The Vital Villain Jonathan E Thomas,2025-08-12 For this reason I raised you up that I might display my power in you and that my name might be proclaimed in all the earth Romans 9 17 Thus Yahweh the God of the ancient Israelites was said to have sent a message to Pharaoh of ancient Egypt who held the nation of Israel under bondage In deliberately hardening Pharaoh's heart and turning him into the ultimate arch enemy of Moses and Aaron in the now world famous narrative of the Exodus from Egypt Yahweh created for His newly liberated people the most historic and awe inspiring of contrasts Little did Pharaoh know that in his refusal to bow the knee to Yahweh he would serve the purposes of the Divine in the most glorious and triumphant of high wire spectacles As all great story tellers know there is no compelling narrative without a great villain Thus Yahweh this most jealous of all gods set apart Pharaoh the ultimate nemesis to serve as an unwitting agent in establishing the basis of faith for billions of people for thousands of years to come And St Paul writing to the Christians in Rome over a millennia later would appeal to this principle of the Divine utilizing the vital villain reasoning that in the same way that Pharaoh was used in the establishing of a new people set apart so also St Paul's own countrymen those Pharisees who had lost the plot of the historic spiritual essence of their own faith would also serve as unwitting agents in the continued glory of the story The Gospel According to Paul Graham H. Twelftree, 2019-11-20 Paul's gospel is misunderstood Paul's gospel is seen as his message perhaps an empowered message he saw it differently His gospel can be many things tradition about Jesus Jesus Christ himself the ministry of Jesus the replication of the ministry of Jesus God's salvific drama the salvation experience of people a message and something that can and should be embodied or lived And the gospel does not come to people in Paul's preaching He says it comes or takes place in both his message and the miraculous Without the involvement and acts of God in the miraculous for Paul there would have been no gospel only preaching It is not that the miraculous was simply a proof or demonstration of the gospel it was integral to it In the gospel's coming or establishment it is clear that at heart the gospel is God's salvation the presence of God himself in Christ experienced in the symbiotic relationship between Paul's message about God's Son Jesus Christ and the activity of God in the miraculous Not surprisingly then Paul rarely talks of preaching the gospel He sees himself as gospelling Beyond the Evangelical Gender Roles Gridlock Paul J. Palma, 2024-11-30 Present day Evangelicalism represents a microcosm of broader tensions over male and female gender roles with some denominations carefully delimiting women leadership roles especially the female pastor and many others supporting them The letters attributed to Paul the Apostle contain several divisive passages on the meaning of manhood and womanhood Dated and dubious readings of these have led some Christians and non Christians alike to conclude that Paul wrote with misogynistic intent Others quote them to justify Christian patriarchalism Beyond the Evangelical Gender Roles Gridlock Reimagining Paul's Views on Women Marriage and Ministry reassesses what Paul said about women reinterpreting his claims on marriage and ministry leadership in light of his first century worldview This book proposes a nuanced theological egalitarian approach with significant implications for renewing twenty first century congregations homes and society Why I Am Not an Arminian Robert A. Peterson, Michael D. Williams, 2010-08-03 Exploring biblical theological and historical perspectives Robert A. Peterson and Michael D. Williams critique problematic aspects of Arminian thought particularly Arminian views on human nature and God's sovereignty The Trustworthiness of God Paul Helm, Carl R. Trueman, 2002 For two millennia the church has affirmed and celebrated Scripture as the written word of God However in the twentieth century the doctrine of Scripture became the focus and flashpoint for division One legacy of those debates has been a reluctance to address the nature of Scripture This collection of essays seeks to re open dialogue on this fundamental tenet of the Christian faith by offering something of a prelude to a fresh approach to Scripture In particular these explorations seek to map out some implications of the fundamental link between the character of God as trustworthy and the trustworthiness of His word Following an introductory orientation the first two sections take soundings in selected texts from the Old and New Testaments The third section offers perspectives from church history and also grapples with aspects of the contemporary context and philosophical and epistemological issues Two responses to the main essays complete the collection None of the contributors wishes to articulate the discussion in terms of the categories of past controversies or pretends to offer an exhaustive analysis All however share the desire to engage their readers in constructive dialogue on this vital issue

The Oxford Handbook of Origen Ronald E. Heine, Karen Jo Torjesen, 2022 This Handbook interrogates Origen's legacy for the twenty first century exploring problems of translation transmission and the positioning of Origen in the histories of philosophy theology and orthodoxy Mercy for All Robert D. Anderson, 2023-12-20 This is a study in the interpretation of Paul with a focus on an interpretation of Romans 9 to 11 as a defense of God's faithfulness to Israel The study begins with reviews of three historical approaches to studying Paul's relationship to the Judaism of his era the third anchoring Paul with the Judaism of his time Second Temple Judaism It then moves to an interpretation of his writings from a broad framework within that Jewish sociocultural paradigm The study suggests that Paul's letter to the Romans provides a defense of Judaism and Romans 9 to 11 provides an argument for God's faithfulness to Israel Romans 11 particularly 11:25-32 presents a picture of Israel's redemption and how gentiles relate to Israel's redemption through the mercy they have received via Israel Gentiles are seen as instrumental in the redemption of Israel Romans 11:25-32 should be read as a missional paradigm to Israel

Charism in the Church Constant Leke Ngolefac, 2024-03-01 Charism is a hot contemporary issue The growing interest in the charisms is one of the significant religious developments of our time Opinions on charisms vary to a remarkable degree Unfortunately in some cases diverse viewpoints have led to confusion among Christians On the positive side though this developing interest in charisms has contributed to spiritual renewal and stimulated biblical research in this most important area of the Church's life The exponential growth of the Charismatic Pentecostal Movement throughout the world and especially in Africa urged led to choice of this topic on charisms In the Charismatic Pentecostal Movements the issue of charisms is very vital and extremely important It is at the centre of its spirituality and practice This Movement has spread to almost all major Christian confessions denominations and continues to attract many followers This work is unique among the many studies written on the charisms Even though the subject of charisms has received some scholarly attention most have not delved into the role of the charisms in the Church from Pauline perspective as this study does The following observations and reasons demonstrate that it is still meaningful and worthwhile to study charisms in Pauline letters

The Righteous

Judgment of God John Richard Coulson, 2016-12-22 This book seeks to fill a gap on the important topic of God's judgment. It is written for Christians who desire to have a biblical worldview that helps them to live faithfully for Jesus Christ. It investigates what the apostle Paul has to say in his letters about God's judgment. The worldview that emerges is one that must not be ignored of judgment as fundamental to our human life as Adam's descendants of God's judgment at work in the world today and of the final judgment as the certain future for every person. At the center is the decisive judgment of our sin in Christ at the cross which is God's answer to our judgment problem. For each of these four aspects of judgment key questions are considered with the central question being How do we live in the light of this truth. Paul and the Economy of Salvation

Brendan SJ Byrne, 2021-08-17 This major contribution to Pauline scholarship by a widely respected New Testament scholar is the culmination of over forty years of teaching on Paul. Brendan Byrne demonstrates that topics often discussed in Pauline studies and Christian theology go astray when the significance of the last judgment falls from view. Offering a fresh Catholic perspective that engages with centuries of Protestant interpretation, this book recaptures the significance of the motif of the last judgment for the interpretation of Paul.

Predestination Greg Kame, 2021-03-11 The doctrine of predestination is an important starting point for the study of Christian theology thought from a Reformed theological perspective. This doctrine is essential because it is one of the central themes from the Bible that has been the reason for many debates among many theologians in the history of the church. Despite the different views held by mainline Protestant theologians like Martin Luther, John Calvin, and Jacobus Arminius, this book points to Scripture as the basis for Reformed soteriology. It uses the tools of biblical interpretation to show how the entire Bible addresses the doctrine of predestination so that theology students, pastors, Bible teachers, and anyone interested in Christian theology will better understand predestination from a Reformed perspective toward an effective ministry today.

The Message of Women Derek Tidball, Dianne Tidball, 2020-05-21 Women appear in key places and roles throughout the biblical story line. In the Old Testament we find Eve in the garden of Eden, the matriarchs Sarah, Rebekah, Leah, and Rachel, Deborah and Ruth in the time of the Judges, the prophetesses Huldah in King Josiah's time, the capable woman of Proverbs 31, the passionate woman in the Song of Songs. In the Gospels, various women are involved in the life of Jesus, not least his mother Mary and the first witnesses to his resurrection. The book of Acts includes Lydia, the converted businesswoman, and Priscilla, the fearless teacher. Furthermore, both testaments also contain much teaching about women's life and ministry, for example in prayer, in worship, in marriage, and in leadership. Derek and Dianne Tidball's wide-ranging exposition begins with some foundations about women in creation and in the new creation. Next, they survey women under the old covenant. Thirdly, they examine women in the kingdom of God in the life and teaching of Jesus, and in the final section, they deal with women in the new community of the early church and grapple with some of the more controversial writings of the apostle Paul. Mindful of the complexities, challenges, and debates, the authors seek to approach the Bible with humility and integrity while addressing vitally relevant issues for Christians today with clarity and confidence     Justice, Mercy, and Well-Being Peter G. Bolt, James R. Harrison, 2020-03-10 This collection of essays examines how God's justice and mercy intersect in the lives of individuals and their communities with a view to the establishment of personal and social well being in the world. The authors drawn from England and Australia approach the theme from a variety of methodological and interdisciplinary perspectives. Theological, exegetical, historical, healthcare, moral, and visual arts approaches are brought to bear in an investigation relevant for the identity and mission of the church in a world characterized by cycles of revenge, the perpetration of injustice, and the marginalization and persecution of various ethnic groups. The practical outcome of these studies has wide ranging relevance for our attitudes toward indigenous peoples, the well being of single and married people, healthcare throughout the ages, the spiritual care of people including those suffering dementia, the personal experience of trauma, issues of moral judgement, and the abiding value of the creative arts.
