Rethinking Modernity And National Identity In Turkey:

Rethinking Modernity and National Identity in Turkey Sibel Bozdoğan, Resat Kasaba, 2011-11-15 In the first two decades after WW II social scientists heralded Turkey as an exemplar of a modernizing nation in the Western mold Images of unveiled women working next to clean shaven men healthy children in school uniforms and downtown Ankara's modern architecture all proclaimed the country's success Although Turkey's modernization began in the late Ottoman era the establishment of the secular nation state by Kemal Atatürk in 1923 marked the crystallization of an explicit elite driven project of modernity that took its inspiration exclusively from the West The essays in this book are the first attempt to examine the Turkish experiment with modernity from a broad interdisciplinary perspective encompassing the fields of history the social sciences the humanities architecture and urban planning As they examine both the Turkish project of modernity and its critics the contributors offer a fresh balanced understanding of dilemmas now facing not only Turkey but also many other parts of the Middle East and the world at large

Rethinking Modernity and National Identity in Turkey Sibel Bozdoğan, Reşat Kasaba, 1997 In the first two decades after World War II social scientists heralded Turkey as an exemplar of a modernizing nation in the Western mold The essays in this book are the first attempt to examine the Turkish experiment with modernity from a broad interdisciplinary perspective encompassing the fields of history the social sciences the humanities architecture and urban planning

Technology and National Identity in Turkey Burce Celik, 2011-08-30 Since the fall of the Ottoman Empire Turkey has seen a complete reimagining of its political cultural and social landscape Burce Celik argues that technology has been integral to this transformative process showing how take up of modern technologies such as the cell or mobile phone has been embraced particularly by those who most easily absorbed new ideals about Turkey and modern Turkishness While many studies on the cultural significance of mobile technology focus on its rational uses and incentives Celik draws on cultural theory psychoanalysis and the philosophy of technology to explore the bonds desires and dependencies that Turkish citizens have in relation to the cell phone She ultimately links a collective post empire melancholia with a desire to re imagine a new ideal Turkish national identity through technology

policies during the Cold War in light of their leaderships nation making projects      Media in New Turkey Bilge Yesil,2016-06-30 In Media in New Turkey Bilge Yesil unlocks the complexities surrounding and penetrating today s Turkish media Yesil focuses on a convergence of global and domestic forces that range from the 1980 military coup to globalization s inroads and the recent resurgence of political Islam Her analysis foregrounds how these and other forces become intertwined and she uses Turkey s media to unpack the ever more complex relationships Yesil confronts essential questions regarding the role of the state and military in building the structures that shaped Turkey s media system media adaptations to ever shifting contours of political and economic power how the far flung economic interests of media conglomerates leave them vulnerable to state pressure and the ways Turkey s politicized judiciary criminalizes certain speech Drawing on local knowledge and a wealth of Turkish sources Yesil provides an engrossing look at the fault lines carved by authoritarianism tradition neoliberal reform and globalization within Turkey s increasingly far reaching media      Books on Turkey ,2005      Ethnologia Europaea vol. 46:1 Laura Stark,2016-05-30 Special issue Muslim Intimacies In every society individual choice and freedom are shaped at least to some degree by the needs of familial and marital institutions Currently negotiations between individuals and families are undergoing transformations due to late modern processes such as recent waves of mass migration the increasing transnationalism of everyday practices global commerce in ideas and images and the expansion of information technology into all corners of people s lives Some of the greatest challenges are experienced by Muslim families the majority of the world s Muslims live in extreme poverty and in Europe anti Muslim sentiment has found a firm foothold in public attitudes and debates This special issue explores the dilemmas facing transnational Muslim families as well as those who feel the impact of late modern transformations in societies where they have lived for generations Five scholarly articles address family dynamics among Muslims in Finland Anne H kkinen Ethiopia Outi Fingerroos Italy and Sweden Pia Karlsson Minganti Morocco Raquel Gil Carvalheira and Tanzania Laura Stark these are complemented by the insightful commentary by Garbi Schmidt The aim of this theme issue is to develop new ways of talking about the links between Islam family and the individual which move away from the ethnocentrism of Western concepts and pay greater attention to the desires and goals of those studied This volume includes two open issue contributions Magdalena Elchinova scrutinizes identity construction among Orthodox Bulgarians based in Istanbul and in the context of the post Fordist creative city Ove Sutter analyses the playful and performative protests of activists following the declaration of the so called Danger Zone 2014 in Hamburg Germany      Visualizing Secularism and Religion Alev Cinar,Srirupa Roy,2012-05-22 An investigation of the role of religion in the formation of secular national public spheres in the Middle East and South Asia      The European Union Chris Rumford,2008-04-15 The European Union is the first full length treatment of European integration from a sociological perspective It redirects the core concerns of political sociology away from nationally bounded societies towards a sociology beyond societies capable of making a valuable contribution to thinking about the nature and problems of the European Union

Within this broad objective the book concerns itself with such key issues as the relation between the EU and globalization the nature of the EU state and the question of whether a European society can be said to exist Students scholars and sociologists interested in the history development and legacies of the European Union will find this to be a unique and informative text

Crafting Turkish National Identity, 1919-1927 Aysel Morin, 2021-12-30 Examining Mustafa Kemal Atatürk's Byk Nutuk The Great Public Address this book identifies the five founding political myths of Turkey the First Duty the Internal Enemy the Encirclement the Ancestor and Modernity Offering a comprehensive rhetorical analysis of Nutuk in its entirety the book reveals how Atatürk crafted these myths traces their discursive roots back to the Orkhon Inscriptions epic tales and ancient stories of Turkish culture and critiques their long term effects on Turkish political culture In so doing it advances the argument that these myths have become permanent fixtures of Turkish political discourse since the establishment of Turkey and have been used by both supporters and detractors of Atatürk Providing examples of how past and present leaders including Recep Tayyip Erdoğan a vocal critic of Atatürk have deployed these myths in their discourses the book offers an entirely new way to read and understand Turkish political culture and contributes to the heated debate on Kemalism by responding to the need to go back to the original sources his own speeches and statements to understand him Contributing to emerging discourse based approaches this book is ideal for scholars and students of Turkish Studies History Nationalism Studies Political Science Rhetorical Studies and International Studies

The Globalization of Corporate Media Hegemony Lee Artz, Yahya R. Kamalipour, 2012-02-01 When commercial media practices are insinuated into local cultures existing cultural and media practices are often displaced and social inequalities are exacerbated sometimes with the consent of consumers but frequently confronting organized proponents The Globalization of Corporate Media Hegemony provides case studies from five continents from government promoted telecommunications programs and technologies in Canada and Britain MTV Asia's call in request lines and the pan Latin ideology of a Mexican television variety show to Islamic pop radio in Turkey commercial radio in Africa a Millionaire game show in India and Hollywood's muted influence on Korean cinema among others Each case offers new insight into the particulars of an expanding corporate hegemony and together they invite the conversation on media globalization to consider the dynamics of class conflict and negotiation as an analytical perspective having prescriptive potential

Anti-Veiling Campaigns in Turkey Sevgi Adak, 2022-02-24 The veiling and unveiling of women have been controversial issues in Turkey since the late Ottoman period It was with the advent of local campaigns against certain veils in the 1930s however that women's dress turned into an issue of national mobilisation in which gender norms would be redefined In this comprehensive analysis of the anti veiling campaigns in interwar Turkey Sevgi Adak casts light onto the historical context within which the meanings of veiling and unveiling in Turkey were formed By shifting the focus from the high politics of the elite to the implementation of state policies the book situates the anti veiling campaigns as a space where the Kemalist reforms were negotiated compromised and resisted by societal actors Using previously unpublished archival material Adak reveals the intricacies of the Kemalist modernisation process and provides a nuanced reading of the gender order established in the early republic by looking at the various ways women responded to the anti veiling campaigns A major contribution to the literature on the social history of modern Turkey the book provides a complex analysis of these campaigns which goes beyond a simple binary between liberation and oppression

Kemalism in Turkish Politics Sinan Ciddi,2009-01-13 This book is concerned with Turkey s political evolution the role of Kemalism and why a social democratic alternative has never fully developed Concentrating on the electoral weaknesses of the Turkish centre left represented by the Republican People s Party CHP Sinan Ciddi examines the roles of nationalism and the political establishment and the role of Kemalist ideology Established by Kemal Ataturk the CHP is seen to be the founding party of modern Turkey Kemalism sought to create a secular and democratic society based on the principles of republicanism populism secularism nationalism and revolutionism Although this leftist ideology became an integral part of Turkish politics by the early 1960s it has remained a comparatively weak representative movement Its strong ideological stance advocates an authoritarian and exclusionary position particularly in relation to matters such as multiculturalism and democratisation fuelling many debates concerning the role of religion and nationalism within Turkey and perpetuating elements of xenophobia and intolerance This book will be of interest to students of politics history and current affairs and of Turkish politics in particular

Power and Architecture Michael Minkenberg,2014-06-01 Capital cities have been the seat of political power and central stage for their state s political conflicts and rituals throughout the ages In the modern era they provide symbols for and confer meaning to the state thereby contributing to the invention of the nation Capitals capture the imagination of natives visitors and outsiders alike yet also express the outcomes of power struggles within the political systems in which they operate This volume addresses the reciprocal relationships between identity regime formation urban planning and public architecture in the Western world It examines the role of urban design and architecture in expressing or hiding ideological beliefs and political agenda Case studies include old capitals such as Rome Vienna Berlin and Warsaw new ones such as Washington DC Ottawa Canberra Ankara Bonn and Bras lia and the European capital Brussels Each case reflects the authors different disciplinary backgrounds in architecture history political science and urban studies demonstrating the value of an interdisciplinary approach to studying cities
