Rethinking Multicultural Education Case Studies In Cultural Transition:

Rethinking Multicultural Education Carol Korn-Bursztyn, Alberto M. Bursztyn Ph.D., 2002-03-30 Korn and Bursztyn and their contributors examine the cultural transitions that children make as they move between the cultures of home and school To better understand these transitions they explore how educators understand their students shifting experiences and examine how educators also negotiate transitions as they too move from home to school each day The narratives or case studies reflect this shifting gaze from child to teacher to parents and take up the various relational configurations that these can form amongst and between each other They turn a critical eye toward instances of classroom practice and school life connecting personal knowledge with school change In some cases the authors draw directly on autobiographical material linking these to a reflective approach to teaching Avoiding the celebratory tone that often attends discussions of multiculturalism the authors address how diversity engages us in continual renegotiation of the personal and social The perspectives of educators and of teacher candidates are presented and the construction of cultural identity and its impact on schools explored In illuminating the complicated nature of cultural transitions and the obligation of schools to create places in which children and families of diverse backgrounds can thrive they highlight how multiculturalism can play a transformative role in the lives of children and schools A must reading for educators and graduate students in education school psychology guidance and counseling

Multicultural Education in Glocal Perspectives Yun-Kyung Cha, Jagdish Gundara, Seung-Hwan Ham, Moosung Lee, 2016-11-15 This conceptually rich and empirically grounded book draws upon expertise from a panel of emerging and established international scholars to explore the institutionalization and effect of multicultural education on a global scale Previous studies of multicultural education have largely ignored the significance of understanding the combination of multiple sociopolitical influences on multicultural education in both policy and practice Filling this void this book sheds light on the two main reasons for taking a glocal perspective on multicultural education First children should be provided with meaningful learning opportunities to acquire the knowledge skills and attitudes necessary to live in a culturally and ethno linguistically diverse society where the distinction between the local and the global is becoming blurred Second understanding both the global grammar and the local semantics of multicultural education helps researchers and policy makers grasp the whole picture of multicultural education as an evolving social construct and phenomenon This new book provokes a new round of discussion and research to expand and enrich our inquiry into cultural diversity and educational inclusion Cross-disciplinary Views on Migration Diversity Trinidad L. Vicente, María Luisa Setién, 2008 This book on International Migrations aims to show the diversity of topics and problematics contained within immigration revealing certain situations that make the migratory phenomenon more comprehensible The text collects the work experience of some members of the Research Unit on International Migrations of the University of Deusto The Native Speaker Concept Neriko Musha Doerr, 2009-12-22 The native speaker is often thought of as an ideal language user with a complete and possibly innate competence in the language which is perceived as being bounded and fixed to a homogeneous speech community and linked to a nation state Despite recent works that challenge its empirical accuracy and theoretical utility the notion of the native speaker is still prevalent today The Native Speaker Concept shifts the analytical focus from the second language acquisition processes and teaching practices to daily interactions situated in wider sociocultural and political contexts marked by increased global movements of people and multilingual situations Using an ethnographic approach the volume critically elucidates the political nature of not claiming the native speaker status in daily life and the ways the ideology of native speaker intersects and articulates supports subverts or complicates various relations of dominance and regimes of standardization The book offers cases from diverse settings including classrooms in Japan a coffee shop in

Barcelona secondary schools in South Africa a backyard in Rapa Nui Easter Island restaurant kitchens a high school administrator's office a college classroom in the United States and the Internet It also offers a genealogy of the notion of the native speaker from the time of the Roman Empire Employing linguistic anthropological and educational theories the volume speaks not only to the analyses of language use and language policy planning and teaching but also to the investigation of wider effects of language ideology on relations of dominance and institutional and discursive practices

Encyclopedia of Race and Ethnic Studies Ellis Cashmore, 2004-03 The book comprises essays each highlighting a particular word or term germane to the study of race and ethnic studies
