Romantic Fallacies American U Studies Iv English Language And Literature Vol 31:

Romantic Fallacies Richard Hoffpauir, 1986 As a contribution to a critical debate this study is an attack in the tradition of Yvor Winters and F R Leavis on Romanticism in English poetry and criticism It begins with an outline of the movement in eighteenth century aesthetic thought that gave rise to several fallacious literary notions doctrines and procedures mythic form individual authority inspiration and dramatic immediacy The argument moves from an extended critique of Meyer Abrams Natural Supernaturalism through an evaluative comparison of William Wordsworth and George Crabbe to intensive analyses of the critical reputations and poetic weaknesses of those two most definitive of Romantic poems Coleridge s Kubla Khan and Keats s Ode to a Nightingale Books in Print Supplement ,2002 Yeats and the Rhymers' Club Joann Gardner, 1989 A diverse group of dedicated poets the Rhymers Club provided the environment in which W B Yeats learned his trade For the most part however these promising young writers passed into obscurity with the end of the Decadent age leaving behind only incomplete or inaccurate information concerning their activities and character This study brings together for the first time a comprehensive history of the group It examines the Rhymers influence on Yeats both as a young and a mature poet and the crucial ways in which he distinguished himself from his less successful contemporaries Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1996 Books in Series ,1985 Vols for 1980 issued in three parts Series Authors and Titles

Environmental Thought in Contemporary Pakistani Fiction Sonia Irum, 2025-03-11 This book looks at Pakistani fiction from an environmental perspective focusing on the novels of the internationally renowned author Uzma Aslam Khan It explores the rich environmental landscapes of Khan s works and their distinctive contribution to developing Pakistani ecocriticism The book examines the discourse on the environment in contemporary Pakistani fiction in English and the contribution of Khan s fiction such as The Story of Noble Rot Trespassing Thinner than Skin and others towards developing ecological thinking in Pakistani literature and literary criticism In her novels Khan gives voice to the nonhuman or the Other highlights the harmonious connections between humans and nature and reflects on the far reaching ecological social and health effects of climate change The author showcases literary activism and analyses how the state engages with the ecopolitical discourses in Pakistani society by studying the intersections of Western imperialism militarism state policies capitalism consumerism and global climate change The book will be of interest to students and researchers of English literature environmental studies ecocriticism literary and critical studies postcolonial studies and indigenous studies

Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 2003 The Moral Psychology of Contempt Michelle Mason, 2018-03-28 The eye roll the smirk the unilateral lip curl These psychologists tell us are typical expressions of contempt Across cultures such expressions manifest an emotional response to norm violations among them moral norms As such contempt is of tremendous personal and social significance whether in the context of a marriage on the rocks or a country in the grips of racial unrest Scholarship on contempt however lags far behind that of other emotional responses to norm violations such as anger disgust and shame Introducing original work by philosophers and psychologists this volume addresses empirical questions concerning contempt s emotional cognitive and behavioural signature It invites the general reader to reflect on whether contempt is something to be embraced and cultivated as an emotional safeguard of valued norms or rather an emotion from which we have good reason perhaps overriding moral reason to distance ourselves so far as is psychologically possible Advancing the nascent literature on contempt while setting future research agenda the volume is a resource for advanced students and scholars of both empirical and normative moral psychology

This book investigates the origins of figurative language in literary discourse within a cognitive framework It represents an interface between linguistics and literature and develops a 6 tier theoretical model which analyses the different factors contributing to the creation of figurative words and expressions By examining features ranging from language structure to figurative thought cultural history reference narrative and the personal experience of authors it develops a global overview of the processes involved Due to its particularly innovative characteristics in literature the theme of death is explored in relation to universal concepts such as love and time These aspects are discussed in the light of well known authors in comparative literature such as D H Lawrence Simone De Beauvoir Hermann Hesse and Jorge Luis Borges The origins can involve complex conceptual mappings in figures of speech such as metaphor and symbolism They are often at the roots of an author s personal desires or represent the search for answers to human existence This approach offers a wide variety of new ideas and research possibilities for postgraduate and research students in modern languages linguistics and literature It would also be of interest to academic researchers in these disciplines as well as the general public who would like to delve deeper into the relevant fields
