Romania Revisited Alan Ogden, 2022-08-01 Romania Revisited is the definitive story of the journeys made by English travelers to Romania between 1602 and 1941 The author Alan Ogden interweaves the impressions of previous generations into the witty account of his own journeys made in the summer and winter of 1998 Starting with the Transylvanian adventures of Captain John Smith in 1602 the bibliography is the most detailed inventory yet published of English travel writing on Romania The author's own journey is a comprehensive and perspicacious review of today's Romania Ogden focuses on the heritage and art of the country while providing a delightful account of his own experiences en route The book is illustrated with the author's own photographs based on the work of Kurt Hielscher in 1933 and with helpful maps drawn by the author Romania Revisited makes a valuable contribution to the study of the external perception of Romania over the centuries and is the perfect travel companion for today's visitor

Mapping Impressionist Painting in Transnational Contexts Emily C. Burns, Alice M. Rudy Price, 2021-05-03 This book offers microhistories related to the transnational circulations of impressionism in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries The contributors rethink the role of French impressionism in shaping these iterations by placing France within its global and imperialist context and arguing that impressionisms might be framed through the mobility studies concept of constellations of mobility Artists engaging with impressionism in France as in other global contexts relied on responded to appropriated and resisted elements of form and content based on fluid and interconnected political realities and market structures Written by scholars and curators the chapters demand reconsideration of impressionism as a historical construct and the meanings assigned to that term This project frames future discussion in art history cultural studies and global studies on the politics of appropriating impressionism
