Rethinking Development Putting An End To Poverty:

Rethinking Development Henri Bartoli, 2000 If major prospects of progress are to be opened up for human beings and if the struggle against multidimensional poverty is to be successfully waged throughout the world the current programs of action are not sufficient nor is a reliance on globalization As the United Nations Development Programme points out globalization which is subject to the pitiless markets threatens solidarity which is the invisible heart of human development Rather according to Henri Bartoli in his hard hitting new book a new paradigm must be defined and new strategies must be proposed Rules institutions and procedures must be invented which will strengthen the governance and governability of the economy at global regional and local levels a radical renewal of economic thinking on which all efforts to rationalize are based Henri Bartoli is emeritus professor of economics at University of Paris I Panth on Sorbonne and international vice president of the European Society for Culture Copublished with UNESCO

Sport for Development and Peace Simon Darnell, 2012-03-15 This book is available as open access through the Bloomsbury Open Access programme and is available on www.bloomsburycollections.com The role of sport in development initiatives has grown dramatically over the last five years now finding a place in the UN's millennium development goals In Sport and Development for Peace Simon Darnell outlines the most recent sociological research on the role of sport in development initiatives The book analyses the relationship between sport and international development and looks at what this reveals about socio political economy It addresses a gap in the literature by focusing on issues of politics power and culture particularly looking at volunteer experience mega sporting events and sporting celebrity in the context of development Darnell questions the belief that sport can offer a solution to enduring development issues Drawing on the latest empirical research the book is a thorough and timely analysis of the social and political implications of tying sport to development

International Development Law Petra Minnerop, Rüdiger Wolfrum, Frauke Lachenmann, 2019-04-18 This volume brings together articles on international development law from the Max Planck Encyclopedia of Public International Law the definitive reference work on international law It provides an invaluable resource for scholars students and practitioners of international development law giving an accessible thorough overview of all aspects of the field Each article contains cross references to related articles and includes a carefully selected bibliography of the most important writings and primary materials as a guide to further reading The Encyclopedia can be used by a wide range of readers Experienced scholars and practitioners will find a wealth of information on areas that they do not already know well as well as in depth treatments on every aspect of their specialist topics Articles can also be set as readings for students on taught courses

Beauty in African Thought Angela Roothaan, Bolaji Bateye, Mahmoud Masaeli, Louise Müller, 2023-03-20 A 2023 Choice Reviews Outstanding Academic Title Beauty in African Thought A Critique of the Western Idea of Development investigates how the concept of beauty in African philosophy and related qualitative social sciences may contribute to a richer intercultural exchange on the idea of development While working within frameworks created in post colonial and arguably neo colonial times African thinkers have reacted against the mainstream view that restricts the meaning and scope of good development to economic growth and western style education These thinkers have worked toward a critical self understanding of the potentials inherent in cultural spiritual and political traditions since pre colonial times Edited by Bolaji Bateye Mahmoud Masaeli Louise Müller and Angela Roothaan this collection explores branches of thought from wisdom or oral traditions to political thought and philosophy of culture This book is urgent reading material for any policy maker scholar or student wishing to attend to the voices of Africanist thinkers who search for alternative approaches to global questions of development in a time of climate change and increasing socio economic inequality

Communicative Sustainability Thomas Bearth, Rose Marie Beck, Reinald Döbel, 2014 The failure to understand communicative practices and preferences of local communities is a frequent reason why development fails to produce expected results Drawing on field research from settings in Indonesia Uganda Namibia and Ivory Coast this book addresses local viewpoints and gender concepts the procedures of deliberation negotiation and appropriation and the clashes of underlying language ideologies and language based social and conceptual projections It is argued that communicative factors are not reducible to economic ones but need independent attention in development planning and are ultimately decisive for outcomes The book also includes a CD with video sampling Series Swiss Forschung und Wissenschaft Vol 4

Encyclopedia of Consumer Culture Dale Southerton, 2011-09-15 The Encyclopedia of Consumer Culture is the first reference work to outline the parameters of consumer culture and provide a critical scholarly resource on consumption and consumerism

Innovating Development Strategies in Africa Landry Signé, 2017-08-31 During the second half of the twentieth century African states shifted away from state led development strategies and are now moving towards a strategy of regional economic integration In this book Landry Sign explores the key drivers of African policy and economic transformation proposing a preeminent explanation of policy innovations in Africa through the examination of postcolonial strategies for economic development Scholars and practitioners in fields as varied as development studies political science and public policy economics sociology and African studies will benefit from Sign s unprecedented comparative analysis including detailed cases from the often understudied Francophone Africa First studying why how and when institutional or policy change occurs in Africa Sign explores the role of international regional and national actors in making African economic development strategies from 1960 to date highlighting the economic transformations of the twenty first century

Globalization and Organization Gili S. Drori, John W. Meyer, Hokyung Hwang, 2006-05-18 All around the world societies are experiencing an explosion of organizations and organizing community clubs religious groups social movements as well as schools hospitals businesses and government agencies increasingly take the form of complex and formal organization Why is global society recast in this format and why so fiercely This book explores various dimensions of the trends of expansion formalization and standardization of organizing worldwide by exploring such organizational legacies as accounting business management corporate social responsibility and performance benchmarks Featuring contributions from prominent academics the book argues that these processes can be attributed to globalization and to its specific tendencies of universalism rationalization and rise of the modern notion of the strongly bounded and purposive social actor An application of institutional arguments to global issues the book will be of interest to academics and researchers of Organization Studies Sociology Political Science and Geography

Language and Politics in Africa John Obiero Ogone, Daniel Ochieng Orwenjo, 2020-05-15 Language and Politics in Africa is a fine collection of both empirically and theoretically based articles from across the African continent and beyond but all focusing on the twin issues of Language and Politics in post colonial African countries The authors offer critical perspectives on contemporary theoretical empirical and policy issues related to language and how such issues manifest themselves at the inevitable interface with politics in a number of African countries Coming at a time when most African countries are still grappling with language policy and planning issues while others are increasingly having to contend with the political outcomes of linguistically and ethnically heterogeneous nation states the present volume is a must read for scholars and students who are interested on the twin issues of language and politics since it represents one of the first attempts at documenting how language and politics affect each other in a number of African countries The volume is divided into two sections dealing with the politics of language and the language of politics in African countries     Business, Globalization and the Common Good Henri Claude de Bettignies, François Lépineux, 2009

Globalization and information technology are driving the world into a new era Is it the responsibility of business to pursue the common good and more precisely to participate in the construction of the global common good This book brings together contributions from various disciplines written by scholars who are at the forefront of this debate It provides multiple insights into a tripartite relationship business globalization and the common good It helps explain why the business sphere will probably not be in a position to ignore the common good much longer and why this latter concept widely ignored in today's management realm is likely to become part of tomorrow's corporate policies and practices in the global context Finally this work opens up a plethora of avenues for future research calling for the development of transdisciplinary approaches and for the elaboration of a research program embracing theoretical empirical and spiritual perspectives to tackle this complex issue
