Reframing the "Desert Frontier" Rebecca Repper, M.C. Bishop, Dr Robert Bewley, 2025-03-01 The eastern frontier of the Roman Empire its network of roads trade routes towns and forts is often conceived of as an edge of both empire and civilisation but this borderland is also part of a rich cultural landscape Our awareness and appreciation of these cultures has increased dramatically over the course of the last century Scholarship has deepened methods have advanced and perspectives have shifted Across 20 chapters Reframing the Desert Frontier offers new insights into the rich cultural history of this region through the re examination of existing material such as archives historical accounts and previous surveys and through the use of novel archaeological approaches The bringing together of different methodological approaches to the archaeology of the region in a single volume highlights synergies and offers important comparisons for archaeologists to consider This volume highlights the work of Emeritus Professor David Kennedy whose contribution to the study of the Roman army the archaeology of Jordan and aerial archaeology has inspired and enhanced multiple projects that have reframed this so called desert frontier Reframing the Desert Frontier encapsulates the enriched view of this ancient region generated by new techniques of survey and analysis changed perspectives on older materials a more intense engagement with the rural landscapes surrounding ancient towns and the addition of new discoveries that alter previous consensus Barrington

Atlas of the Greek and Roman World Richard J.A. Talbert, 2000-10-08 In 102 full color maps spread over 175 pages the Barrington Atlas re creates the entire world of the Greeks and Romans from the British Isles to the Indian subcontinent and deep into North Africa It spans the territory of more than 75 modern countries Its large format 13 1/4 x 18 in or 33 7/8 x 46 4 cm has been custom designed by the leading cartographic supplier MapQuest com Inc and is unrivaled for range clarity and detail Over 70 experts aided by an equal number of consultants have worked from satellite generated aeronautical charts to return the modern landscape to its ancient appearance and to mark ancient names and features in accordance with the most up to date historical scholarship and archaeological discoveries Chronologically the Barrington Atlas spans archaic Greece to the Late Roman Empire and no more than two standard scales 1 500 000 and 1 1 000 000 are used to represent most regions Since the 1870s all attempts to map the classical world comprehensively have failed The Barrington Atlas has finally achieved that elusive and challenging goal It began in 1988 at the University of North Carolina Chapel Hill under the direction of the distinguished ancient historian Richard Talbert and has been developed with approximately 4.5 million in funding support. The resulting Barrington Atlas is a reference work of permanent value. It has an exceptionally broad appeal to everyone worldwide with an interest in the ancient Greeks and Romans, the lands they penetrated and the peoples and cultures they encountered in Europe, North Africa and Western Asia. Scholars and libraries should find it essential. It is also for students, travelers, lovers of fine cartography and anyone eager to retrace Alexander's eastward marches, cross the Alps with Hannibal, traverse the Eastern Mediterranean with St Paul or ponder the roads, aqueducts and defense works of the Roman Empire. For the new millennium, the Barrington Atlas brings the ancient past back to life in an unforgettably vivid and inspiring way.

Map by Map Directory: A Map by Map Directory to the Barrington Atlas is available online: http://assets.press.princeton.edu/B_ATLAS/B_ATLAS.PDF and in a separate two-volume print edition of close to 1,500 pages. The Directory is designed to provide information about every place or feature in the Barrington Atlas. The section for each map comprises a concise text drawing attention to special difficulties in mapping a region, such as extensive landscape change since antiquity or uneven modern exploration; a listing of every name and feature on the map with basic data about the period of occupation; the modern equivalents of ancient placenames; the modern country within which they are located; and brief references to relevant ancient testimony or modern studies; a bibliography of works cited. The Map by Map Directory is an essential accompaniment to the Barrington Atlas. As a uniquely rich, comprehensive, up-to-date distillation of evidence and scholarship, it has no match elsewhere and opens the way to an immense variety of further research initiatives.

Rome and Persia
Adrian Goldsworthy, 2023-09-05: A magnificent Spectator history of the epic rivalry between the ancient world's two great superpowers. The Roman empire was like no other. Stretching from the north of Britain to the Sahara and from the Atlantic coast to the Euphrates, it imposed peace and prosperity on an unprecedented scale. Its only true rival lay in the east, where the Parthian and then Persian empires ruled over great cities and the trade routes to mysterious lands beyond. This was the region Alexander the Great had swept through, creating a dream of glory and conquest that tantalized Greeks and Romans alike. Tracing seven centuries of conflict between Rome and Persia, historian Adrian Goldsworthy shows how these two great powers evolved together. Despite their endless clashes, trade between the empires enriched them both, and a mutual respect prevented both Rome and Persia from permanently destroying the other. Epic in scope, Rome and Persia completely reshapes our understanding of one of the greatest rivalries of world history.

Are We Rome?
Cullen Murphy, 2007: A compelling look at the unexpected ways America resembles ancient Rome and what we must do to avoid a catastrophic fall.

The Rome that Did Not Fall
Gerard Friell, Stephen Williams, 2005-08-08: The Rome that Did Not Fall provides a well-illustrated, comprehensive narrative and analysis of the Roman empire in the east, charting its remarkable growth and development which resulted in the distinct and enduring civilization of Byzantium. It considers the fourth-century background, the invasions of Attila, the resources of the east, the struggle for stability, the achievements of Anastasius.

Millar, 2011-05-01 This volume completes the three volume collection of Fergus Millar's essays which together with his books transformed the study of the Roman Empire by shifting the focus of inquiry onto the broader Mediterranean world and beyond The eighteen essays presented here include Millar's classic contributions to our understanding of the impact of Rome on the peoples cultures and religions of the eastern Mediterranean and the extent to which Graeco Roman culture acted as a vehicle for the self expression of the indigenous cultures In an epilogue written to conclude the collection Millar argues for rethinking the focus of ancient history itself and for considering the Levant and the eastern Mediterranean from the first millennium B C to the Islamic conquests a valid scholarly framework and an appropriate educational syllabus for the study of antiquity English translations of extended ancient passages in Greek Latin and Semitic languages in all the essays make Millar's most important articles accessible for the first time to specialists and nonspecialists alike Trajan Julian

Bennett, 2003-09-02 Did Trajan really deserve his reputation as the embodiment of all imperial virtues Why did Dante writing in the Middle Ages place him in the sixth sphere of Heaven among the Just and Temperate rulers In this the only biography of Trajan available in English Julian Bennett rigorously tests the substance of this glorious reputation Surprisingly for a Roman emperor Trajan comes through the test with his reputation relatively intact
