E. Springer, 2021-07-13 This book reconsiders the question of

Martin Luther's relationship with Rome in all its sixteenth century manifestations the early modern city he visited as a young man the ancient republic and empire whose language and literature he loved the Holy Roman Empire of which he was a subject and the sacred seat of the papacy It will appeal to scholars as well as lay readers especially those interested in Rome the reception of the classics in the Reformation Luther studies and early modern history Springer's methodology is primarily literary critical and he analyzes a variety of texts prose and poetry throughout the book Some of these speak for themselves while Springer examines others more closely to tease out their possible meanings The author also situates relevant texts within their appropriate contexts as the topics in the book are interdisciplinary While many of Luther's references to Rome are negative especially in his later writings Springer argues that his attitude to the city in general was more complicated than has often been supposed If Rome had not once been so dear to Luther it is unlikely that his later animosity would have been so intense Springer shows that Luther continued to be deeply fascinated by Rome until the end of his life and contends that what is often thought of as his pure hatred of Rome is better analyzed as a kind of love hate relationship with the venerable city She Seduced Me Mark Tedesco, 2021-07-09 I resisted but she drew me back I stayed away but she beckoned me I distanced myself but she haunted me I even rejected her but she did not abandon me This work of nonfiction is divided into chapters in which the reader experiences aspects of art culture history and the present through the eyes of the writer and of the inhabitants of Rome past and present Show Less She Seduced Me is that rare book in which the reader becomes part of a magical world in which places monuments and artists come alive through their stories In this case however that world is Rome and the reader becomes a participant in the ebb and flow of the city and gains insight into why so many have fallen in love with Rome despite its faults The journey commences with the reader accompanying the author who standing in front of Michelangelo's Moses statue mouth agape almost hears the artist scream at his creation Speak From this an odyssey of wonder begins what is the story behind the Trevi fountain behind that rock in the middle of the Roman Forum behind all those priests and nuns everywhere behind everything one stumbles upon wonders about and takes selfies in front of The quest is to uncover those stories Author and reader continue to explore the life in the piazzas experience camaraderie with street performers see history through all the senses get lost in Rome observe Americans and foreigners discover unique places to eat speak with Romans explore the houses of Nero Augustus and Livia encounter Caravaggio and chats with expats
