Roman Society In Gaul In The Merovingian Age:

Roman Society in Gaul in the Merovingian Age Samuel Dill, 1926 Roman Society in Gaul in the Merovingian Age Samuel Dill, 1926 A Chain of Error in Scottish History Malcolm Vivian Hay, 1927 Early Medieval Europe 300-1050 David Rollason, 2018-03-29 Early Medieval Europe 300-1050 A Guide for Studying and Teaching empowers students by providing them with the conceptual and methodological tools to investigate the period Throughout the book major research questions and historiographical debates are identified and guidance is given on how to engage with and evaluate key documentary sources as well as artistic and archaeological evidence The book's aim is to engender confidence in creative and independent historical thought This second edition has been fully revised and expanded and now includes coverage of both Islamic and Byzantine history surveying and critically examining the often radically different scholarly interpretations relating to them Also new to this edition is an extensively updated and closely integrated companion website which has been carefully designed to provide practical guidance to teachers and students offering a wealth of reference materials and aids to mastering the period and lighting the way for further exploration of written and non written sources Accessibly written and containing over 70 carefully selected maps and images Early Medieval Europe 300-1050 is an essential resource for students studying this period for the first time as well as an invaluable aid to university teachers devising and delivering courses and modules on the period Poems to Friends Venantius Fortunatus, 2010-09-15 Owing to the rich storehouse of information it contains the poetry of Venantius Fortunatus c 535-600 has long been mined as a historical source for Merovingian society a focus that overshadows an appreciation of the poems literary value This volume offering free verse translations of Fortunatus personal poetry remains faithful to the historical sweep of the poet's lines while paying attention to the literary qualities that make these poems masterpieces of their kind The volume includes an overview of late antique Gaul Fortunatus biography interpretations of the poems prosopographical introductions maps bibliography and indices The Battle of Vouillé, 507 CE Ralph W. Mathisen, Danuta Shanzer, 2012-07-04 This volume highlights the heretofore largely neglected Battle of Vouillé in 507 CE when the Frankish King Clovis defeated Alaric II the King of the Visigoths Clovis' victory proved a crucial step in the expulsion of the Visigoths from Francia into Spain thereby leaving Gaul largely to the Franks It was arguably in the wake of Vouillé that Gaul became Francia and that France began The editors have united an international team of experts on Late Antiquity and the Merovingian Kingdoms to reexamine the battle from multiple as well as interdisciplinary perspectives The contributions address questions of military strategy geographical location archaeological footprint political background religious propaganda consequences both in Francia and in Italy and significance There is a strong focus on the close reading of primary source material both textual and material secular and theological The Middle Ages Edward Maslin Hulme, 1929 The Early Medieval World Michael Frassetto, 2013-03-14 This book examines a pivotal period in ancient human history the fall of the Roman Empire and the birth of a new European civilization in the early Middle Ages The Early Medieval World From the Fall of Rome to the Time of Charlemagne addresses the social and material culture of this critical period in the evolution of Western society covering the social political cultural and religious history of the Mediterranean world and northern Europe The two volume set explains how invading and migrating barbarian tribes spurred by raiding Huns from the steppes of Central Asia contributed to the fall of the Western Roman Empire and documents how the blending of Greco Roman Germanic and Christian cultures birthed a new civilization in Western Europe creating the Christian Church and the modern nation state A Z entries discuss political transformation changing religious practices in daily life sculpture and the arts material culture and social structure and provide biographies of important men and women in the transitional period of late antiquity The work will be extremely helpful to students learning about the factors that contributed to the decline of the Roman Empire an important and common topic in world history curricula

A History of the French Language Urban Holmes,Alexander H. Schutz,1938-06 A Companion to Late Antiquity Philip Rousseau,2012-01-25 An accessible and authoritative overview capturing the vitality and diversity of scholarship that exists on the transformative time period known as late antiquity Provides an essential overview of current scholarship on late antiquity from between the accession of Diocletian in AD 284 and the end of Roman rule in the Mediterranean Comprises 39 essays from some of the world s foremost scholars of the era Presents this once neglected period as an age of powerful transformation that shaped the modern world Emphasizes the central importance of religion and its connection with economic social and political life Winner of the 2009 Single Volume Reference Humanities Social Sciences PROSE award granted by the Association of American Publishers

History of the Middle Ages James Westfall Thompson,2016-04-06 First published in 1931 this book covers the broad period of time between the Christian Roman Empire instituted in the fourth century and the period of the Renaissance The author traces the main events of medieval history striking a balance between political institutional social and cultural history with no event of major importance escaping recognition In addition to covering medieval Europe in detail it also includes sections on the Byzantine Empire and the foundation of Islam Many maps are also included to geographically illustrate key points This book will be of interest to students of history

Urban Interactions Michael J. Kelly,Michael Burrows,2020 This volume is dedicated to eliciting the interactions between localities across late antique and early medieval Europe and the wider Mediterranean Significant research has been done in recent years to explore how late Roman and post Roman cities towns and other localities communicated vis vis larger structural phenomena such as provinces empires kingdoms institutions and so on This research has contributed considerably to our understanding of the place of the city in its context but tends to portray the city as a necessarily subordinate conduit within larger structures rather than an entity in itself or as a hermeneutical object of enquiry Consequently not enough research has been committed to examining how local people and communities thought about engaged with and struggled against nearby or distant urban neighbors

Urban Interactions addresses this lacuna in urban history by presenting articles that apply a diverse spectrum of approaches from archaeological investigation to critical analyses of historiographical and historical biases and developmental consideration of antagonisms between ecclesiastical centers Through these avenues of investigation this volume elucidates the relationship between the urban centers and their immediate hinterlands and neighboring cities with which they might vie or collaborate This entanglement and competition whether subterranean or explicit across overarching political religious or other macro categories is evaluated through a broad geographical range of late Roman provinces and post Roman states to maintain an expansive perspective of developmental trends within and about the city

Gregory of Tours Alexander Callander Murray, 2005-12-01 Georgius Florentius Gregorius better known to posterity as Gregory Bishop of Tours was born about 538 to a highly distinguished Gallo Roman family in Clermont in the region of Auvergne Best known for his 10 book Histories often called the History of the Franks Gregory left us detailed accounts of his own times as well as those of the early Merovingian kings known as the long haired kings who united the Franks and took control of most of Gaul in the late fifth and early sixth century Although he is one of the most important historians of pre modern times the complex apparently disconnected elements of Gregory s work are often difficult for today s readers to understand This selected new translation is composed of extensive sections from Books II to X and follows in a connected narrative the political events of the Histories from the appearance of the first Merovingian kings Merovech Childeric and Clovis to the last years of the reigns of Guntram and Childebert II in the late sixth century This book is designed to introduce new readers and even experienced ones to the political world secular and ecclesiastical of sixth century Gaul and to provide an up to date guide to reading the bishop of Tours fascinating account of his times Included in this volume are twenty one drawings by Jean Paul Laurens a nineteenth century French historical artist and interpreter of the Merovingians

Mohammed and Charlemagne Henri Pirenne, 2012-04-18 DIVRemarkable classic that developed the revolutionary theory of how the advance and influence of Islam caused the Europe of the Roman Empire to evolve into the Europe of the Middle Ages div
