The Cambridge Critical Guide to Latin Literature Roy Gibson, Christopher Whitton, 2024-01-18 The Cambridge Critical Guide to Latin Literature offers a critical overview of work on Latin literature Where are we How did we get here Where to next Fifteen commissioned chapters along with an extensive introduction and Mary Beard's postscript approach these questions from a range of angles They aim not to codify the field but to give snapshots of the discipline from different perspectives and to offer provocations for future development The Critical Guide aims to stimulate reflection on how we engage with Latin literature Texts tools and territories are the three areas of focus The Guide situates the study of classical Latin literature within its global context from late antiquity to Neo Latin moving away from an exclusive focus on the pre 200 CE corpus It recalibrates links with adjoining disciplines history philosophy material culture linguistics political thought Greek and takes a fresh look at key tools editing reception intertextuality theory

The Valley of the Kings Kent R. Weeks, Nigel J. Hetherington, 2014-03-01 During the New Kingdom c 1570 1070 BCE the Valley of the Kings was the burial place of Egypt's pharaohs including such powerful and famous rulers as Amenhotep III Rameses II and Tutankhamen They were buried here in large and beautifully decorated tombs that have become among the country's most visited archaeological sites The tourists contribute millions of badly needed dollars to Egypt's economy But because of inadequate planning these same visitors are destroying the very tombs they come to see Crowding pollution changes in the tombs air quality ever growing tourist infrastructure all pose serious threats to the Valley's survival This volume the result of twenty five years of work by the Theban Mapping Project at the American University in Cairo traces the history of the Valley of the Kings and offers specific proposals to manage the site and protect its fragile contents At the same time it recognizes the need to provide a positive experience for the thousands of visitors who flock here daily This is the first major management plan developed for any Egyptian archaeological site and as its proposals are implemented they offer a replicable model for archaeologists conservators and site managers throughout Egypt and the region Published in both English and Arabic editions and supported by the World Monuments Fund this critical study will help to ensure the survival of Egypt's patrimony in a manner compatible with the country's heavy reliance on tourism income
