Romance Of British Colonial Style:

Romance British Colonial Style Tricia Foley, 1995-11-01 The Romance of British Colonial Style Tricia Foley, 1993 The author of Having Tea and Linens and Lace turns to the enduring design traditions that accompanied British colonists around the world in the 19th century The Romance of British Colonial Style includes ideas for updating British colonial style to suit today's way of living as well as a glossary a bibliography a filmography and a source and travel directory Full color photographs

The Romance of Colonial Style Tricia Foley, Jeff McNamara, Catherine Calvert, 1993 Houses Far From Home Margaret Rodman Critchlow, 2001-03-01 The houses far from home featured in this book are located in Vanuatu a chain of islands between Fiji and Australia in the southwest Pacific Once known as the Anglo French Condominium of the New Hebrides the islands were jointly administered by the British and French from 1906 to 1980 In this innovative and revealing study of a unique colonial project Margaret Rodman tells the stories of these houses exploring the profound differences of perspective experience and power that domestic spaces reveal and offering a novel look at the history of British colonialism in the Pacific Each chapter has at its heart a house where readers can explore dimensions of race gender and power that domestic spaces reveal Moving across time between different islands and actors between oral memories and archival documents Margaret Rodman provides a richly documented multi sited ethnography of the social history of the New Hebrides

World Film Locations: Hong Kong Linda Chiu-Han Lai, Kimburley Wing-yee Choi, 2014-05-14 The rapid development of Hong Kong has occasioned the demolition of buildings and landscapes of historic significance but film acts as a repository for memories of lost places vanished vistas and material objects Location shoots in Hong Kong have preserved many disappearing landmarks of the city and the resulting films function as valuable and irreplaceable archives of the city's evolution Far more than a simple collection of movie locations this book delivers a rare glimpse into the history of film production practices in Hong Kong The locations described here are often not the most iconic rather they are the anonymous streets and back alleys used by local film studios in the 1960s and 70s They are the garden cafes with outdoor seating near the Chinese University of Hong Kong where moments of conflict in romantic comedies erupt and dissipate They are the old Kai Tak Airport which channels rage and desire and the tenement housing which splits citizens into greedy landlords and the diligent working class and embodies old day communal values Modern Hong Kong horror films draw their power from the material character of home grown convenient stores shopping arcades and lost mansions found under modern high rises As in the films of Wong Kar wai and Johnnie To readers will drift and dash through the streets of Central to the district's periphery almost recklessly automatically or for the sheer pleasure of roaming The first of its kind in English this book is more than a city guide to Hong Kong through the medium of film it is a unique exploration of relationship between location and place and genre innovations in Hong Kong cinema

British Colonial Realism in Africa Deborah Shapple Spillman, 2012-05-04 What role do objects play in realist narratives as they move between societies and their different systems of value as commodities as charms as gifts as trophies or as curses This book explores how the struggle to represent objects in British colonial realism corresponded with historical struggles over the material world and its significance

ADL: Island Style Jim Kemp,2002 Casually refreshing island style has hit the decorating world Sisal and bamboo carpeting rattan furnishings palettes of bright whites and tropical pastels all come accompanied by accents such as carved wooden bowls netting and cool motifs If you want your home to look like a Caribbean or South Pacific haven open these pages for sun sky and sea blessed ideas Any house will evoke warmer climes when it s dressed in natural earth tones and creamy white linens with an evocative ceiling fan and a screen reminiscent of shutters From publisher description

Imperial Romance Su Yun Kim,2020-11-15 In Imperial Romance Su Yun Kim argues that the idea of colonial intimacy within the Japanese empire of the early twentieth century had a far broader and more popular influence on discourse makers social leaders and intellectuals than previously understood Kim investigates representations of Korean Japanese intimate and familial relationships including romance marriage and kinship in literature media and cinema alongside documents that discuss colonial policies during the Japanese protectorate period and colonial rule in Korea 1905 45 Focusing on Korean perspectives Kim uncovers political meaning in the representation of intimacy and emotion between Koreans and Japanese portrayed in print media and films Imperial Romance disrupts the conventional reading of colonial period texts as the result of either coercion or the disavowal of colonialism thereby expanding our understanding of colonial writing practices The theme of intermarriage gave elite Korean writers and cultural producers opportunities to question their complicity with imperialism Their fictions challenged expected colonial boundaries creating tensions in identity and hierarchy and also in narratives of the linear developmental trajectory of modernity Examining a broad range of writings and films from this period Imperial Romance maps the colonized subjects fascination with their colonizers and with moments that allowed them to become active participants in and agents of Japanese and global imperialism Colonial Homes ,1993 Classic American style Finding Love in Wild West Grace Livingston Hill,2023-11-11 In Finding Love in the Wild West Grace Livingston Hill weaves a captivating narrative set against the tumultuous backdrop of America s western frontier in the late 19th century This romance novel rich in vivid descriptions and emotional depth explores themes of love faith and resilience Hill s unique literary style combines elements of adventure and spirituality reflecting the cultural milieu of her time as she navigates the challenges faced by women in a rapidly changing society The intertwining of personal longing with the expansive yet lonely landscape creates a poignant commentary on the quest for belonging and fulfillment Grace Livingston Hill 1865 1947 was a prominent American author known for her prolific writing career that spanned several decades Her upbringing in a devout Christian family coupled with her experiences in the rapidly expanding American West profoundly influenced her narratives Hill s passion for exploring the intersection of faith and romance manifests vividly in this novel as she delves into the complexities of human relationships in a time marked by both uncertainty and hope Finding Love in the Wild West is a splendid choice for readers who revel in heartfelt romances imbued with spiritual themes Hill's eloquent prose and her nuanced portrayal of characters make this novel a compelling exploration of love's transformative power It is a must read for anyone seeking solace in literature that celebrates faith adventure and the boundless possibilities of love A Bride from the Bush Ernest William Hornung,2020-12-08 In A Bride from the Bush Ernest William Hornung skillfully weaves a narrative that encapsulates the essence of Australian life in the late 19th century The novel follows the journey of a young woman from the bush who navigates her desires and societal expectations in a world marked by rugged landscapes and shifting social norms Hornung employs a rich descriptive style that immerses readers in the vibrant Australian setting while also delving into themes of love identity and the complexities of frontier life His deft characterizations breathe life into the struggles and triumphs of his protagonists making it a noteworthy contribution to colonial literature illuminating the nuanced interactions between tradition and modernity Hornung an English author with a profound appreciation for Australia drew inspiration from his own experiences and observations during his time in the region A man of varied literary pursuits he became well acquainted with the Australian bush and its inhabitants which informed his understanding of the cultural and social dynamics at play This unique perspective enabled Hornung to craft authentic narratives that resonate with both local and international audiences fostering a rich dialogue about colonial identity and belonging Readers seeking a compelling exploration of human relationships set against the backdrop of the Australian bush will find A Bride from the Bush an enriching experience Hornung's masterful storytelling invites both literary enthusiasts and casual readers to reflect on the interplay between landscape and character making it a timeless read that offers insights into the complexities of love and life during a transformative era The New York Times Book Review ,1993-10 Presents extended reviews of noteworthy books short reviews essays and articles on topics and trends in publishing literature culture and the arts Includes lists of best sellers hardcover and paperback Romance Fandom in 21st-Century Pakistan Javaria Farooqui,2024-10-31 Romance Fandom in 21st century Pakistan offers the first major study of English speaking romance fandom in South Asia providing a new reader centric model that engages with romance readers as genre experts Javaria Farooqui inspects the popular Anglophone romance reading community in Pakistan and develops a model for analysing genre romance novels through the lens of the readers perspective and preferences Using focus group interviews and close textual analysis Romance Fandom in 21st century Pakistan explores where and how readers access books of their choice and explains why the detailed descriptions of dresses food and spaces in historical romance novels of the Regency era exemplify good taste for this distinctive readership Sitting at the intersection of literary studies genre studies and fan studies this book considers the reception of Anglophone romance fiction by reading communities of colour Twentieth-century Romance and Gothic Writers James Vinson,D. L. Kirkpatrick,1982 Transnational Yearnings Jenny Burman,2011-01-01 The global pathways that connect cities and nations are congested with people money and cultural transmissions Transnational Yearnings is about the migrations and uneven exchanges that bind postcolonial Jamaica to the diasporic city It is about the desires intimacies and power relations that at once inform and reflect transnational migration and the diasporization of urban space This innovative and provocative book maps out a new way to look at contemporary contact zones and global interconnections as it traces circuits of migration and leisure travel between the Caribbean and Toronto a city that has become for Jamaican Canadians both a place of promise and cultural vitality and a site of criminalization and exclusion through deportation Transnational Yearnings is an important addition to recent scholarship on Caribbean transnationalism and Canadian Caribbean relations one that paints a fuller portrait of Jamaican immigrants than we often see Twentieth-century Romance and Historical Writers Lesley
