradition in modern philosophy and its heritage in Romantic aesthetics Synthesising a variety of discursive fields and traditions including Early German Romanticism Frankfurt School critical theory and the aesthetic philosophy of Jacques Rancière Film Negation and Freedom outlines a radical new approach to film by re-examining the work of Arthur Penn and Lindsay Anderson A distinction between Light and Dark Romanticism is introduced as a means of interpreting cinema's relationship with capitalism as well as dualistic concepts such as stillness and motion passivity and activity pain and pleasure Film Negation and Freedom revitalises our understanding of modern audio visual media as well as the aesthetic philosophical and political conditions of Romantic subjectivity artistic practice and spectatorship The Iliad Martin Mueller, 2013-11-01 No Western text boasts a life as long as the Iliad and few can match its energy and glory This introduction to Homer's poem sees it as rooted in a particular culture with narrative and thematic conventions that are only partly explained by assumptions about the properties of oral poetry Professor Mueller follows Plato and Aristotle in seeing the plot of the Iliad as a distinctly Homeric invention which shaped Attic tragedy and the concept of dramatic action in Western literature In this second edition the text has been revised in many places and a new chapter on Homeric repetitions has been added In the Metro Marc Augé, 2002 Tourists climb the Eiffel Tower to see Paris Parisians know that to really see the city you must descend into the metro In this revelatory book Marc Augé takes readers below Paris in a work that is both an ethnography of the city and a personal narrative Guiding us through history memory and physical space Augé juxtaposes the romance of the metro with the reality of multiethnic urban France His work is part autobiography with impressions from a lifetime riding the trains part meditation on self and memory reflected in the people and places underneath Paris part analysis of a place where the third world and the first world meet where remnants of cultures move and press together and part a reflection on anthropology in an era of globalization and urban development Although he is a pillar of French thought In the Metro is Auge's first major critical and creative work translated into English It shows him to be firmly rooted in a tradition of literary ethnography that reaches back to Claude Levi Strauss and Michel de Certeau but also engaged in current theoretical debates in literary and cultural studies In Auge's idiosyncratic and innovative approach the act of observing the quotidian is elevated to an art The writer and his history become part of the field he observes and anthropology interacts with a site urban life usually reserved for sociology and cultural studies Throughout Auge reveals a passion for his milieu seeing the metro as a place rich with history and literature an eclectic egalitarian society Blood Soaked Dresses Gloria Mindock, 2007-12-01 In her fascinating poem cycle Gloria Mindock jolts back into memory the roots of El Salvador's present day violence Mindock coaxes to the page the voices of the dead who lie less in peace than in restless obsession with the atrocities they suffered She brings forth as well the voices of the living who seem startled to find that they died somewhere between the horrors they witnessed and the grave they have yet to lie down in Blood Soaked Dresses is a beautiful harrowing first book Catherine Sasanov The Greek World of Apuleius Gerald Sandy, 2018-07-17 The first three chapters of this book elucidate the scholastic goals of both classical cultures during the Roman Imperial period Apuleius works share the stage in these chapters with representatives of the second century Greek cultural paradigm They define patterns of discourse and fit selected examples of analogous Apuleian strategies into the broader cultural framework Subsequent chapters focus closely on the complete Apuleian corpus under the general headings of Apuleius in the roles of orator philosopher and novelist Two of Apuleius philosophical works and his novel the Golden Ass provide an unparalleled opportunity to analyze the methods of translation and adaptation employed by the major Latin writer of the second half of the second century Bagels with the Bards The Bards, 2008-04-28 Bagel Bard noun 1 A poet that is glazed and ring shaped whose poetry has a tough chewy texture usually made of leavened words and images dropped briefly into nearly boiling conversations on Saturday mornings often baked to a golden brown 2 verb To come together in writership over breakfast To laugh so hard at an irreverent statement that the sesame seeds of the bagel you've just eaten explode from your mouth like grenade shrapnel Welcome to the third Bagelbard Anthology As some of you know or can guess from the above definition the Bagel Bards meet every Saturday morning at a designated spot We breakfast in the original sense of eating but also because most of us are so busy working on our writing careers that we often find ourselves starved for great conversation Well the Bagel Bards breakfast hang is not only a place in which to do the aforementioned but also to observe characters who themselves could be the subjects of poems and fiction For the Faith Jeff W. Manship, 2014-08-15 What will a man do what crimes will he commit what sacrifices will he make for his faith Is the radicalism of modern day mullahs and their followers far removed from the strange fanaticism found in our own Christian heritage perhaps lying dormant within our own family histories Alan McMurdie confronts these questions when his only son commits suicide and he is left holding the broken pieces of a family that is torn asunder by tragedies that transcend generations of faithful Mormon ancestors A young boy conceals his baptism from a step father who despises all religions Later as a young man he discovers a fortune in uranium in the deserts of southeastern Utah and makes a bold decision to abandon it all for the glory of serving God As a missionary in the southern United States he witnesses firsthand the heartache and the tragedy that sometimes follow those who choose faith over false traditions Two generations later another young boy will experience the nightmare of being sexually molested at a Boy Scout camp and later will have to confront the awful truth of his own sexuality an immutable reality that places him at odds with the strict teachings of his Mormon faith and an even darker secret lies buried within the family s history a terrible secret from the distant past of an ancestor involved in one of the most shocking and sordid crimes of the 19th century a crime made more hideous because it was driven by obsessive fanatical faith Throughout five generations the McMurdie family has carried the burden that an overzealous faith sometimes places on its adherents From triumphs of the human spirit to the very depths of delusion and despair they have given all suffered all and witnessed all for the faith

Destruction and Creation Mary Ann Mattoon, 1999 The 14th Congress for Analytical Psychology was held 23-28 August 1998 in the ancient city of Florence Italy The theme Destruction and Creation Personal and Cultural Transformations is especially appropriate to the Italian setting with that nation s history of destruction both from nature and from human activity and its tradition especially in Florence of creative individuals and institutions The theme is fitting also to the context of Jungian psychology with its emphasis on these and other pairs of opposites with their integral role in psychic wholeness Acknowledging also that destruction is indispensable to creation some Jungians prefer the term creative unconscious to the traditional collective unconscious
