

The cover features two stylized line drawings in blue ink. On the left, a modern building with several rectangular panels of varying heights and widths is depicted. On the right, a traditional church with a tall, pointed steeple topped with a cross is shown. A single horizontal line connects the base of the modern building to the base of the church, symbolizing a bridge or connection between the two worlds.

Restoring The Vision The Gospel And Modern Culture:

Restoring the Vision Lawrence Osborn, 1995 Does the Christian Gospel offer an alternative to secular culture or does it find expression within human cultures This text argues that the Gospel has to be translated into the language of every culture before it can offer a constructive critique of that culture leading to transformation and change It concludes that a key element in commending the Gospel to our contemporary culture will be a practical demonstration of human community in an age of increasing fragmentation and alienation This text therefore challenges the tendency to look for pious belief and argues for spiritual and social interaction ThirdWay, 1995-03 Monthly current affairs magazine from a Christian perspective with a focus on politics society economics and culture The Wild Gospel Alison Morgan, 2012-10-18 A prophetic challenge to the Western church The Christian faith is always subversive to the dominant world view Jesus overturned every assumption which stopped people experiencing the living reality of God the heart of truth Sadly the Western world has reduced truth to the merely rational and then discarded it as inadequate In Africa and other parts of the world where God's truth has never been straitjacketed in this way the church is characterised by a joy now absent in the West Western culture has limited what we can believe and receive Can we Burst free from this restrictive secular framework Learn not only to know truth but to feel it and live it Live our faith in such a way that it becomes real to those around us Alison Morgan shows that Jesus lived free from the culturally imposed norms which restrict our understanding of truth Examining church history prophecy past and present the state of our culture and of the church today and drawing on personal experience and the experience of others Alison blends analysis and imagination history and poetry in this prophetic challenge to Western Christians Healthcare Ministry Gerald A. Arbuckle, 2000 Healthcare Ministry From Chaos To Mission Gerald A. Arbuckle, 1996-01-10 Formation is a rite of passage or initiation ritual This book draws on the findings of social anthropological studies of initiation rituals and contemporary biblical studies of rites of passage Since initiation rituals are of critical importance in the life journeys of individuals and groups the book's central theme is relevant to educationalists and ritual leaders in the Church and secular society Most religious congregations founded since the thirteenth century were formed for prophetic ministry to a world in change yet for centuries before Vatican II their candidates were rarely trained explicitly for this task Through years of quasi indoctrination and voluntary incarceration they were taught in a monastic atmosphere of unchanging order that the world was evil and to be avoided Conformity to a theological ecclesiastical and pastoral status quo was the most esteemed value in a candidate This emphasis was contrary to the very nature of active religious life Religious must be prophetic challengers of the status quo within the Church and society Training for membership in active religious congregations therefore must now be radically reformed but there are no road maps available to direct educationalists in developing programmes that would stimulate candidates to be radically creative in ministry From Chaos to Mission creates a framework for radical thinking and practical action about the critical issue of formation of religious for mission today The Community of the Weak

Hans-Peter Geiser,2013-03-28 Social postmodernism and systematic theology can be considered the new pair in some of the most creative discussions on the future of theological method on a global scale Both in the academy and in the public square as well as in the manifold local and pastoral moments of ministry and community social activism the social the postmodern and the theological intermingle in engaging and border crossing ways The Community of the Weak presents a new kind of jazzy fundamental theology with a postmodern touch using jazz as a metaphor writing ethnographically messy texts out of the personal windows of lived experiences combining fragments of autobiography with theological reconstruction A comparative perspective on North American and European developments in contemporary systematic theology serves as a hermeneutical horizon to juxtapose two continents in their very different contexts The author proposes a systematic and fundamental theology that is more jazzy global and narrative deeply embedded in pastoral ministry to tell its postmodern story

Introducing Christian Mission Today Michael W. Goheen,2014-07-14 Michael Goheen gives us a full scale introduction to mission studies today in its biblical theological and historical dimensions Goheen covers the full horizon of major issues in mission including its global urban and holistic contexts This text shows how the missional church encounters the pluralism of Western culture and global religions

Living at the Crossroads Michael W. Goheen,Craig G. Bartholomew,2008-11 An ideal introduction to thoughtful Christian engagement at the intersection of the biblical story and the contemporary world

Clashing Symbols Michael Paul Gallagher,2004-01-05 This new edition provides a guide to the relationship between faith and culture Providing an introduction to all the major figures issues and debates this guide is useful for students and those wishing to unlock the realities of contemporary culture

Lesslie Newbigin Geoffrey Wainwright,2000-10-19 This book offers an intellectual and spiritual biography of Lesslie Newbigin a figure of patristic proportions in the twentieth century history of the Church Drawing on thirty five years of personal and literary acquaintance with his subject and on a thorough examination of the Newbigin archives Geoffrey Wainwright crafts a rich and varied portrait of this outstanding witness to the Gospel

Telling the Story Andrew G. Walker,2004-12-03 There is a story once widely known that tells us who we are where we came from and where we are going This story is told by Christians and it is called the gospel the good news of the kingdom of God as revealed in the birth life death and resurrection of Jesus of Nazareth Today the story has become one story among many Andrew Walker argues for its recovery and a retelling appropriate for our postmodern culture so that it may again become a story to share and a message of hope for the world

ThirdWay ,1995-03 Monthly current affairs magazine from a Christian perspective with a focus on politics society economics and culture

England, Ireland, Scotland, Wales Keith Robbins,2008-09-05 Keith Robbins building on his previous writing on the modern history of the interlocking but distinctive territories of the British Isles takes a wide ranging innovative and challenging look at the twentieth century history of the main bodies at once national and universal which have collectively constituted the Christian Church The protracted search for elusive unity is emphasized Particular beliefs attitudes policies and structures are located in their social and cultural contexts Prominent individuals clerical and lay are scrutinized Religion and politics intermingle highlighting for churches and states fundamental questions of identity and allegiance of public and private values in a century of ideological conflict violent confrontation in Ireland two world wars and protracted Cold War The massive change experienced by the countries and people of the Isles since 1900 has encompassed shifting relationships between England Ireland and Northern Ireland Scotland and Wales the end of the British Empire the emergence of a new Europe and latterly major immigration of adherents of Islam Hinduism Sikhism and other faiths from outside Europe developments scarcely conceivable at the outset Such a broad contextual perspective provides an essential background to understanding the puzzling ambiguities evident both in secularization and enduring Christian faith Robbins provides a cogent and compelling overview of this turbulent century for the churches of the Isles Studies ,1995 An Irish quarterly review A History of the Ecumenical Movement: 1968-2000 Ruth Rouse,Stephen Neill,Harold Edward Fey,1986 Out of the Saltshaker and Into the World Rebecca Manley Pippert,2021-01-19 Jesus says his followers are the salt of the earth But how do we cut through fear and guilt to communicate our faith effectively Now part of the IVP Signature Collection this bestselling classic by Rebecca Manley Pippert offers a refreshing view of evangelism as a lifestyle pointing to Jesus as our model and helping us feel relaxed and enthusiastic about sharing the good news Theology ,1996 The Gospel and the Mind Bradley G. Green,2010 By establishing central themes of the West s Christian inheritance as the basis of the intellectual life Green demonstrates that the recovery of the life of the mind depends upon a recovery of the gospel Whitaker's Books in Print ,1998 Do You See What I See? Jay S. Southwick,2000
