The Kierkegaardian Author Joseph Westfall, 2009-02-26 This study engages in a detailed examination of Kierkegaard's works of literary and dramatic criticism including those works directed at interpreting Kierkegaard's own authorship with a specific concern for both what Kierkegaard and Kierkegaard'sonyms and pseudonyms write about the nature and practice of authorship as well as how the Kierkegaardian authors practice authorship themselves Moving through five chapters each devoted to one or more works of Kierkegaard's criticism the study develops a new approach to reading Kierkegaard a new Kierkegaardian hermeneutic that begins always with the character of the author This new approach avoids the challenges of critics of biographical criticism such as Roland Barthes Michel Foucault and Jacques Derrida by positing the author always as a work of fiction him or herself the creation of an unknown and ever anonymous author of the author
