Romanians 1774 1866:

The Romanians, 1774-1866 Keith Hitchins, 1996 This original and ground breaking work examines the building of the European nation which became Romania in 1859 The evolution of the Romanians in the century between the 1770s and the 1860s was marked by a transition from long established agrarian economic and social structures locked into an essentially medieval political system to a society moulded by urban and industrial values and held together by allegiance to the nation state This fascinating analysis of the building of a European nation state is the first detailed account of the Romanians during this dramatic period History Derailed Ivan T. Berend, 2003-06-17 There is probably no greater authority on the modern history of central and eastern Europe than Ivan Berend whose previous work Decades of Crisis was hailed by critics as masterful and the broadest synthesis of the modern social economic and cultural history of the region that we possess Now having brought together and illuminated this region's storm tossed history in the twentieth century Berend turns his attention to the equally turbulent period that preceded it The long nineteenth century extending up to World War I contained the seeds of developments and crises that continue to haunt the region today The book begins with an overview of the main historical trends in the sixteenth to the eighteenth centuries during which time the region lost momentum and became the periphery no longer in step with the rising West It concludes with an account of the persisting authoritarian political structures and the failed modernization that paved the way for social and political revolts The origins of twentieth century extremism and its tragedies are plainly visible in this penetrating account A Circle of Friends Angela Jianu, 2011-03-24 Angela Jianu explores the lives and activities of a group of Romanian revolutionaries exiled in Paris London and the Middle East in the aftermath of the insurrections of 1848 Drawing largely on diaries memoirs and private correspondence A Circle of Friends is a social history of political exile presenting the personal life dramas of the protagonists within the wider context of the European post revolutionary turmoil of the 1850s Exile and political repression allied this group not only to their Hungarian and Polish peers but also to French republicans English radicals and Italian freedom fighters Their story reveals the existence of transnational networks of left wing radical and republican movements in mid nineteenth century Europe against the background of nation building projects in East Central Europe Europe and the Historical Legacies in the Balkans Raymond Detrez, Barbara Segaert, 2008 The enlargement of the EU with the Balkan countries has aroused the skepticism of many Although EU admission is primarily a matter of economic and political concerns questions of cultural import are readily brought into play Does the country in question conform sufficiently to our standards of a European identity The problematic status of the Balkans in this respect largely consists in their common Byzantine and Ottoman legacies By focusing on Bulgaria and its neighbours Romania Greece and Turkey the authors of this collection attempt to elucidate how mutually incompatible the cultural identity of the Ottoman successor states and that of Europe are Ample attention is devoted not only to the perception of the Balkans in the West but also to the self image of people in the Balkans and perceptions they hold of the West If anything like a Balkan identity can be said to exist what is its relation to the various ethnic national religious and linguistic communities Notably what was and is the role played by religion in nation state formation The relationship with Europe forms the thread that runs through the discussion of these issues Europe Since 1945 Bernard A. Cook, 2001 Employing 286 scholars this two volume encyclopedia contains entries on post World War II European political history and groups significant events and persons the economy religion education the arts women s issues writers and more Romania, 1916-1941 Dennis Deletant, 2022-08-19 This study challenges the rose tinted view of the interwar period in Romanian history which is often judged against the darkness of almost five decades of Communist rule Romania like several of the states of Eastern Europe emerged from the First World War as it had entered it as a predominantly agricultural country and one of its major problems was the condition of the peasantry This volume s focus is the drive to improve that condition on the collapse of democracy and the search by Romania s leaders for strategies to secure the state to assert the country s independence and to maintain its territorial integrity in the face of the threat to the European order posed by two totalitarian systems represented by Nazi Germany and the Soviet Union By examining recent scholarship this volume provides the most up to date account of Romania s predicament in the interwar years Romania 1916 1941 is a useful resource for upper level undergraduates postgraduates and scholars interested in foreign policy politics society internationalization and late development in interwar Central and Eastern Europe Germany's Empire in the East David Hamlin, 2017-07-03 The collapse of political and economic order in World War One prompted Germany to turn to empire in Eastern Europe What Is a Nation? Timothy Baycroft, Mark Hewitson, 2006-06-29 This volume analyses and compares different forms of nationalism across a range of European countries and regions during the long nineteenth century It aims to put detailed studies of nationalist politics and thought which have proliferated over the last ten years or so into a wider European context By means of such contextualization together with new and systematic comparisons What is a Nation Europe 1789 1914 reassesses the arguments put forward in the principal works on nationalism as a whole many of which pre date the proliferation of case studies in the 1990s and which as a consequence make only inadequate reference to the national histories of European states The study reconsiders whether the distinction between civic and ethnic identities and politics in Europe has been overstated and whether it needs to be replaced altogether by a new set of concepts or types What is a Nation explores the relationship between this and other typologies relating them to complex processes of industrialization increasing state intervention secularization democratization and urbanization Debates about citizenship political economy liberal institutions socialism empire changes in the states system Darwinism high and popular culture Romanticism and Christianity all affected and were affected by discussion of nationhood and nationalist politics The volume investigates the significance of such controversies and institutional changes for the history of modern nationalism as it was defined in diverse European countries and regions during the long nineteenth century By placing particular nineteenth century nationalist movements and nation building in a broader comparative context prominent historians of particular European states give an original and authoritative reassessment designed to appeal to students and academic readers alike of one of the most contentious topics of the modern period

Archaeological Sites as Space for Modern Spiritual Practice Raimund Karl, Jutta Leskova, 2018-11-07 Archaeological heritage can be disputed especially where it is important to religions and their practitioners While the destruction of archaeological sites in war often due to religious fervour is frequently making the headlines apparently lesser disputes about local heritage sites go unreported This book focuses on these lesser but much more frequent potential conflicts between archaeological heritage management and conservation on the one hand and practitioners of religious beliefs who use archaeological heritage in their practice on the other By exploring case studies from Austria the Czech Republic Estonia France Norway Romania Russia Spain Sweden and Wales this book examines the interaction between spiritual practice and monuments conservation This book will be of great interest to heritage professionals archaeologists historians conservationists and religious practitioners alike through its exploration of various kinds of interactions between these different heritage communities and their interests in archaeology

Church and State Cristian Romocea, 2011-04-21 Twenty years have passed since the fall of the Iron Curtain yet emerging democracies continue to struggle with a secular state which does not give preference to churches as major political players This book explores the nationalist inclinations of an Eastern Orthodox Church as it interacts with a politically immature yet decisively democratic Eastern European state Discussing the birth pangs of extreme nationalist movements of the twentieth century it offers a creative retelling of the ideological idiosyncrasies which have characterized Marxist Communism and Nazism Cristian Romocea provides a constant juxtaposition of the ideological movements as they interacted and affected organized religion at times seeking to remove it assimilate it or even imitate it Of interest to historians theologians and politicians this book introduces the reader through a case study of Romania to relevant and contemporary challenges churches worldwide are facing in a context characterized by increased secularization of the state and radicalization of religion

Imagining Frontiers, Contesting Identities Steven G. Ellis, Lud'a Klusáková, 2007

Why Angels Fall Victoria Clark, 2011-11-21 Compelling powerful magnificent THE TIMES In revealing encounters with monks nuns bishops and archbishops in monasteries ancient and modern Victoria Clark measures the depth and width of the gulf now separating Europe's Orthodox East from the Catholic and Protestant West Many of the differences in outlook priorities and even values can be traced back to the 1054 schism between the churches of Rome and Constantinople which created Europe's most durable fault line Travelling from Mount Athos to Istanbul and unravelling the tangled history Victoria Clark demonstrates a rare sympathy with Eastern Orthodox Europe I finished the book wanting to meet this intelligent warm hearted writer and to follow her to some of the places she visited LITERARY REVIEW A masterful synthesis of vivid and often humorous travel writing a series of probing interviews and a pertinent historical context THE TIMES Exhilarating her book will be immensely helpful to anyone occasionally puzzled by events especially politics in Eastern Europe FINANCIAL TIMES Bukovina Cristina Florea, 2025-12-16 The making and remaking of Bukovina a disputed Eastern European borderland from the eighteenth century to the present day Bukovina when it has existed on official maps has always fit uneasily among its neighbors The region is now divided between Romania and Ukraine but has long been a testing ground for successive regimes including the Habsburg Empire independent and later Nazi allied Romania and the Soviet Union as each sought to reshape the region in its own image In this beautifully written and wide ranging book Cristina Florea traces the history of Bukovina showing how this borderland the onetime buffer between Christendom and Islam found itself at the forefront of modern state building and governance projects that eventually extended throughout the rest of Europe Encounters that play out in borderlands have proved crucial to the development of modern state ambitions and governance practices Drawing on a wide range of archives and published sources in Russian Ukrainian German Romanian French and Yiddish Florea integrates stories of ethnic and linguistic groups rural Ukrainians Romanians and Germans and urban German speaking Jews and Poles who lived side by side in Bukovina all of them navigating constant reconfiguration and reinvention Challenging traditional chronologies in European history she shows that different transformations in the region occurred at different tempos creating a historical palimpsest and a sense among locals that they had lived many lives A two hundred year history of a region shaped by the conflicting pulls of imperial legacies and national ambitions Bukovina reveals the paradoxes of modern history found in a microcosm of Eastern Europe 1996 Massimo Mastrogregori, 2014-02-21 Annually published since 1930 the International bibliography of Historical Sciences IBOHS is an international bibliography of the most important historical monographs and periodical articles published throughout the world which deal with history from the earliest to the most recent times The works are arranged systematically according to period region or historical discipline and within this classification alphabetically The bibliography contains a geographical index and indexes of persons and authors Post-Communist Progress and Stagnation at 35 Lavinia Stan, Diane Vancea, 2024-04-28 This book examines Romania's efforts to consolidate liberal democracy and market economy as desired by the generation who effected change in 1989 and required by the European Union The ousting of Nicolae Ceausescu leader of an autarchic and nationalistic dictatorship underscored the limitations of politically engineering change when rule of law is weak institutions are misused and intolerance and cheating are prevalent Despite initial hopes Romania's transition combined progress and stagnation missed opportunities detours unintended consequences and success The contributions illustrate the tenuous relationship between continuity and change in a country that is yet to catch up with its neighbors Nationalist Politics and Everyday Ethnicity in a Transylvanian Town Rogers Brubaker, Margit Feischmidt, Jon Fox, Liana Grancea, 2018-06-05 Situated on the geographic margins of two nations yet imagined as central to each Transylvania has long been a site of nationalist struggles Since the fall of communism these struggles have been particularly intense in Cluj Transylvania's cultural and political center Yet heated nationalist rhetoric has evoked only muted popular response The citizens of Cluj the Romanian speaking majority and the Hungarian speaking minority have been largely indifferent to the nationalist claims made in their names Based on seven years of field research this book examines not only the sharply polarized fields of nationalist politics in Cluj Transylvania and the wider region but also the more fluid terrain on which ethnicity and nationhood are experienced enacted and understood in everyday life In doing so the book addresses fundamental questions about ethnicity where it is when it matters and how it works Bridging conventional divisions of academic labor Rogers Brubaker and his collaborators employ perspectives seldom found together historical and ethnographic institutional and interactional political and experiential Further developing the argument of Brubaker s groundbreaking Ethnicity without Groups the book demonstrates that it is ultimately in and through everyday experience as much as in political contestation or cultural articulation that ethnicity and nationhood are produced and reproduced as basic categories of social and political life

Social and Political Foundations of Constitutions Denis J. Galligan, Mila Versteeg, 2013-10-14 This volume explores the social and political forces behind constitution making from a global perspective It combines leading theoretical perspectives on the social and political foundations of constitutions with a range of in depth case studies on constitution making in nineteen countries The result is an examination of constitutions as social phenomena and their interaction with other social phenomena from various perspectives in the social sciences

Beyond the Balkans Sabine Rutar, 2014 This book shows how current and future research on the social history of the Balkans can be integrated into a broader European framework The contributions look at a range of methodological and empirical issues and the theme that links the various studies is that of the contrasting yet at the same time entangled ideas of the Balkans as a mental map and of Southeast Europe as an historical region Series Studies on South East Europe Vol 10

State Formation in Wallachia, 1740-1800 Vasile Mihai Olaru, 2024-12-21 This book explores the transformation of the state in Wallachia an Ottoman tributary principality between 1740 and 1800 by focusing on three administrative techniques regulations paperwork registers identification certificates and weights and measures The implementation by the central power of regulations bookkeeping certificates and standard units of measurement was not smooth but it nevertheless heralded the beginning of the struggle against localism and the efforts to extend the boundaries of legitimate state action The author challenges the mostly Romanian historiography of the Phanariot period which has portrayed the state as a set of institutions undertaking certain responsibilities and has insisted almost exclusively on its extractive function and abusive character Instead this book takes a closer look at how the Wallachian state functioned examining how its means of interacting with its subjects changed in the second half of the eighteenth century Rethinking the problem of the state in eighteenth century Wallachia traditionally regarded as a mere instrument of Ottoman domination it claims that it was precisely during this time that the bases of modern statehood were laid in a context defined by imperial rivalries Ottoman Habsburg Russian in the region Making the case for state formation in the absence of preparation for war the author also stresses in contrast to recent contributions that decentre the state the need to study the process whereby the effect of state coherence is produced While focusing on Wallachia this book provides valuable reading for those interested in early modern administrative and legal history the history of state formation and Southeast European history more generally Entangled Histories of the Balkans - Volume One ,2013-07-15 Modern Balkan history has traditionally been studied by national historians in terms of separate national histories taking place within bounded state territories The authors in this volume take a different approach They all seek to treat the modern history of the region from a transnational and relational perspective in terms of shared and connected as well as entangled histories transfers and crossings This goes along with an interest in the way ideas institutions and techniques were selected transferred and adapted to Balkan conditions and how they interacted with those conditions The volume also invites reflection on the interacting entities in the very process of their creation and consecutive transformations rather than taking them as givens Contributors include Alexander Vezhenkov Constantin Iordachi Raymond Detrez Ronelle Alexander Roumen Daskalov and Tchavdar Marinov
