A common narrative of the post World War II economists was that the State is indispensable for guiding investment and fostering innovation They claimed that the wealth of the modern world is the result of past State guidance and that what is needed for future economic growth is more State guidance This position has recently been rejuvenated in reaction to the Great Recession of 2008 The truth is that the enriched modern economy was not a product of State coercion It was a product of a change in political and social rhetoric in northwestern Europe from 1517 to 1789 The Great Enrichment that came from human ingenuity emancipated from the bottom up not human ingenuity directed from the top down The true question is what on balance is the best way to organize innovation by the wise State or by commercially tested betterment The American Institute for Economic Research in Great Barrington Massachusetts was founded in 1933 as the first independent voice for sound economics in the United States Today it publishes ongoing research hosts educational programs publishes books sponsors interns and scholars and is home to the world renowned Bastiat Society and the highly respected Sound Money Project The American Institute for Economic Research is a 501c3 public charity The Adam Smith Institute is one of the world's leading think tanks recognised as the best domestic and international economic policy think tank in the UK and ranked 2nd in the world among Independent Think Tanks by the University of Pennsylvania Independent non profit and non partisan the Adam Smith Institute works to promote free market neoliberal ideas through research publishing media outreach and education The Institute is today at the forefront of making the case for free markets and a free society in the United Kingdom The Institute was founded in the 1970s as post war socialism reached its high watermark Then as now its purpose was to educate the public about free markets and economic policy and to inject sound ideas into the public debate
