Rethinking Caribbean Difference P. Mohammed, 1998 Rethinking Caribbean Difference explores the effects of race and ethnicity class and linguistic variation on gender issues and gender ideologies in the Caribbean The papers in this issue include Women's Organizations and Movements in Commonwealth Caribbean In Search of our Memory Gender in the Netherlands Antilles Gendered Testimonies Autobiographies Diaries and Letters by Women in Caribbean History Gender Systems and the Project of Modernity in the Post colonial Caribbean Is There an International Feminism Shattering Developmentalist Illusions Challenges for the Feminist Movement in Puerto Rico Gender and International Relations Issues for the Caribbean Masculinity and the Dance of the Dragon Reading Lovelace Discursively Decolonizing the Academy

Carole Boyce Davies, Meredith Gadsby, Charles F. Peterson, Henrietta Williams, 2003 Decolonizing the Academy asserts that the academy is perhaps the most colonized space At the same time the academy is a place of knowledge and transformation As we move into the 21st century it is becoming clear that the academy is one of the primary sites for the production and reproduction of ideas that serve the interests of colonising powers This collection of essays argues the possibility of re-engaging the decolonizing process at the level of knowledge and asserts that this is an ongoing project worthy of being undertaken in a variety of fields Indentured and Post-Indentured Experiences of Women in the Indian Diaspora Amba

Pande, 2020-01-03 This book describes the processes of migration and settlement of indentured Indian women and tries to map their struggles challenges and agencies It highlights the fact that even though indentured women faced various kinds of violence and abuse owing to the authoritarian and patriarchal setup of the plantations over a period of time they managed to turn the adverse circumstances to their advantage They struggled to emerge as productive workforces and empowered themselves through acquiring education and skill and negotiating new spaces and identities for themselves At the same time they also raised families in often inhospitable circumstances passing on to their descendants a strong foundation to build successful lives for themselves The book discusses indentured women from a multidisciplinary perspective and adopts multiple methodologies including primary and secondary sources personal narrations pictorial representations and theoretical discussions It also provides an overview of the current discourses and the changing paradigms of the studies on Indian indentured women Further it presents a detailed region wise description of indentured women migrants The regions covered in this book are Asia Pacific countries covered are Fiji Burma and Nepal Africa countries covered are South Africa Mauritius and Reunion Island and the Caribbean countries covered are Suriname Trinidad and Tobago In addition one full section of the book is devoted to the theoretical frameworks that touch upon gender performativity normative misogyny Bahadur's Coolie Women literary representations and resistance movements It is intended for academics and researches in the field of diaspora migration transnational studies history sociology literature women gender studies as well as policymakers and general readers interested in the personal experiences of women and migrants Sex and the Citizen

Faith L. Smith, 2011-04-29 Sex and the Citizen is a multidisciplinary collection of essays that draws on current anxieties about legitimate sexual identities and practices across the Caribbean to explore both the impact of globalization and the legacy of the region's history of sexual exploitation during colonialism slavery and indentureship Speaking from within but also challenging the assumptions of feminism literary and cultural studies and queer studies this volume questions prevailing oppositions between the backward homophobic nation state and the laid back service with a smile paradise or between giving in ignominiously to the autocratic demands of the global north and equating postcolonial sovereignty with a wholesome heterosexual citizenry The contributors use parliamentary legislation novels film and other texts to examine Martinique's relationship to France the diasporic relationships between the Dominican Republic and New York City between India and Trinidad and between Mexico's capital city and its Caribbean coast indigenous names for sexual practices and desires in Suriname and the Eastern Caribbean and other topics This volume will appeal to readers interested in how sex has become an important register for considerations of citizenship personal and political autonomy and identity in the Caribbean and the global south Contributors Vanessa Agard Jones Odile Cazenave Michelle Cliff Susan Dayal Alison Donnell Donette Francis Carmen Gillespie Rosamond S King Antonia MacDonald Smythe Tejaswini Niranjana Evelyn O Callaghan Tracy Robinson Patricia Saunders Yasmin Tambiah Omise eke Natasha Tinsley Rinaldo Walcott M S Worrell Sociology Today Arnaud Sales, 2012-08-16 We are living in a turbulent world marked by fast continuous social changes that affect the lives of individuals families communities organizations businesses nation states and international networks This fundamentally commits contemporary sociology to being a science of change This collection effectively mirrors this diversity and variety of transformations underway in today's societies and transnational spaces Written by a group of internationally renowned sociologists it offers a cutting edge understanding of what is happening in our life worlds work lives and frames of social existence Bringing up issues such as political turbulence cultural and artistic dynamics family changes gender roles migration flows and social movements it is a timely contribution that discusses transformation and globalization and their consequences in both theoretical and substantive terms Illuminating and comprehensive this book will be of immense use for sociology students on all levels as well as lecturers researchers and others who are interested in social life and the consequences of human action Arnaud Sales is Emeritus Professor of Sociology at the University of Montreal Canada

Blood, Bullets And Bodies Imani M. Tafari-Ama, 2017-06-11 Fifth Edition The true story of Blood Bullets and Bodies a critical multimedia expos about the factors subverting the political will to act in the best interest of the poor even when explicit just cause exists for such altruistic action to take place Blood Bullets and Bodies is a strange and paradoxical story that needs to be read as much as it needs to be told It is a riveting story of sex violence political intrigue and survival by any means necessary The book is a literary mirror that provides a revealing and frightening reflection for a self destructing society to see itself profiled in the throes of its own possible demise Sure to stir controversy the new book contains a compelling rendition of the historical circumstances that have made crime and violence bullets blood and dead bodies the number one problem in late 20th and early 21st century Jamaica Despite the historic One Love Peace Concert and the Peace Truce in 1978 young gunmen seem to have gone wild ever since Using a variety of sophisticated methodological tools including literary sources oral interviews ethnographic studies and the lyrics of popular Reggae songs Imani Tafari Ama details the influences and implications of this violent social discourse for everyday performances of femininity and masculinity in Kingston s inner city environment as well as in the wider Jamaican society Tafari Ama s stated objective in publishing her thesis as a book is to separate fact from fiction in order to find real and enduring solutions that will reduce the distressing flood of blood bullets and bodies that is overflowing the streets of Kingston She hopes that by highlighting some of the facts and exposing much of the fiction about life below the poverty line her provocative book will be a catalyst in motivating the political and community willpower necessary to find and implement the real time solutions that she proposes in her suggested Options for Development

Snakes and Ladders: Reviewing Feminisms at Century's End, 2001-12 This book reviews the current state of feminist thinking in the run up to the millenium its priorities and concerns drawing critical attention to the losses as well as the gains of contemporary feminist work Gendered Identity and the Lost Female Shrabani Basu, 2022-08-31 This book offers an exploration of the postcolonial hybrid experience in anglophone Caribbean plays and performance from a feminist perspective In a hitherto unattempted consideration of Caribbean theatre and performance this study of gendered identities chronicles the postcolonial hybrid experience and how it varies in the context of questions of sex performance and social designation In the process it examines the diverse performances of the anglophone Caribbean The work includes works by Caribbean anglophone playwrights like Derek Walcott Mustapha Matura Michael Gikes Dennis Scott Trevor Rhone Earl Lovelace and Errol John with more recent works of Pat Cumper Rawle Gibbons and Tony Hall The study would also engage with Carnival calypso and chutney music while commenting on its evolving influences over the hybrid imagination Each section covers the dominant socio political thematics associated with the tradition and its effect on it followed by an analysis of contemporaneously significant literary and cultural works plays carnival narrative and calypso and chutney lyrics as well as the experiences of performers From Lovelace s fictional Jestina to the real life Drupatee the book critically explores the marginalization of female performances while forming a hybrid identity

Black Nationalism in the New World Robert Carr, 2002-10-18 Provides new insight into the development of black nationalism by examining the intersection of African American and West Indian nationalist literatures Negotiating Gender, Policy and Politics in the Caribbean Gabrielle Hosein, Jane Parpart, 2016-12-22 Have efforts to advance women s and men s commitments to democratic governance women s rights and gender equality been successful in the Caribbean Do they reflect local as well as international concerns and visions of gender equality This edited collection answers these questions by focusing on women s political leadership electoral quota systems national gender policies and transformational leadership as four feminist strategies that aim to engender democracy and citizenship. It offers a rich historical comparative and ethnographic perspective on the lived experience of these strategies through case studies of Trinidad and Tobago, Guyana, Dominica, Jamaica, and St. Lucia. Drawing on national policy debates, election campaigns, state officials' solidarities, men's gender consciousness, and women leaders' life histories across these five Caribbean countries, the collection assesses the successes of transnational feminist efforts, the resilience of masculinist resistances, the limits of gender mainstreaming, and the possibilities for gender justice in and beyond the Caribbean today.

Politicized Microfinance Caroline Shenaz Hossein, 2016-08-04. When Grameen Bank was awarded the Nobel Peace Prize in 2006, microfinance was lauded as an important contributor to the economic development of the Global South. However, political scandals, mission drift, and excessive commercialization have tarnished this example of responsible or inclusive financial development. Politicized Microfinance insightfully discusses exclusion while providing a path towards redemption. In this work, Caroline Shenaz Hossein explores the politics, histories, and social prejudices that have shaped the legacy of microbanking in Grenada, Guyana, Haiti, Jamaica, and Trinidad. Writing from a feminist perspective, Hossein's analysis is rooted in original qualitative data and offers multiple solutions that prioritize the needs of marginalized and historically oppressed people of African descent. A must-read for scholars of political economy, diaspora studies, social economy, women's studies, as well as development practitioners, Politicized Microfinance convincingly deftly argues for microfinance to return to its origins as a political tool fighting for those living in the margins.

Feminist Perspectives on Politics Chris Corrin, 2014-07-10. Feminist Perspectives on Politics considers how feminist perspectives have considerably broadened the scope of what is considered political. Themes and issues covered range from nineteenth-century debates around women's equality and liberation to twentieth-century arguments and activities towards gaining a more nuanced understanding of women's differences and diversity. Difference remains a key term in contemporary feminisms, and the author examines debates engendered from women's liberation politics to open up discussion of Black feminisms, lesbian politics, and disabled feminist agendas. Formal political participation and the impact of women's movement politics are assessed in global comparisons, as are the debates surrounding discourses on development and transnational politics and the influence of women at local, national, and international levels. The book will be essential reading for students at all levels across the fields of Politics, Women's Studies, Sociology, History, Cultural Studies, Political Economy, and Development Studies, more generally, such as in studies concerned with anti-racism, gender, social policy, and the history of ideas within educational institutions, local government, and voluntary organisations.

Dougla Poetics Kavyta Kay, 2024-12-04. Rooted in lived experiences and real conversations, this book challenges mixed-race studies which often prioritise Black-white binaries in the Global North while excluding multiracial experiences across the Global South.

Indo-Caribbean Feminist Thought Gabrielle Jamela Hosein, Lisa Outar, 2016-11-25. Bringing together three generations of scholars, thinkers, and activists, this book is the first to trace a genealogy of the specific contributions Indo-

Caribbean women have made to Caribbean feminist epistemology and knowledge production Challenging the centrality of India in considerations of the forms that Indo Caribbean feminist thought and praxis have taken the authors turn instead to the terrain of gender negotiations among Caribbean men and women within and across racial class religious and political affiliations Addressing the specific conditions which emerged within the region and highlighting the cross racial solidarities and the challenges to narratives of purity that have been constitutive of Indo Caribbean feminist thought this collection connects to the broader indentureship diaspora and what can be considered post indentureship feminist thought Through examinations of literature activism art biography scholarship and public sphere practices the collection highlights the complexity and richness of Indo Caribbean engagements with feminism and social justice Producing Inclusive

Feminist Knowledge Akosua Adomako Ampofo, Josephine Beoku-Betts, 2021-09-17 In the global South there is potential for politics to marginalize the diverse perspectives of subaltern communities Exploring ongoing and new feminist dialogues in the global South this book examines the ways in which dominant epistemologies are challenged unique identities formed and the implications for the global feminist agenda Feminist Economics and the World Bank Edith Kuiper, Drucilla

Barker, 2006-05-02 In this book an international team of contributors including Diane Elson Suzanne Bergeron and Cheryl Doss provide an assessment of the World Bank The ISA Handbook of Diverse Sociological Traditions Sujata

Patel, 2010 This latest edition to the ISA handbook series actively engages with the many traditions of sociology in the world Twenty nine chapters from prominent international contributors discuss challenge and re conceptualize the global discipline of sociology evaluating the diversities within and between sociological traditions of many regions and nation states They assess all aspects of the discipline ideas and theories scholars and scholarship practices and traditions ruptures and continuities through an international perspective Its goal is to become a text for debating the contours of international sociology Critical Perspectives on Indo-Caribbean Women's Literature Joy Allison Indira Mahabir, Mariam Pirbhai, 2013

This book is the first collection on Indo Caribbean women s writing and the first work to offer a sustained analysis of the literature from a range of theoretical and critical perspectives such as ecocriticism feminist queer post colonial and Caribbean cultural theories The essays not only lay the framework of an emerging and growing field but also critically situate internationally acclaimed writers such as Shani Mootoo Lakshmi Persaud and Ramabai Espinet within this emerging tradition Indo Caribbean women writers provide a fresh new perspective in Caribbean literature be it in their unique representations of plantation history anti colonial movements diasporic identities feminisms ethnicity and race or contemporary Caribbean societies and culture The book offers a theoretical reading of the poetics politics and cultural traditions that inform Indo Caribbean women s writing arguing that while women writers work with and through postcolonial and Caribbean cultural theories they also respond to a distinctive set of influences and realities specific to their positioning within the Indo Caribbean community and the wider national regional and global imaginary Contributors visit the overlap between national and transnational engagements in Indo Caribbean women's literature considering the writers response to local or nationally specific contexts and the writers response to the diasporic and transnational modalities of Caribbean and Indo Caribbean communities

The Black Social Economy in the Americas Caroline Shenaz Hossein, 2017-09-18 This pioneering book explores the meaning of the term Black social economy a self help sector that remains autonomous from the state and business sectors With the Western Hemisphere's ignoble history of enslavement and violence towards African peoples and the strong anti black racism that still pervades society the African diaspora in the Americas has turned to alternative practices of socio economic organization Conscientious and collective organizing is thus a means of creating meaningful livelihoods In this volume fourteen scholars explore the concept of the Black social economy bringing together innovative research on the lived experience of Afro descendants in business and society in Argentina Brazil Canada Colombia Guyana Haiti Jamaica and the United States The case studies in this book feature horrific legacies of enslavement colonization and racism and they recount the myriad ways that persons of African heritage have built humane alternatives to the dominant market economy that excludes them Together they shed necessary light on the ways in which the Black race has been overlooked in the social economy literature

Schooling the System Funké Aladejebi, 2021-03-05 In post World War II Canada black women's positions within the teaching profession served as sites of struggle and conflict as the nation worked to address the needs of its diversifying population From their entry into teachers college through their careers in the classroom and administration black women educators encountered systemic racism and gender barriers at every step So they worked to change the system Using oral narratives to tell the story of black access and education in Ontario between the 1940s and the 1980s Schooling the System provides textured insight into how issues of race gender class geographic origin and training shaped women's distinct experiences within the profession By valuing women's voices and lived experiences Funk Aladejebi illustrates that black women as a diverse group made vital contributions to the creation and development of anti racist education in Canada As cultural mediators within Ontario school systems these women circumvented subtle and overt forms of racial and social exclusion to create resistive teaching methods that centred black knowledges and traditions Within their wider communities and activist circles they fought to change entrenched ideas about what Canadian citizenship should look like As schools continue to grapple with creating diverse educational programs for all Canadians Schooling the System is a timely excavation of the meaningful contributions of black women educators who helped create equitable policies and practices in schools and communities
