William Rosenau

Resurrecting Salvador:

Resurrecting Salvador Jeremy Dronfield, 1999 Jeremy Dronfield's second dazzling psychological thriller explores the roots of love, madness and obsession through the story of a tormented musical genius and the bizarre aristocratic family that made him. Set in an eerie ruined chateau in the south of France and its ghostly simulacrum on the wastes of Dartmoor, this is a Gothic tale for the 1990s, a modern day story of the living, the dead and those in between. Subversion and Insurgency William Rosenau, 2007-03-06 Subversion is a critical insurgent tool, but it has long been ignored by policymakers and analysts. This paper presents a set of case studies to explore the elements of subversion and discusses preliminary ideas for combating subversive activities in the context of the long war against violent Islamic extremism. Augmented Images Lars C. Grabbe, Patrick Rupert-Kruse, Norbert M. Schmitz, 2022-09-07 Common boundaries between the physical reality and rising digital media technologies are fading. The age of hyper reality becomes an age of hyper aesthetics. Immersive media and image technologies like augmented reality enable a completely novel form of interaction and corporeal relation to and with the virtual image structures and the different screen technologies. Augmented Images contributes to the wide range of the hyper aesthetic image discourse to connect the concept of dynamic augmented images with the approaches in modern media theory, philosophy, perceptual theory, aesthetics, computer graphics and art theory, as well as the complex range of image science. This volume monitors and discusses the relation of images and technological evolution in the context of augmented reality within the perspective of an autonomous image science. An Anthropology of War Alisse Waterston, 2009 The contributors reflect on their ethnographic work at the frontlines and recount not only what they have seen and heard in war zones but also what is being read, studied, analyzed and remembered in such diverse locations as Colombia and Guatemala, Israel and Palestine, Iraq, Afghanistan and Haiti. They reflect on the important issue of accountability and offer explanations to discern causes, patterns and practices of war. Militarization and Demilitarization in El Salvador's Transition to Democracy Philip J. Williams, Knut Walter, 1997-12-15 With the resignation of General Renee Emilio Ponce in March 1993, the Salvadorian army's sixty-year domination of El Salvador came to an end. The country's January 1992 peace accords stripped the military of the power it once enjoyed, placing many areas under civilian rule. Establishing civilian control during the transition to democracy was no easy task, especially for a country that had never experienced even a brief period of democracy in its history. In Militarization and Demilitarization in El Salvador's Transition to Democracy, Phillip J. Williams and Knut Walter argue that prolonged military rule produced powerful obstacles that limited the possibilities for demilitarization in the wake of the peace accords. The failure of the accords to address several key aspects of the military's political power had important implications for the democratic transition and for future civil-military relations. Drawing on an impressive array of primary source materials and interviews, this book will be valuable to students, scholars and policy makers concerned with civil-military relations, democratic transitions and the peace process in Central America. The MIPT Terrorism

Annual National Memorial Institute for the Prevention of Terrorism, 2006      Latinos Marcelo M. Suárez-Orozco, Mariela Páez, 2008 Latinos brings together the most sophisticated thinking on the changing intellectual complexion of America Henry Louis Gates Jr author of Thirteen Ways of Looking at a Black Man      Beyond Mexico Jean Daudelin, Dosman, 1995-03-15 As a result of the North American Free Trade Agreement Canada's relations with Mexico and Latin America have reached a turning point both politically and economically Beyond Mexico is a timely assessment of the dynamic state and the prospects of Canada's relations with Latin America Every day trade developments under NAFTA are redefining political economic and social connections between Canada Mexico and the United States In this well documented policy relevant and eminently accessible study specialists address the challenges raised by non governmental organizations security and human rights issues inter municipal exchange programs Canada's membership in the Organization of American States and by successive crises in Haiti This collection looks beyond NAFTA to explore the range and realities of Canada's involvement in the entire hemisphere      Martyrdom and the Politics of Religion Anna L. Peterson, 1997-01-01 Martyrdom and the Politics of Religion explores the ways that Salvadoran Catholics sought to make sense of political violence in their country in the 1970s and 1980s by constructing a theological ethics that could both explain repression in religious terms and propose specific responses to violence Drawing on extensive fieldwork the book highlights the ways that progressive Catholicism offered a justification and tools for political resistance in the face of extraordinary destruction Using the case of Catholicism in El Salvador the book explores the nature of religious responses to social crisis and the ways that ordinary believers construct and strive to live by ethical systems By highlighting the importance of theological belief of narrative and of religious rationality in political mobilization it touches questions of general interest to readers concerned with the social role of religion and ethics      Redeeming Our Sacred Story Mary C. Boys, 2013 Stories of Jesus passion and death lie at the core of Christian identity They offer an encounter with his experience of the human condition betrayals by those closest to him his own fear of death uncertainty about God's will and the endurance of terrible suffering and an ignominious death From generation to generation these stories have functioned in sacred and saving ways for Christians Yet misinterpretations of the passion narratives have rationalized hostility to and violence against Jews as Christ killers This sacrilegious telling cries out for redemption Redeeming Christianity's sacred story requires respect even awe for its power demands rigorous examination of the history between Jews and Christians and the ethical obligation to be altered by this history and entails pursuing solid biblical scholarship principles for reinterpreting troubling texts and incorporation into Christian spirituality Redeeming Our Sacred Story challenges us to forge more just relations between Jews and Christians It witnesses to the world that reconciliation is possible Back cover      Spirituality and Liberation Robert McAfee Brown, 1988-01-01 Argues that there should not be a separation between spiritual and temporal concerns looks at liberation theology and discusses spirituality and sexuality      Challenge , 1997      State Terror and Popular Resistance in El Salvador Michael McClintock, 1985

Laboring in the Shadow of Empire Celeste Vaughan Curington,2024-09-13 Laboring in the Shadow of Empire Race Gender and Care Work in Portugal examines the everyday lives of an African descendant care service workforce that labors in an ostensibly anti racial Europe and against the backdrop of the Portuguese colonial empire While much of the literature on global care work has focused on Asian and Latine migrant care workers there is comparatively less research that explicitly examines African care workers and their migration histories to Europe Sociologist Celeste Vaughan Curington focuses on Portugal a European setting with comparatively liberal policies around family settlement and naturalization for migrants In this setting rapid urbanization in the late twentieth century along with a national push to reconcile work and family has shaped the growth of paid home care and cleaning service industries Many researchers focus on informal work settings where immigrant rights are restricted and many workers are undocumented or without permanent residence status Curington instead examines workers who have accessed citizenship or permanent residence status and also explores African women's experiences laboring in care and service industries in the formal market revealing how deeply colonial and intersectional logics of a racialized and international division of reproductive labor in Portugal render these women hyper invisible and hyper visible as appropriate workers in Lisbon

Promoting Democracy Manal A. Jamal,2019-08-20 How Western donor assistance can both help and undermine democracy in different parts of the world Democracy promotion is a central pillar of the foreign policy of many states but the results are often disappointing In Promoting Democracy Manal A Jamal examines why these efforts succeed in some countries but fail in others A former journalist and researcher in the Palestinian territories she offers an up close perspective of the ways in which Western donor funding has on one hand undermined political participation in cases such as the Palestinian territories and on the other hand succeeded in bolstering political engagement in cases such as El Salvador Based on five fieldwork trips and over 150 interviews with grassroots activists political leaders and directors and program officers in donor agencies and NGOs Jamal brings into focus an often overlooked perspective the experiences of those directly affected by this assistance Promoting Democracy makes an important and timely argument about how political settlements ultimately shape democracy promotion efforts and what political choices Western state sponsored donors can make to maximize successful outcomes in different contexts across the world      From the Inside Out Ryan Kuja, 2018-05-22 For the sake of the world we question For the sake of the gospel we examine For the sake of the dignity of the image bearers we serve as well as ourselves we inquire The evolution that has taken place in the world of mission over the last twenty five years has left many Christians asking brutally honest questions about what we do and why we do it Are we doing more damage than good What does it look like to truly love and serve the marginalized in an authentic and effective way What actually is the gospel and is it truly good news In this groundbreaking book Ryan Kuja vividly examines the world of Christian mission as few have seen it With a beautiful balance of storytelling and theological reflection birthed from his own painful and powerful experiences on and off the field from rural villages in South Sudan to major cities across Asia Africa and Latin America Ryan guides us into global mission s past and present revealing where the light and hope lie helping recover a missional future that will usher us into a new era This is mission reimagined for a world recreated from the inside out
