Roman Art Franz Wickhoff, 1900      The Dawn of Christian Art in Panel Paintings and Icons Thomas F.

Mathews, Norman E. Muller, 2017-02-01 Staking out new territory in the history of art this book presents a compelling argument for a lost link between the panel painting tradition of Greek antiquity and Christian paintings of Byzantium and the Renaissance While art historians place the origin of icons in the seventh century Thomas F Mathews finds strong evidence as early as the second century in the texts of Irenaeus and the Acts of John that describe private Christian worship In closely studying an obscure set of sixty neglected panel paintings from Egypt in Roman times the author explains how these paintings of the Egyptian gods offer the missing link in the long history of religious painting Christian panel paintings and icons are for the first time placed in a continuum with the pagan paintings that preceded them sharing elements of iconography technology and religious usages as votive offerings Exciting discoveries punctuate the narrative the technology of the triptych enormously popular in Europe traced by the authors to the construction of Egyptian portable shrines such as the Isis and Serapis of the J Paul Getty Museum the discovery that the egg tempera painting medium usually credited to Renaissance artist Cimabue has been identified in Egyptian panels a millennium earlier and the reconstruction of a ring of icons on the chancel of Saint Sophia in Istanbul This book will be a vital addition to the fields of Egyptian Graeco Roman and late antique art history and more generally to the history of painting      The Routledge Handbook of Early Christian Art

Robin M. Jensen, Mark D. Ellison, 2018-05-20 The Routledge Handbook of Early Christian Art surveys a broad spectrum of Christian art produced from the late second to the sixth centuries The first part of the book opens with a general survey of the subject and then presents fifteen essays that discuss specific media of visual art catacomb paintings sculpture mosaics gold glass gems reliquaries ceramics icons ivories textiles silver and illuminated manuscripts Each is written by a noted expert in the field The second part of the book takes up themes relevant to the study of early Christian art These seven chapters consider the ritual practices in decorated spaces the emergence of images of Christ s Passion and miracles the functions of Christian secular portraits the exemplary mosaics of Ravenna the early modern history of Christian art and archaeology studies and further reflection on this field called early Christian art Each of the volume s chapters includes photographs of many of the objects discussed plus bibliographic notes and recommendations for further reading The result is an invaluable introduction to and appraisal of the art that developed out of the spread of Christianity through the late antique world Undergraduate and graduate students of late classical early Christian and Byzantine culture religion or art will find it an accessible and insightful orientation to the field Additionally professional academics archivists and curators working in these areas will also find it valuable as a resource for their own research as well as a textbook or reference work for their students      Roman and Palaeochristian Painting Gérald Gassiot-Talabot, 1969      ROMAN ART FRANZ.

Early Christian Art André Grabar, 1969 The beginnings of any historical movement are bound to be mysterious So it is with Christianity and so it is with Christian art Into the ordered world of late classicism came the arresting voice and disturbing gaze of men heavy with conscience for whom art was only a medium for higher truth André Grabar traces the emergence of this art from its pagan background and shows the social and spiritual forces that governed its growth Early Christian Art covers a vast area from Spain to Syria and a vast theme since content and meaning are inseparable from expression Chapters are devoted to painting and sculpture during the persecutions to the great Roman basilicas and Old St Peter's to the mosaics of Saint Costanza and to the haunting and still too little known sarcophaguses of the 4th century The book also includes a section of ancient texts relating to art a chronological table and a glossary index and

Christian art Giovanni Battista de Rossi, 1879 Imperial Rome and Christian Triumph Jas Elsner, 1998 Western culture saw some of the most significant and innovative developments take place during the passage from antiquity to the middle ages This stimulating new book investigates the role of the visual arts as both reflections and agents of those changes It tackles two inter-related periods of internal transformation within the Roman Empire the phenomenon known as the Second Sophistic c ad 100-300 two centuries of self-conscious and enthusiastic hellenism and the era of late antiquity c ad 250-450 when the empire underwent a religious conversion to Christianity Vases murals statues and masonry are explored in relation to such issues as power death society acculturation and religion By examining questions of reception viewing and the culture of spectacle alongside the more traditional art historical themes of imperial patronage and stylistic change Jas Elsner presents a fresh and challenging account of an extraordinarily rich cultural crucible in which many fundamental developments of later European art had their origins a highly individual work wonderful visual and comparative analysis I can think of no other general book on Roman art that deals so elegantly and informatively with the theme of visibility and visual desire Professor Natalie Boymel Kampen Barnard College New York exciting and original a vibrant impression of creative energy and innovation held in constant tension by the persistence of more traditional motifs and techniques Elsner constantly surprises and intrigues the reader by approaching familiar material in new ways Professor Averil Cameron Keble College Oxford

Weaving in Stones: Garments and Their Accessories in the Mosaic Art of Eretz Israel in Late Antiquity Aliza Steinberg, 2020-02-07 This book copiously illustrated throughout studies the garments and their accessories worn by some 245 figures represented on approximately 41 mosaic floors some only partially preserved that once decorated both public and private structures within the historical geographical area of Eretz Israel in Late Antiquity

Paleochristian Art in Spain Pedro de Palol, 1969 187 illustrations show 4th to 6th century mosaics sculpture and architecture

Early Christian Art and Architecture Guntram Koch, 1996 The early Christian period especially the time between the third and sixth centuries is one of the most fascinating in church history The Christianity which developed into a state church in the Roman empire during the fourth century gave new content to traditional Graeco-Roman art and adapted it to changed needs Different forms of churches monasteries and baptisms came into being as did Christian art in paintings mosaics and sculptures biblical manuscripts were illustrated and liturgical furnishings and vessels were given new form Here for the first time in a single volume is an account of architecture sacred and profane funerary art in catacombs and tombs and especially sarcophagi the graphic arts and the various forms of art in miniature The text is illustrated with numerous line drawings and photographs including ground plans and elevations of churches actual and conjectural and there are full descriptions of the art and architecture discussed against its social and historical background In addition there are full bibliographies and details of the most important collections of Christian art This will prove not only an invaluable work for art historians but also a guide for those travelling in the Mediterranean area and an indication of the riches of the first centuries of the church Guntram Koch is Professor of Christian Archaeology and the History of Byzantine Art in the University of Marburg
