LAW AND ORDER UPDATE

WE'RE REVOLTING! SAYS REBEL RABBLE

Slasher Spartacus, darling of the Gladiator Arena, has put the wind up a few togas. The ex-soldier from Thracia has horrified citizens by quitting his job in the arena to concentrate on a major rebellion.

After defeating four Roman armies, Spartacus is currently hiding out in Tarentum with 6,000 renegade gladiators and slaves.

The Roman Senate has sent two top generals and 40,000 troops to settle the matter.

Generals Pompey and Spartacus, yesterday.

Crassus told the Record: "We intend to slice Spartacus and his shabby bunch of nobodies into pieces. Then we're going to crucify whoever's left."

Concerned citizens of Pompeii, near Naples, were told yesterday "Your town is safe" by Roman Senator Livius Impulvius.

Town officials hope this announcement will quell fears of an eruption from nearby Mount Vesuvius which could easily cover the town in ash and red-hot lava.

"House prices have just collapsed," said a local merchant, "and nobody will invest in the town."

EXTINCT

Anxiety has been mounting following reports of billowing smoke emerging from the so-called "extinct" mountain. But Impulvius has dismissed these sightings as "a bit of dust flying around."

"Besides," he told the Record, "such talk of impending disaster is all poppycock. I've spent considerable sums of money consulting all manner of fortune tellers and soothsayers, and what they have to say about Pompeii is most encouraging.

Pompeian citizens contemplating a red-hot future.

Time and time again I get the same message. 'Pompeii will become one of the most famous towns in Ancient Times. Its buildings, businesses, even its house decorations, will become the object of intensive study, and influence European art and design well into the 20th century.' That doesn't sound like a town that's about to get covered in red-hot ashes to me!"
