Douglas Hammack, 2014-01-13 If it ain't broke don't fix it But it's no secret that the Christian church is broke and does need fixing Despite great effort things are going badly for us We've tried trendy and tech savvy entrepreneurial and coffee house gritty They're not helping Our problem is deeper than that Our problem is our instincts instincts informed by our story There was a time when the Christian church was a powerfully transformative presence in society It can be again but it will require radical rethinking of the story that informs our instincts And it's time It's been five hundred years since the Reformation our last major update Today is a pivotal moment in history With our worldview upended by quantum physics history is demanding we renew the Christian story for our times Rethinking Our Story reframes the elements of the Christian narrative for the new era It explores quantum ways of thinking about God human nature Jesus salvation and the afterlife The future of the church and the health of our society depend on our willingness to rethink retell and live out a better story We will either update our instincts and contribute to the earth's well being or disappear into oblivion Rethinking Our World Philip Higgs, J. Smith, 2004-05 The Oxford Handbook of Ecocriticism Greg Garrard, 2014 The Oxford Handbook of Ecocriticism provides a broad survey of the longstanding relationship between literature and the environment The moment for such an offering is opportune in many respects multiple environmental crises are increasingly inescapable at both transnational and local levels the role of the humanities in addition to technology and politics is increasingly recognized as central for exploring and finding solutions and the subject of ecocriticism has reached a kind of critical mass both within its Anglo American heartlands and beyond From its origins in the study of American Nature Writing and British Romanticism ecocriticism has developed along numerous theoretical historical cultural and geographical axes the most contemporary and exciting of which will be represented in the Handbook The contributors include eminent founders of the field including Cheryll Glotfelty and Jonathan Bate a number of key second wave ecocritics and the best up and coming scholars Topics covered include Green Shakespeare the Bard's subversive uses of the pastoral John Clare's sacred relationship with the land Thoreau's profound political passion the natural landscape as symbol of postcolonial resistance in works by Lessing Naipaul and Coetzee the relation between feminism and environmentalism language and the concept of biosemiotics and concerns over pollution and toxicity in films like Erin Brockovitch Michael Clayton and Al Gore's An Inconvenient Truth Rethinking Our World Maja Göpel, 2023-05-11 A radical vision for a better future an economy that works for us rather than the other way around Our world is at a tipping point and we feel it every day Costs are rising the gap between the rich and poor is increasing natural resources are depleted and the effects of climate change are starting to take hold We are under increasing social and environmental stress But as leading economist Maja G pel argues here there is another path forward She invites us to imagine what we want our future to look like and offers solutions that will help us to get there It s time to question our principles set new goals and re evaluate our priorities Time to rethink our world and find new ways of living that don t drain our planet any further We need a fair distribution of wealth and a way to reconcile the social with the ecological We need to work smarter not harder Critical yet full of encouragement Maja G pel chooses surprising and enlightening examples to illustrate how we can leave behind our familiar ways of living to achieve a better future

the contemporary world It examines relations between educational discourses and their implied ontological stances and offers new ways of thinking that draw on ontological positions from psychoanalytical philosophical and social discourses The book contends that education is an essential form of politics and must be understood through a careful examination of its history modes of operation and its basic structures rather than an idealized version of what it might be Presenting an original and alternative account of a theoretically informed political ontology of education the book will be of great interest to academics researchers and postgraduate students interested in the philosophy of education the politics of education educational theory and the sociology of education

Atheism and Love in the Modern Era Colby Dickinson,2025-04-17 Discussing the decline of faith and the rise of love in the modern era Colby Dickinson proposes a critique of religious belief which addresses how a secular world can continue to mine religious traditions for their conceptual and emotional riches Atheism and Love in the Modern Era argues that theism and atheism taken together can peel back the layers of abstraction alienation and disillusionment that always accompany our humanity in order to help us really see how it is to exist in this world To illuminate this vision Dickinson takes up the notion of love as a cultivation and practice of indifference as a letting go of one's identity a crucial concept that unites both religion and atheism through a concerted effort to detach from them both The book is organized into four sections each situating the concept of love in relation to a distinct theme the first outlines modern secularized versions of various religious concepts such as technology in the place of miracles or art in the place of religious revelation The second argues that in a pluralistic world the actual lived realities of various religious communities and persons defy the static categories and classifications grouped under the umbrella of religion The third section discusses and defines non absolute love The fourth section discusses how atheism in its critiques of religion misses the significance of de centring the act of love Dickinson elaborates his reflections through lucid engagement with a variety of thinkers including i ek Agamben Irigaray Derrida Erich Fromm Charles Taylor and Philip Kitcher This is essential reading for those interested in popular debates around theism and atheism as well as those concerned with the ways in which continental and analytic philosophy have addressed the continued significance of religious traditions

Earth Revealing; Earth Healing Denis Edwards, 2015-05-15. The damage human beings are doing to the atmosphere the seas the rivers the land and the life forms of the planet is extreme and deadly. It constitutes a crisis that demands all of humanity's wisdom ingenuity and commitment. The whole human community needs to be involved in the response to this crisis young and old women and men farmers politicians gardeners teachers planners scientists engineers artists builders cooks and theologians. In Earth Revealing Earth Healing the authors attempt to make clear the way in which Christian theology opens out into a theology of Earth revealing and challenges us towards a practice of Earth healing. Earth Revealing Earth Healing offers a rethinking of theology as a significant part of the rethinking that the human community must do in its stance toward creation. Aware that some theological attitudes have contributed to exploitative attitudes and to disregard for the good of the planet the contributors are also convinced that the biblical and theological tradition has resources that can be retrieved and developed as an ecological theology. Such a theology can contribute to the healing of our planet. The chapters of Earth Revealing Earth Healing stretch across a number of theological sub-disciplines and related areas. Among the perspectives from the Christian theological tradition there are reflections on the theology of the Trinity Christology Christian anthropology the theology of the Holy Spirit and contemporary feminist theology. There are also more general philosophical and cultural perspectives including discussions of place and of landscape traditions. Finally there are practical perspectives including discussions of globalization the challenge of suffering and bioethics. Essays and contributors are: The Landscape Tradition A Broader Vision for Ecotheology by Stephen Downs; Globalization and Ecology by Christine Burke; IBVM For Your Immortal Spirit Is in All Things The Holy Spirit in Creation by Denis Edwards; Enfleshing the Human An Earth Revealing Earth Healing Christology by Duncan Reid; God's Shattering
