Writing Wounds Kathryn Robson, 2022-05-20 In the last decade the question of how trauma is remembered and narrated has become increasingly crucial in literary studies and in psychotherapy Writing Wounds rethinks the relation between trauma memory and narrative through readings of key fictional autobiographical and autofictional texts by recent French women writers Marie Cardinal Chantal Chawaf Hélène Cixous Charlotte Delbo Batrice de Jurquet and Sarah Kofman By drawing on and also interrogating recent theories of trauma this study shows that trauma is inscribed in writing through recurring images of the body and of bodily wounding that mark the limits and possibilities of narrativisation This book has a double aim to offer new readings of texts by modern French women writers and to rethink the crucial question of how narratives of trauma are to be read Writing Wounds will be of interest to researchers working on trauma modern French literature women's writing or life writing as well as to a range of undergraduate and postgraduate courses on trauma and narrative Retable ; [La rêverie] Chantal Chawaf, 1974 Women's writing in contemporary France Gill Rye, Michael Worton, 2018-07-30 This electronic version has been made available under a Creative Commons BY NC ND open access license The 1990s witnessed an explosion in women's writing in France with a particularly exciting new generation of writers coming to the fore such as Christine Angot Marie Darrieussecq and Régine Detambel Other authors such as Paule Constant Sylvie Germain Marie Redonnet and Leïla Sebbar who had begun publishing in the 1980s claimed their mainstream status in the 1990s with new texts The book provides an up to date introduction to an analysis of new women's writing in contemporary France including both new writers of the 1990s and their more established counterparts The editors' incisive introduction situates these authors and their texts at the centre of the current trends and issues concerning French literary production today whilst fifteen original essays focus on individual writers The volume includes specialist bibliographies on each writer incorporating English translations major interviews and key critical studies Quotations are given in both French and English throughout An invaluable study resource this book is written in a clear and accessible style and will be of interest to the general reader as well as to students of all levels to teachers of a wide range of courses on French culture and to specialist researchers of French and Francophone literature Writing Mothers and Daughters Adalgisa Giorgio, 2002 The psychoanalytic discovery of the importance of the preoedipal mother daughter bond in the 1970s had an important impact on feminist literature This book offers a systematic study of this theme in western European fiction Make Sense who May Robin J. Liberty, Equality, Maternity Alison Fell, 2017-12-02 The concept of motherhood emerges strongly in the writings of Simone de Beauvoir Violette Leduc and Annie Ernaux whose work is examined here in the light of current debates about women's reproductive function and the longstanding glorification of the mere au foyer in France driven by fear of a falling population In this interdisciplinary study of twentieth century French women's writing Fell uncovers tensions at the heart of the literary critique She shows these authors challenging the patriarchal view of motherhood as the sole justification for a woman's existence while at the same time confronting the conflict inherent in their relationship with their own mothers A survey of theoretical and historical material demonstrates vividly that the changing concept of motherhood remains a problematic and highly contentious issue for French feminists whether writing in 1940 or 1999
