Rethinking the Youth Question Phil Cohen, 2016-02-06 Bringing together material written over the past two decades this book traces a history of political and intellectual debates around central issues of education labour and the youth question An argument is made for linking the cultural structural and autobiographical dimensions of the youth question in order to engage educationally with the burden of representation which young people are made to carry via race class and sexuality in the postmodern world The book includes three major unpublished pieces and an introduction which discusses the nature of the collection and sets it in both a personal and political context Resources in Education ,1997 Forthcoming

Books Rose Arny,1993-12 Rethinking Education Philip S. Gang,1989-12-01 Informatik für den Umweltschutz Werner Pillmann,Andreas Jaeschke,2013-03-08 Mit dem vorliegenden Tagungsband wird der aktuelle Stand der Informatikanwendungen für Zwecke des Umweltschutzes dokumentiert Damit wird ein Einblick in die Möglichkeiten gegeben auf deren Grundlage Systemzusammenhänge erkannt Prognosen erstellt und geeignete Maßnahmen zur Minderung der Umweltbelastung entwickelt werden können Die Tagungsbeiträge bieten vielfältige Hinweise zur Planung und Realisierung von Systemen zur Umweltdatenverarbeitung Sie enthalten sowohl Anregungen und Ideen als auch Beschreibungen praktisch realisierter Systeme Für die mit Umweltschutzaufgaben Beschäftigten aus der Verwaltung der Industrie den in wissenschaftlichen Einrichtungen tätigen Personen und anderen an Umweltfragen Interessierten besteht damit eine umfangreiche Materialsammlung Ein Sachbereich der aus der Umweltschutzproblematik nicht auszuklammern ist wird erstmalig in einem eigenen Kapitel behandelt Es ist dies die Diskussion der Möglichkeiten Wirkungen Risiken und Grenzen der Informationsverarbeitung Zur Schaffung eines aktuellen Überblicks wurde in den Tagungsband das Tutorial über Expertensysteme im Umweltschutz mit aufgenommen Paperbound Books in Print ,1992 Finding the Way Home Nora Räthzel,2007-12-12 These two parallel studies in Hamburg and London aim to provide an insight into the different ways in which young people with and without a migrant background live their everyday lives together The book demonstrates how friendships tensions and sometimes adversities are negotiated It shows how young people construct landscapes of risk and safety and how relations of ethnicity class and gender are lived differently in different socio spatial contexts In some situations young people develop enjoyable ways of living with differences in others they live with tensions and conflicts These may be experienced through notions of ethnicity but sometimes through feelings of belonging to places and or specific youth cultures which transcend ethnic differences more often than class differences Postfeminist Education? Jessica Ringrose,2012-08-21 This book challenges a contemporary postfeminist sensibility grounded not only in assumptions that gender and sexual equality has been achieved in many Western contexts but that feminism has gone too far with women and girls now overtaking men and boys positioned as the new victims of gender transformations The book is the first to outline and critique how educational discourses have directly fed into postfeminist anxieties exploring three postfeminist panics over girls and girlhood that circulate widely in the international media and popular culture First it explores how a masculinity crisis over failing boys in school has spawned a backlash discourse about overly successful girls second it looks at how widespread anxieties over girls becoming excessively mean and or violent have positioned female aggression as pathological third it examines how incessant concerns over controlling risky female sexuality underpin recent sexualisation of girls moral panics The book outlines how these postfeminist panics over girlhood have influenced educational policies and practices in areas such as academic achievement anti bullying strategies and sex education curriculum making visible the new postfeminist sexual politics of schooling Moving beyond media or policy critique however this book offers new theoretical and methodological tools for researching postfeminism girlhood and education It engages with current theoretical debates over possibilities for girls agency and empowerment in postfeminist neo liberal contexts of sexual regulation It also elaborates new psychosocial and feminist Deleuzian methodological approaches for mapping subjectivity affectivity and social change Drawing on two UK empirical research projects exploring teen aged girls own perspectives and responses to postfeminist panics the book shows how real girls are actually negotiating notions of girls as overly successful mean violent aggressive and sexual The data offers rich insight into girls gendered raced and classed experiences at school and beyond exploring teen peer cultures friendship offline and online sexual identities and bullying and cyberbullying The analysis illuminates how and when girls take up and identify with postfeminist trends but also at times attempt to re work challenge and critique the contradictory discourses of girlhood and femininity In this sense the book offers an opportunity for girls to talk back to the often simplistic either wildly celebratory or crisis based sensationalism of postfeminist panics over girlhood This book will be essential reading for those interested in feminism girlhood media studies gender and education

The Schoolhome Jane MARTIN, Jane Roland Martin, 2009-06-30 A century ago John Dewey remarked that when home changes radically school must change as well With home family and gender roles dramatically altered in recent years we are faced with a difficult problem in the lives of more and more American children no one is home The Schoolhome proposes a solution Drawing selectively from reform movements of the past and relating them to the unique needs of today s parents and children Jane Martin presents a philosophy of education that is responsive to America s changed and changing realities As more and more parents enter the workforce the historic role of the domestic sphere in the education and development of children is drastically reduced Consequently Martin advocates removing the barriers between the school and the home making school a metaphorical home a safe and nurturant environment that provides children with the experience of affection and connection otherwise missing or inconsistent in their lives In this proposition the traditional schoolhouse where children are drilled in the three Rs is transformed into a schoolhome where learning is animated by an ethic of social awareness At a time when many school reformers are calling for a return to basics and lobbying for skills education and quick fix initiatives Martin urges us to reconsider the distinctive legacies of Dewey and Montessori and to conceive of a school that integrates the values of the home with those of social responsibility With cultural diversity and gender equality among its explicit goals the schoolhome expands upon Dewey s edict to educate the whole child seeking instead to educate all children in the culture s whole heritage Martin eloquently challenges reformers to reclaim the founding fathers vision of the nation as a domestic realm and to imagine a learning environment whose curriculum and classroom practice reflect not merely an economic but a moral investment in the future of our children More than a summons to action this remarkable book is a call to rethink the assumptions we bring to the educational enterprise and so to act wisely Scribes and Scribalism Mark Leuchter, 2020-11-12 This volume is a concentrated examination of the varied roles of scribes and scribal practices in ancient Israel and Judah shedding light on the social world of the Hebrew Bible Divided into discussion of three key aspects the book begins by assessing praxis and materiality looking at the tools and materials used by scribes where they came from and how they worked in specific contexts The contributors then move to observe the power and status of scribal cultures and how scribes functioned within their broader social world Finally the volume offers perspectives that examine ideological issues at play in both antiquity and the modern context s of biblical scholarship Taken together these essays demonstrate that no text is produced in a void and no writer functions without a network of resources Booklist Books, a Selection American Library Association, 1922 The Everyday World As Problematic Dorothy E. Smith, 2012-01-15 In this collection of essays sociologist Dorothy E Smith develops a method for analyzing how women and men view contemporary society from specific gendered points of view She shows how social relations and the theories that describe them must express the concrete historical and geographical details of everyday lives A vital sociology from the standpoint of women the volume is applicable to a variety of subjects and will be especially useful in courses in sociological theory and methods Alternative Press Index, 2004
