Roman De Gare:

, Encyclopedia of French Film Directors Philippe Rège, 2009-12-11 Cinema has been long associated with France dating back to 1895 when Louis and Auguste Lumi_re screened their works the first public viewing of films anywhere Early silent pioneers Georges Méliès Alice Guy Blaché and others followed in the footsteps of the Lumi_re brothers and the tradition of important filmmaking continued throughout the 20th century and beyond In Encyclopedia of French Film Directors Philippe Rège identifies every French director who has made at least one feature film since 1895 From undisputed masters to obscure one timers nearly 3 000 directors are cited here including at least 200 filmmakers not mentioned in similar books published in France Each director's entry contains a brief biographical summary including dates and places of birth and death information on the individual's education and professional training and other pertinent details such as real names when the filmmaker uses a pseudonym The entries also provide complete filmographies including credits for feature films shorts documentaries and television work Some of the most important names in the history of film can be found in this encyclopedia from masters of the Golden Age_Jean Renoir and René Clair_to French New Wave artists such as François Truffaut and Jean Luc Godard Madness in Twentieth-century French Women's Writing Suzanne Dow, 2009 Modern French Identities focuses on the French and Francophone writing of the twentieth and twenty first centuries whose formal experiments and revisions of genre have combined to create an entirely new set of literary forms The series publishes studies of individual authors and artists comparative studies and interdisciplinary projects Figures of Alterity Lawrence R. Schehr, 2003 This book focuses on the extension of realist writing toward alterity toward otherness in its ongoing efforts to enable individuals to speak and be heard correctly Through a series of close readings of six authors from Balzac to Proust the author shows the ways realist narrative engages the problem of bringing the other into the realm of the discursively representable The acts of representation involved in that development were not necessarily coterminous with either the representation of the exotic and its attendant stereotypes or with the representation of individuals themselves The representation of the other was the extension of discourse to what was previously unrepresentable The author argues that the unrepresentable is often perceived as oppositional because of the structuring of discourse by hierarchies and metaphysics whereby any bivalent pair is made into an oppositional pair Quiches, Kugels, and Couscous Joan Nathan, 2010-10-26 What is Jewish cooking in France That is the question that has haunted Joan Nathan over the years and driven her to unearth the secrets of this hidden cuisine Now she gives us the fruits of her quest in this extraordinary book a treasure trove of delectable kosher recipes and the often moving stories behind them interlaced with the tumultuous two thousand year history of the Jewish presence in France In her search Nathan takes us into kitchens in Paris Alsace and the Loire Valley she visits the bustling Belleville market in Little Tunis in Paris she breaks bread around the observation of the Sabbath and the celebration of special holidays All across France she finds that Jewish cooking is more alive than ever

Traditional dishes are honored yet many have acquired a French finesse and reflect regional differences The influx of Jewish immigrants from North Africa following Algerian independence has brought exciting new flavors and techniques that have infiltrated contemporary French cooking and the Sephardic influence is more pronounced throughout France today Now with Joan Nathan guiding us carefully translating her discoveries to our own home kitchens we can enjoy appetizers such as the rich subtle delight of a Terrine de Poireaux from Alsace or a brik that flaky little pastry from North Africa folded over a filling of tuna and cilantro soups such as cold sorrel or Moroccan Provençal Fish Soup with garlicky Rouille salads include a Mediterranean Artichoke and Orange Salad with Saffron Mint and a Tunisian Winter Squash Salad with Coriander and Harissa a variety of breads quiches and kugels try a Brioche for Rosh Hashanah a baconless quiche Lorraine or a Sabbath kugel based on a centuries old recipe main courses of Choucroute de Poisson a tagine with chicken and quince Brisket with Ginger Orange Peel and Tomato Southwestern Cassoulet with Duck and Lamb Tongue with Capers and Cornichons and Almondegues Algerian meatballs an inviting array of grains pulses couscous rice and unusual vegetable dishes from an eggplant gratin to a mélange of Chestnuts Onions and Prunes for a grand finale there are Parisian flans and tarts a Frozen Soufflé Rothschild and a Hanukkah Apple Cake as well as many other irresistible pastries and cookies These are but some of the treasures that Joan Nathan gives us in this unique collection of recipes and their stories In weaving them together she has created a book that is a testament to the Jewish people who despite waves of persecution are an integral part of France today contributing to the glory of its cuisine

The Beauty of the Real Mick LaSalle, 2012-05-09 Even as actresses become increasingly marginalized by Hollywood French cinema is witnessing an explosion of female talent a Golden Age unlike anything the world has seen since the days of Stanwyck Hepburn Davis and Garbo In France the joy of acting is alive and well Scores of French actresses are doing the best work of their lives in movies tailored to their star images and unique personalities Yet virtually no one this side of the Atlantic even knows about them Viewers who feel shortchanged by Hollywood will be thrilled to discover The Beauty of the Real This book showcases a range of contemporary French actresses to an audience that will know how to appreciate them an American public hungry for the exact qualities that these women represent To spend time with them to admire their flashing intelligence and fearless willingness to depict life as it is lived gives us what we re looking for in movies but so rarely find insights into womanhood meditations on the dark and light aspect s of life s journey revelations and explorations that move viewers to reflect on their own lives The stories they bring to the screen leave us feeling renewed and excited about movies again Based on one on one interviews and the viewing of numerous films Mick LaSalle has put together a fascinating profile of recent generations of French film stars and an overview of their best work These women s insights and words illuminate his book which will answer once and for all the two questions Americans most often have about women and the movies Where did all the great actresses go And how can I see their movies Please visit blog.sfgate.com/mlasalle 2012 09 23 rendezvous damerique to see a video discussing The Beauty of the Real at the Roxie Film Festival

Gender and Narrativity R. Barry Rutland,1997 It is impossible to imagine a community that is not divided into at least two gender groups It is equally impossible to imagine a community that does not tell or enact stories The relationship between these universal aspects of human culture is the mainspring of Gender and Narrativity From Genesis to Freud the Western narrative tradition tells the same old story of masculine dominance feminine subservience as a matter of divine will or natural truth Here nine Canadian scholars challenge and interpret this tradition in effect re telling the story of gender and themselves intervening in the narrative process Critical readings from a wide range of literary texts medieval and modern European and Canadian replace abstract theory in these studies while sociology anthropology psychoanalysis deconstruction and new history are the axes of discussion This book exemplifies the current range and diversity of Canadian critical writing

Pigeon Post Dumitru Tsepeneag,2008 Here is a book about a man supposedly a writer who tries to write a novel because he promised his readers he would But he doesn t have anything to say He keeps erasing what he writes and rewriting it without having the slightest idea where he s going with it Soon enough he realizes that looking out of the window sitting in front of his typewriter describing anything and everything is not enough to write a novel His three friends Edmond Edgar and Edouard will aid him in his task Pigeon Post will be the second book Dalkey Archive has published by the Romanian writer Dumitru Tsepeneag after the critically acclaimed Vain Art of the Fugue and we will be publishing more of his works in the years to come

Ancient Greek Women in Film Konstantinos P. Nikoloutsos,2013-11-28 This volume examines cinematic representations of ancient Greek women from the realms of myth and history It discusses how these female figures are resurrected on the big screen by different filmmakers during different historical moments and are therefore embedded within a narrative which serves various purposes depending on the director of the film its screenwriters the studio the country of its origin and the sociopolitical context at the time of its production Using a diverse array of hermeneutic approaches such as gender theory feminist criticism psychoanalysis viewer response theory and personal voice criticism the essays aim to cast light on cinema s investments in the classical past and decode the mechanisms whereby the women under examination are extracted from their original context and are brought to life to serve as vehicles for the articulation of modern ideas concerns and cultural trends The volume thus aims to investigate not only how antiquity on the screen depicts and in this process distorts compresses contests and revises antiquity on the page but also more crucially why the medium follows such eclectic representational strategies vis vis the classical world

The Beautiful Room Is Empty Edmund White, 2010-09-08 White's poised yet scalding autobiographical novel is the story of a young man's coming of age in 1950s and 60s America With intelligence candor humor and anger White explores the most insidious aspects of oppression An impressive novel

Washington Post book World The country has no room for a scholarly teenager with guilty but insatiable stirrings toward other men Moving from a Midwestern college to the Stonewall Tavern on the night of the first gay uprising and populated by eloquent queens butch poseurs and a fearfully incompetent shrink The Beautiful Room is Empty conflates the acts of coming out and coming of age
