Rethinking Tradition In Modern Islamic Thought:

Rethinking Tradition in Modern Islamic Thought Daniel W. Brown, 1999-03-04 Questions about the authenticity and authority of sunna have long been of central importance to the study of Islam especially to those concerned with Islamic law In this fascinating study Daniel Brown traces the emergence of modern debates over sunna focusing in particular on Egypt and Pakistan where these controversies have raged most fiercely and assesses the implications of new approaches to the law on contemporary movements of Islamic revival Using the case of modern Islam as a starting point the author considers how adherents of any great tradition deal with change Modernist Islam, 1840-1940 Charles Kurzman, 2002 A major intellectual current in the Muslim world during the 19th and 20th centuries proponents of modernist Islam typically believed that it was imperative to show how modern values and institutions could be reconciled with authentically Islamic ideals This text collects their writings

The Ulama in Contemporary Islam Muhammad Qasim Zaman, 2010-12-16 From the cleric led Iranian revolution to the rise of the Taliban in Afghanistan many people have been surprised by what they see as the modern reemergence of an antimodern phenomenon This book helps account for the increasingly visible public role of traditionally educated Muslim religious scholars the ulama across contemporary Muslim societies Muhammad Qasim Zaman describes the transformations the centuries old culture and tradition of the ulama have undergone in the modern era transformations that underlie the new religious and political activism of these scholars In doing so it provides a new foundation for the comparative study of Islam politics and religious change in the contemporary world While focusing primarily on Pakistan Zaman takes a broad approach that considers the Taliban and the ulama of Iran Egypt Saudi Arabia India and the southern Philippines He shows how their religious and political discourses have evolved in often unexpected but mutually reinforcing ways to redefine and enlarge the roles the ulama play in society Their discourses are informed by a longstanding religious tradition of which they see themselves as the custodians But these discourses are equally shaped by and contribute in significant ways to contemporary debates in the Muslim public sphere This book offers the first sustained comparative perspective on the ulama and their increasingly crucial religious and political activism It shows how issues of religious authority are debated in contemporary Islam how Islamic law and tradition are continuously negotiated in a rapidly changing world and how the ulama both react to and shape larger Islamic social trends Introducing previously unexamined facets of religious and political thought in modern Islam it clarifies the complex processes of religious change unfolding in the contemporary Muslim world and goes a long way toward explaining their vast social and political ramifications

Reformation of Islamic Thought

Nasr Hāmid Abū Zayd, 2006 After September 11 Islam became nearly synonymous with fundamentalism in the eyes of Western media and literature However widely held this view may be it is at odds with Islam's rich political history Renowned Egyptian scholar Nasr Ab Zayd here considers the full breadth of contemporary Muslim writings to examine the diverse political religious and cultural views that inform discourse in the Islamic world Reformation of Islamic Thought explores the writings of intellectuals from Egypt to Iran to Indonesia probing their efforts to expand Islam beyond traditional and legalistic interpretations Zayd reveals that many Muslim thinkers advocate culturally enlightened Islam with an emphasis on individual faith He then investigates the extent of these Muslim reformers success in generating an authentic renewal of Islamic ideology asking if such thinkers have escaped the traditionalist trap of presenting a negative image to the West A fascinating and highly relevant study for our times Reformation of Islamic Thought is an essential analysis of Islam's present and future

Legal Traditions of the World H. Patrick Glenn, 2010 a superb book. Islam Jacques Waardenburg, 2008-08-22. This book presents some twenty essays on different aspects of Islam in history and the present. These essays are grouped into eight larger sections. The first, The Beginnings, deals with the transition from pre-Islamic understandings and reason to an essential part of the Quranic message. The next two sections deal with Islam specifically as a religion with its particular signs and symbols. The question of rules of interpretation in Islam and its structural features is discussed here. Sections four and five deal with ethics in Islam including Muslim identity and human rights and certain social functions of Islam. Section six introduces some 19th and 20th century reform movements with special attention given to developments in Saudi Arabia and the puritan characteristics of present day Islamic revival movements. The final two sections discuss contemporary issues: Islamization processes and policies; Islamic ideologies; the ideologization of Islam; and the political uses of religion. Throughout the book the author shows the links between the religious and other interpretations and uses made of Islam and the contexts in which they are made. The Introduction signals some important developments in Islamic studies since World War II.

New Topics in Feminist Philosophy of Religion Pamela Sue Anderson, 2009-12-05. Having enjoyed more than a decade of lively critique and creativity, feminist philosophy of religion continues to be a vital field of inquiry. New Topics in Feminist Philosophy of Religion maintains this vitality with both women and men from their own distinctive social and material locations contributing critically to the rich traditions in philosophy of religion. The twenty contributors open up new possibilities for spiritual practice while contesting the gender bias of traditional concepts in the field; the old models of human

Interpretations of Jihad in South Asia Tariq Rahman, 2018-10-08

In the wake of radical Islamist terrorist attacks described as jihad worldwide and in South Asia, it is imperative that there should be a book-length study of this idea in this part of the world. The focus of the study is the idea of jihad with its changing interpretations, mostly those available in exegetical literature of key figures in South Asia. The hermeneutic devices used to understand the meaning of the Quranic verses and the Prophetic traditions relating to jihad will be the focus of this study. The main thrust of the study is to understand how interpretations of jihad vary. It is seen as being both defensive and aggressive by traditionalists, only defensive and mainly about moral improvement by progressive Muslims, and being insurrectionist, aggressive, eternal, and justifying violence against civilians by radical Islamists. One purpose of the book is to understand how the radical interpretation came to South Asia. The book also explains how theories about jihad are influenced by the political and social circumstances of the period and how these insights feed into practice, legitimizing militant movements called jihad for that period.

Qur'an Commentary and the Biblical Turn Samuel Ross, 2024-02-19

The Qur'an and the Bible have been called intertwined scriptures due to the Qur'an's frequent invocation of biblical narratives and figures. But what is the history of Muslims' exegetical engagement with the biblical text? Through a comprehensive survey of more than 170 Qur'an commentaries, Samuel Ross traces the longitudinal history of the Bible in tafsir. Offering detailed case studies and rich in historical context, Ross's narrative culminates in the remarkable late nineteenth and early twentieth-century biblical turn. Global in scope, this development has not only generated new Muslim views of the Bible but even new interpretations of the Qur'an itself. This monograph has been awarded the annual BRAIS De Gruyter Prize in the Study of Islam and the Muslim World.
